this is the beginning the point at which all things start with this beginning the realization of The Egg

The Egg
wherein is locked the secret of a man the substance of an individual the isolation
over self-realization

the beginning is concerned with destructive construction
the breaking of The Egg to define man in the plural

this is not a riddle of answer
but of question the answer lies within with man—
it is the question
composing the inclusive shell—and with this we start the beginning and postpone the end.

Ken,

Where do I begin to write we have been through so much together these past few years that I have known you. I must admit it's really all been a lot of fun. All the great memories of Palmetto will never be forgotten by me and I certainly hope not by you either.

You are truly a great guy, even though I am sometimes mean to you - I'm sorry but I never mean it - and I hope you know that.

I want us always to be friends and I hope we can always be in touch. Have a great time at school next year.

Best of luck to you forever and may be best of everything always be yours as you surely deserve it.

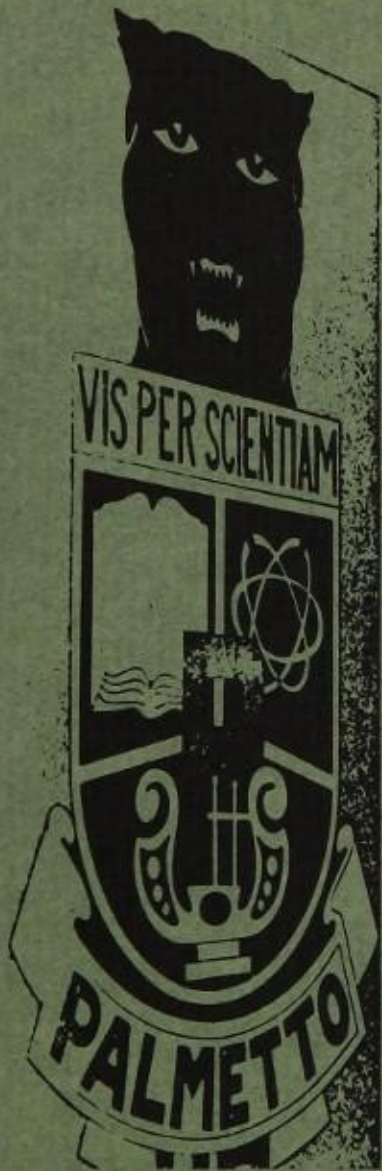

Love,

Robert Francis Kennedy Memorial

"My brother need not be idealized or enlarged in death
beyond what he was in life—
to be remembered simply as a good and decent man who saw wrong and tried to right it, saw suffering and tried to heal it,
saw war and tried to stop it.
Those of us who loved him and who take him to his rest today pray that what he was to us and what he wished for others will some day come to pass for all the world."

Principal Robert M. Maloney

Administration

Comings goings doings all regulated by the five administrative officials who helped mind the school.

Change—the key to administration. Four parents, six students, two teachers, Mr. Robert Maloney, and Mr. Leonard Glazer comprised the Human Relations Committee. Another innovation—the Discipline Committee—headed by Mr. Frank Paskewich and Mr. Matthew Thernes. How many times were you caught skipping? You little devil, you.

“And now, Mrs. Newman has a special announcement.” Mrs. Shirley Newman helped keep faculty and students in touch with current goings on; she headed the counseling staff and sponsored Girls’ Council, while Mrs. Helen Gwaltney acted as Assistant Principal for Curriculum.

Spring a time of rebirth, of newness. New intern instructors, too. The administration held an orientation for its semi-teachers. What went on? No one knows for sure.

“Hey, wasn’t that a three dollar bill?” Mr. Leonard Glazer, Student Activities Director, and Mindy Harris sell tickets.

Assistant Principals for Administration, Mr. Frank Paskewich, Mr. Mat Thernes, work to alleviate problems caused by a two shift system and increased student population.

Mrs. Helen Gwaltney, Assistant Principal for Curriculum, points out a passage on updated methods to school reading instructor, Miss Ann Powell.

After a hard day, Testing Chairman, Mr. Nick Taylor, relaxes. The counseling staff helps students behind in their studies by offering resource periods during the day.

"Is my lunch under 'R' for rye or 'W' for wheat?" ponders counselor Miss Jane Everitt. Actually, cumulative folders are a necessity but—bring on Excedrin.

Guidance

Who'd ever think of coming back to school early? The sophomores did. Orientation a-go-go attracted 950 students in pre-planning week during late August. Out to win the neophytes over were administration officials, counselors, homeroom teachers, and cheerleaders.

Problems? Gripes? Groans? That was what eight counselors handled once school rolled into full swing. The more, the merrier. A new counselling method placed emphasis on mass discussion. Group dynamics—it helped.

Who'd a thunk it? The senior class tromped into school for Florida Placements on an October teacher-work day. South Beach, here we come. Don't forget the thrill of the other test scores. PSAT. College Boards. National Merit. Keep up the good work, baby, and you're going places.

Group reflections as seen through a long tin can. . . . Mr. Gordon Hudson announces weekly test grades (bleah!)

(It is a tale told by an idiot, full of sound and fury, signifying nothing—Macbeth). Transformed by "new English," students wrote general topic sentences connected by specific paragraphs and studied the gospels of anyone from Dante to Fitzgerald. (Remember Gatsby?)

Athena, Goddess of Wisdom, shed tears when the mythology classes digested Oedipus the King. Asolo Theater Players treated contemporary and world lit students to The Misanthrope at the Grove Playhouse. Nosebag lunches. No sandals. Meanwhile, Huck Finn and Jim wandered down the Mississippi as modifiers continued to dangle and the highwayman kept riding, riding, riding. . . .

Mathematics

Take an empty room. Add thirty desks and fill them with people. Insert pencils, paper, slide rules, aching fingers, and emotional frustration. Sum=math. Sixty plus nine—a problem to set the mind racing. Nothing compared to those tackled by advanced placement calculus students, though. Whee.

Lower phase pupils were assigned to the self-instruction center, where they were treated to a complete set of prepared transparencies.

The ol' 600-wing overflowed. Junior mathematicians cropped up in the cafeteria, drama classroom, curriculum complex, and chemistry labs. Did Einstein have to contend with crumbs and spilled acid? Ah, the joy of triumph over adversity.

Classroom teacher—Mr. Chambers

Electrographic pencils weren't needed in the two television sections of biology. Just determination to be in the right place. Ho hum. English or biology today?

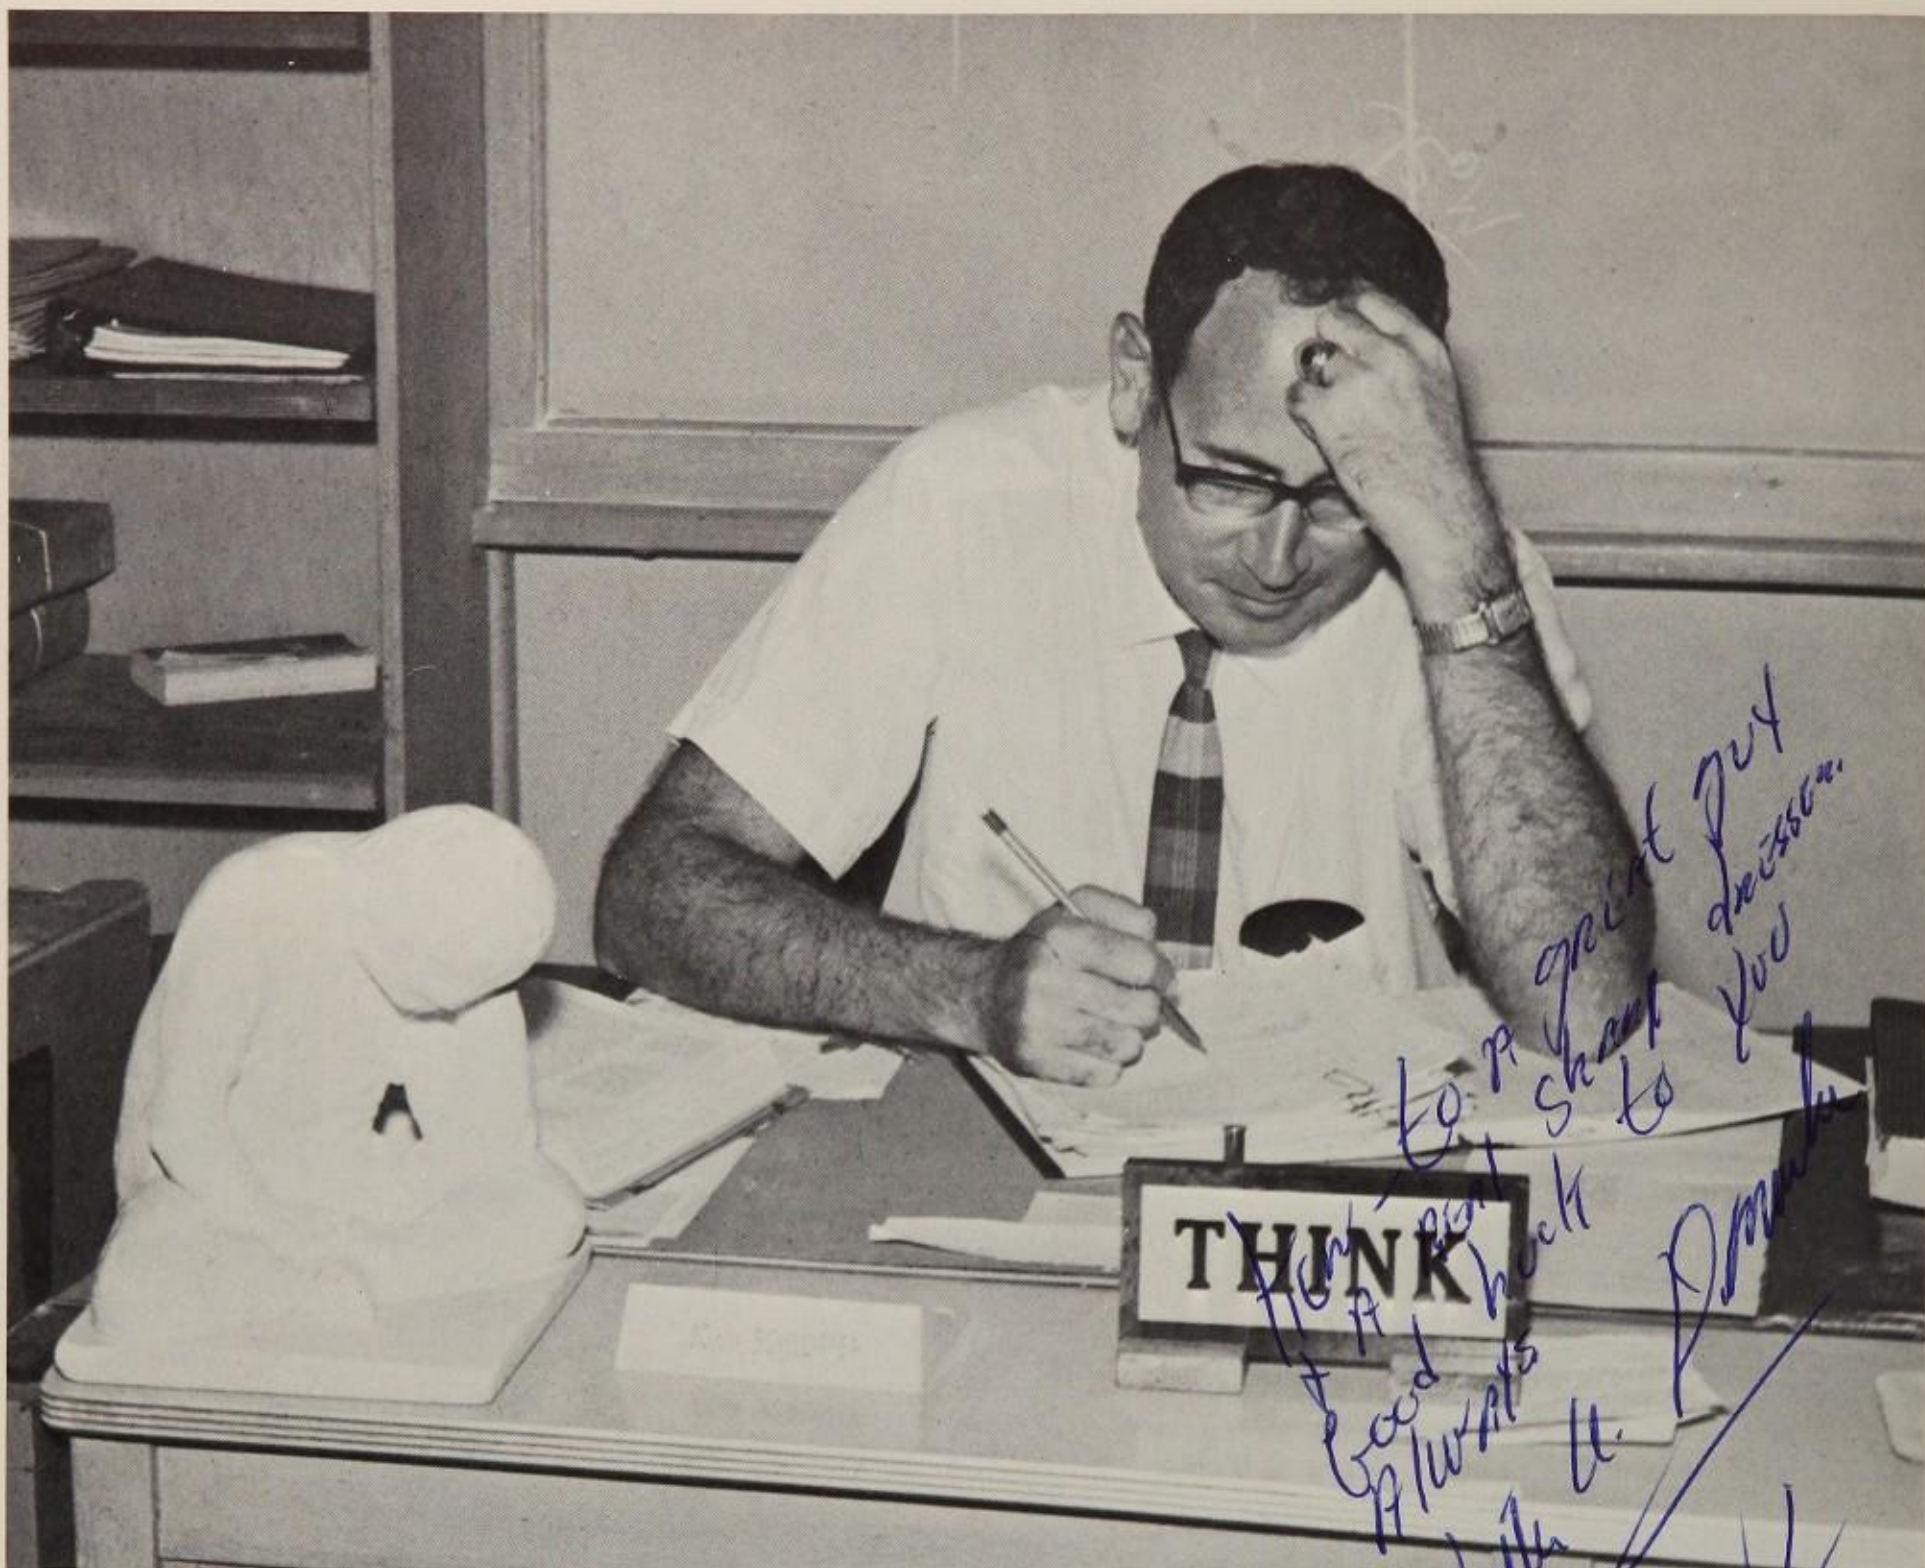

A complicated set up of alternating English-biology classes enabled students to have class in the auditorium and small classroom. Confusion intensified. For the first time, only phase three and four classes participated in telelessons. Biology phases one, two, and five found themselves in five-day-a-week classes.

Life. Death. And on. By a heartbeat, science moved on. Out to help win the race, 11 students concentrated on advanced scientific study. Whether working with a veterinarian at Crandon Park or spending time at the UM computer center, students went scientifically professional for two hours a day.

White rabbit? Slimy frog? Sleek cat? Or Reggie, fictional dinosaur cooked up by Department Head Errol Seegers? No time for toying around. Courses crammed with statistics were phased classes in biology II, chemistry, and physics. You know how it is.

"I coulda sworn there were only two." Mrs. Ferris shows Brad McMorris and Mike Kantor biology basics.

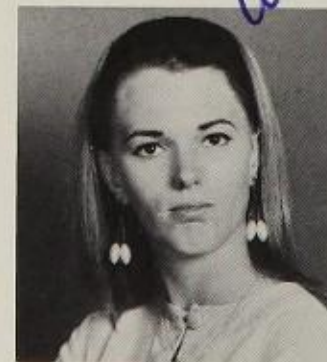

"When you're in English class, think English; when you're in government class, think government." Now try to figure out which class you're in.

Social Studies

That's life. Then and now. Come and gone . . . If you wanted the facts, all you had to do was stick around in social studies classes. Ho hum.

Eleventh grade history and psychology students hearkened to statistics. The fall's prime concentration centered on LSD, marijuana, and liquor. (Hic.) Guests from the South Miami Agency on Narcotics shocked the students with yarns of mental retardation and drug convictions. Visions of dancing sugar plums, anyone?

Hey, boy, why were you in school? To learn the truth, huh? Courses in U.S. History and Government, Americanism vs. Communism, Sociology, Psychology, and World History attempted to spark the conflagration of knowledge. (Look that up in your Funk & Wagnall's.)

Who ever heard of basic sentences for Latin class? The "dead" language came alive with new books and audiolingual aids. How were things at the Forum?

Felicitations pour etre sorti le premier. Junior linguists competed with others on the local and state levels. Extra-curricular activities, competitions, and free food stimulated students' interest in the study of foreign cultures. Happiness is a dish of fries, Wiener-schnitzel, tortillas. . . .

Physical Education

Forty-eight, oh . . . forty-nine, uh . . . fifty . . . whew . . . Girls' PE classes struggled through sit-ups during the National Physical Fitness Program.

Leaping, jumping, hopping . . . sometimes even falling and missing—all part of scrambling for the ball. Soccer, football, and softball for boys; volleyball, basketball, and tennis for their female counterparts. Side out. We won. Whoopee. Modern dance went modern with new team teaching methods.

To prevent a flabby and/or weak masculine set, the department acquired weight racks, side horse, balance beam, and beat board. Yes, sir, all four phases in tip-top shape.

Meanwhile, 300 yards away, squealing brakes. Mobil bravados endured Drivers' Education. Newly-hatched Granitellis. After maneuvering around and into perplexing obstacles for nine weeks, 1100 students were issued the precious document—a Florida State Driver's License.

Out to win over employers with competent work skills, more students than ever before enrolled in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and office machinery courses. Click-clack. Click-clack. The workings of industry in infancy. "You mean I have to cut my fingernails again?!"

Objective: get a job. Mr. John Pollack spearheaded on-the-spot training in merchandise mart as student employees found jobs just about anywhere. Supermarket. Clothing store. Reception room. Supervisor's office. In all, take-home pay came to about $18,000. There's one for Look magazine, eh?

Vocational Arts

"Bake at 350° for (uh-oh) 25 minutes." No wonder. Oh, well, better luck next time. Junior gourmets practiced cooking skills more or less successfully. You mean you actually like raisins in soup? Sewing courses emphasized color, texture, and fabric.

Hey, move over. The home economics living room became a classroom as overcrowding took its toll. All the comforts of home, anyway.

Crash . . . clang . . . crunch . . . next year's power mechanics will use the new building added behind shop classes. Amid deafening ruckus, the walls took shape. Eh? You'll have to speak louder; I can't hear a word. Other courses included wood and metal shops, drafting, and architectural and technical drawing.

Meanwhile—up in the air, Junior Birdmen. Fliers of the future trained at the George T. Baker Aviation School. For three hours a day, they tinkered with three million dollars' worth of equipment. Is this any way to learn about an airline? You bet it is.

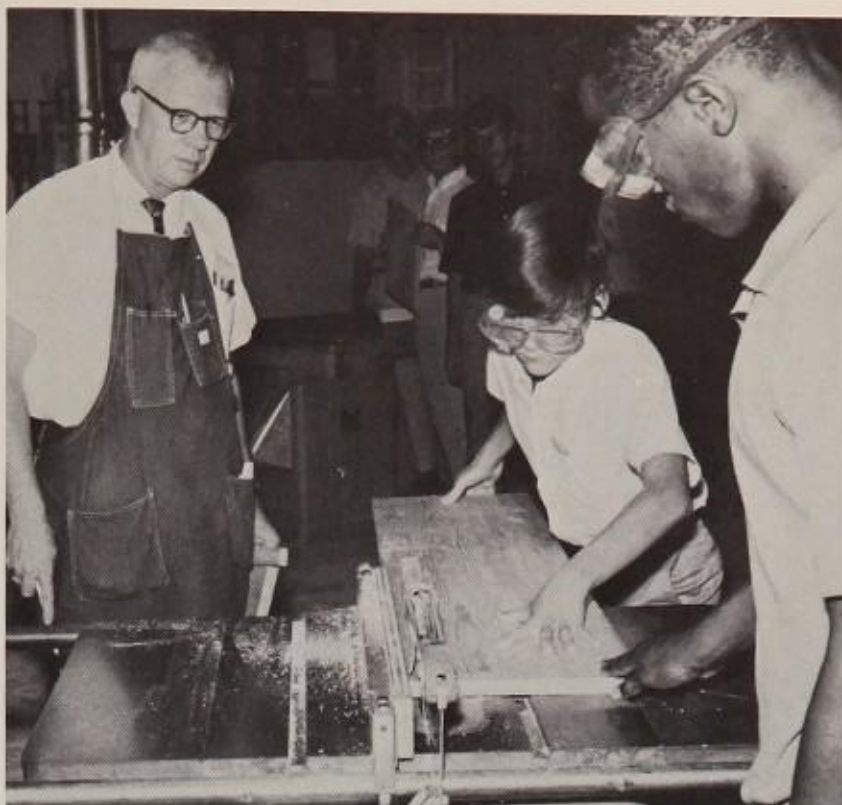

Leslie Bell experiences defeat as Mrs. Jean Smith manages to score tic-tac-toe.

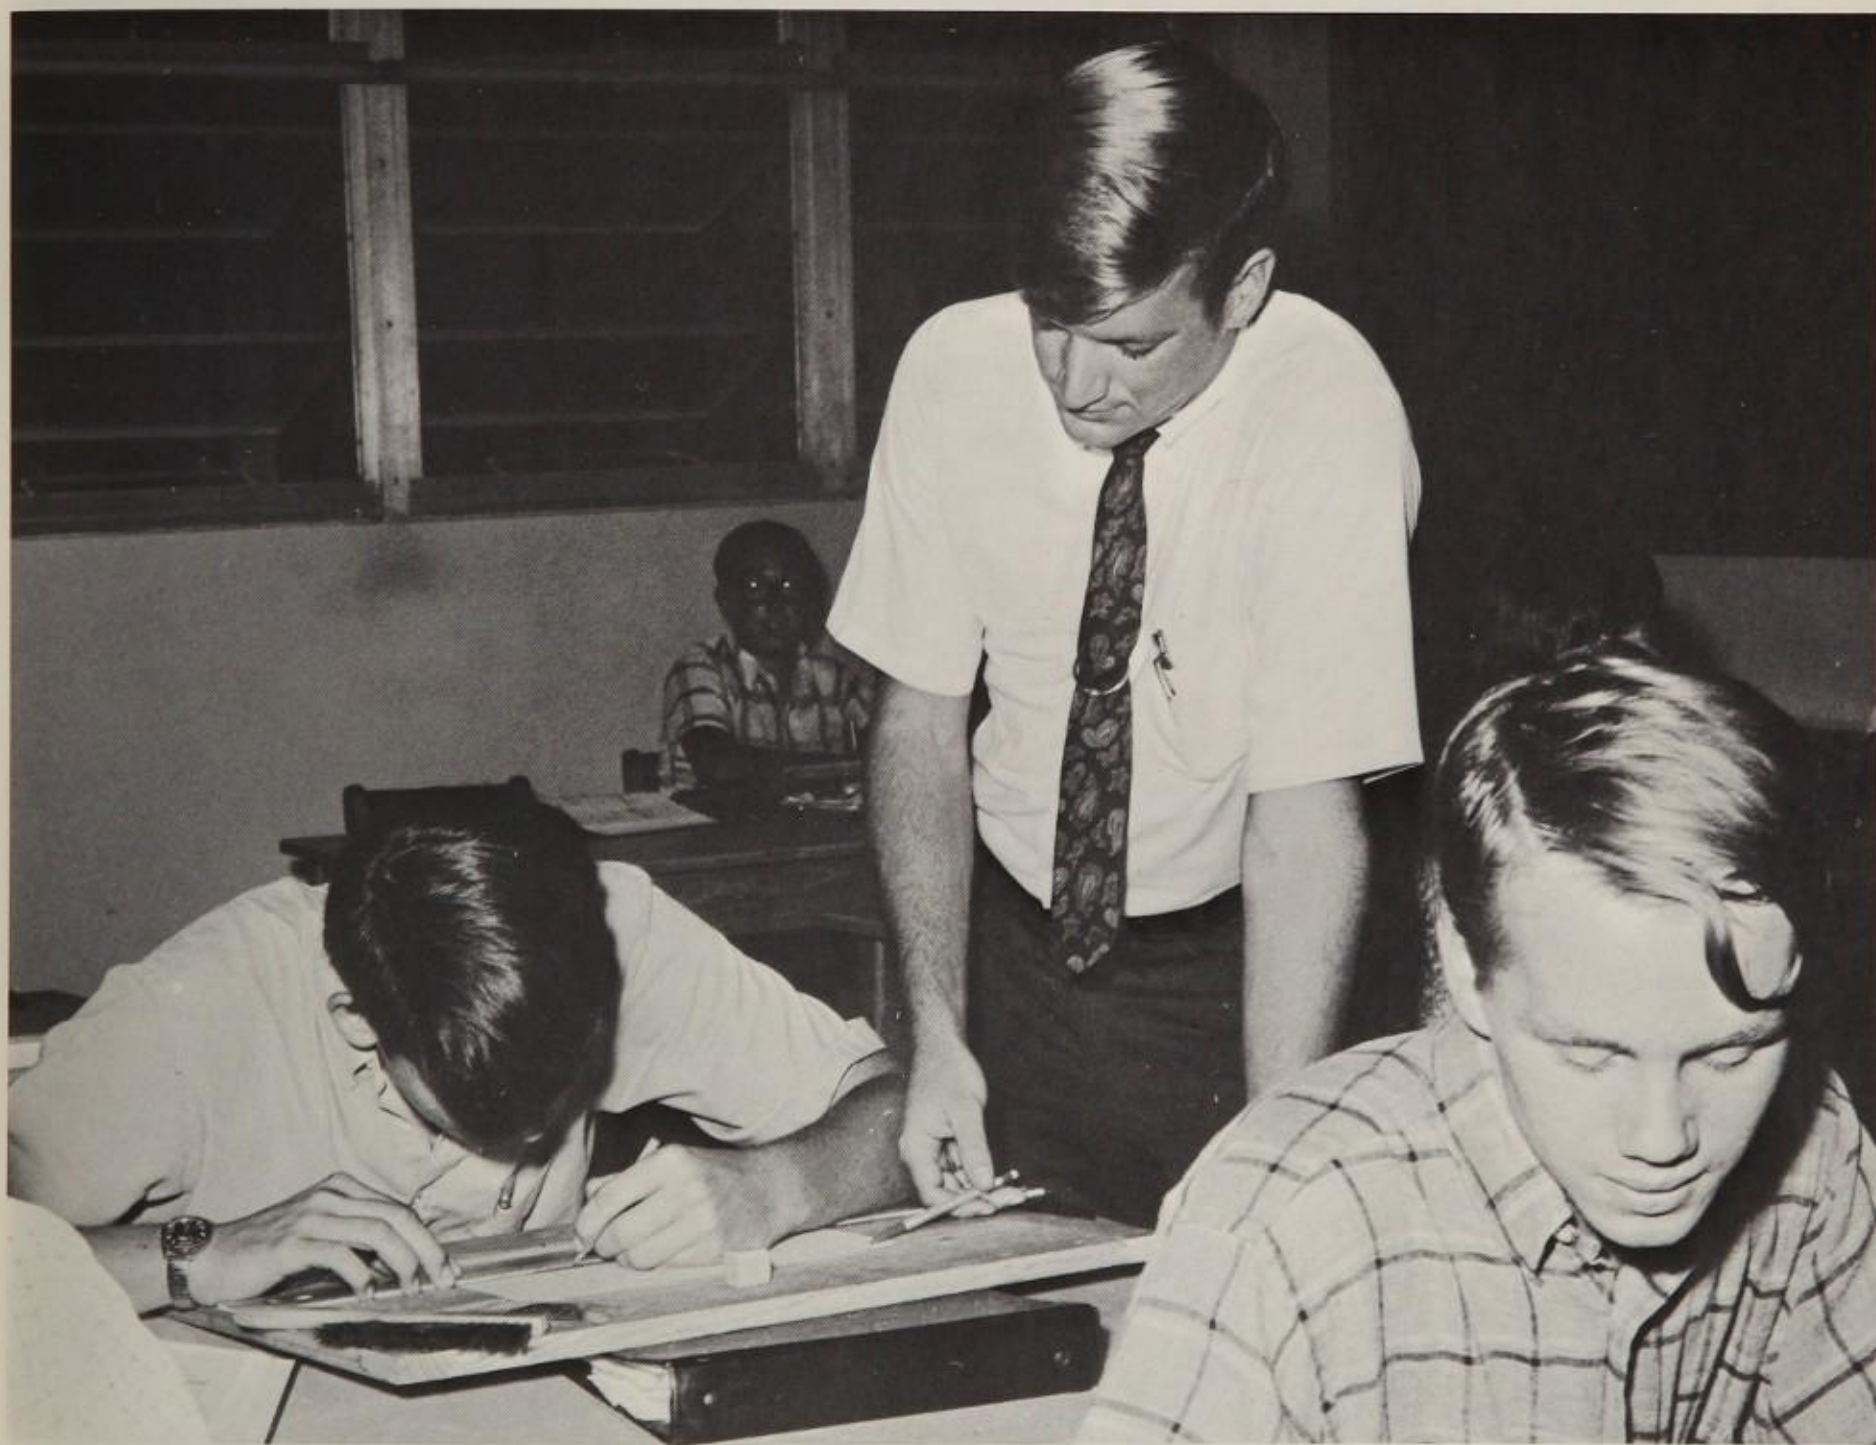

Haven't I seen you somewhere before? He looked like you—tall, heavy, iron face. Mr. David Days instructs shop students in the application of welding.

Well, how about two out of three?

"How much wood could a woodchuck chuck with this thing?"

Looked at any architectural plans made by a computer? Mr. Thomas Wheeler prefers the trial and error method of his graphics students.

"But I thought I was the lead." Angela Miller and Carolyn Hansen demonstrate two basic dramatic positions for Mr. Sam Daniels

Creative Arts

Cheeks taut. Lips tensed. Blood, sweat, and tears—but self-expression.

Whatever you do, kids, be yourself. Whether in drama, speech, music, art, or publication work, pupils experienced success and failure. Shouts and whirling psychedelic posters. Distorted sights and sounds. Part of being in focus with the time.

Zap. Not so fast. Ideas took shape with the help of renovation. For journalism, it was the purchase of a foil-stamping machine. Music lovers found pianos available for use. Debate Club beckoned speech students. Art pupils' designs benefited from the purchases of an etching press, enameling kiln, grinder, leather buffer, and jewelry finisher. Through a Valentine's Day carnation sale, Thespians earned money to buy stage scenes for Bad Seed. Ding Dong—the witch may be dead, but creative arts marches on and on and on and. . . .

In the still of the library, Mrs. Nancy Swinney types on her typewriter amid the quiet books. The library retained its motto "Shhhhhhhh!" the entire year.

Library—A.V.

Shh. Bang. Shh. Quiet———. Movement here and there. Around one-third of the school population used the library daily. All the comforts of home, too. Silence. Relaxation. A new lounge area and artistic interior decoration sparked additional interest.

Supreme sacrifice—giving up study hall for the library. During regular hours, student volunteers helped collect fines, locate references, and shellac the thousand new books. A dozen mechanically-minded boys assisted Mr. W. P. Collins in handling the audio visual equipment. Popcorn, anyone?

Librarians became nightowls, keeping the stacks open Monday-Thursday evenings from 7 'till 9. Yawn.

"Mirror, mirror, on the wall—how I wish I were finished with student fee slips once and for all," sighs office staffer Mrs. Faye Ebsary.

Office Staff

Good guys to the rescue. Office efficiency, a white hat special, kept the school running smoothly. Even during summer months secretaries toiled, totaling student credits, assigning pupils to home-room sections, and processing newcomers.

Didn't like your substitute? Speak to the office personnel. Besides hiring fill-in teachers, they manned the switchboard and completed everything from permanent records to diplomas. (A misspelling?!) "How do you do? Nice to meet you. Go straight down the corridor and turn to your right." —the unofficial welcoming committee on the job.

Mrs. Rosemary Merritt enjoys variety of "Yeas, yeas numba please!" Ten office secretaries handle a number of tasks throughout the day.

Arranging salads for student consumption is Mrs. Bettie Crouche, one of cafeteria workers. Yes, those are peas in your jello, baby.

Service Department

Six-thirty. Jingling keys opened doors. Six forty-five. Cafeteria staffers arrived. Tick-tock. Tick-tock. First to come. Last to leave. Time to work. Time to clean. Tick-tock. Tick-tock. Sore feet. Dishwater hands. Work. Work. Work.

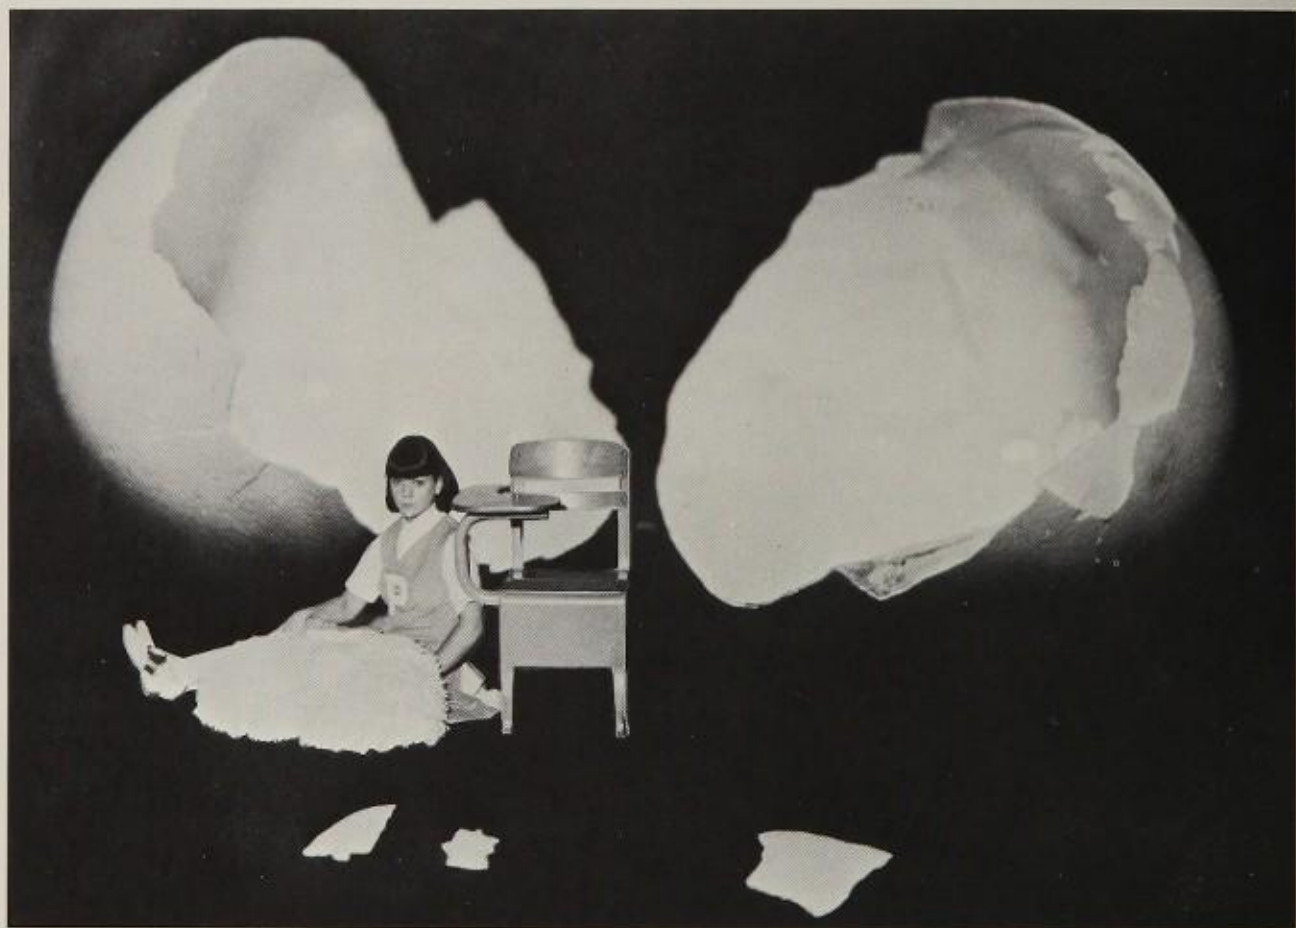

Behind the scenes, Service Department members kept up 23 acres of school property. Among other duties, fifteen workers, each responsible for 17,500 sq. ft., maintained machinery, cared for 3,130 hall lockers, and replaced an average of seven light bulbs per day.

Tick-tock. Time moves. Time to eat. Bubble, bubble, toil and trouble. Time to feed 1300 students. Luncheon menus, furnished six weeks in advance by the School Food Service, revolved around hot meals. Ever busy, staffers added box lunches. Yum, yum.

Mural, mural, on the wall. How interesting you are. Contributing to the cafeteria's atmosphere, a 35½ ft. x 8 ft. wall painting of school activities on the south side of the lunchroom reached completion in the fall. Atmosphere plus.

Homecoming Parade

Yessir, Sonny, I do remember the Great Shortage of '69. Not a roll of t.p. (blush) to be found anywhere in Kendall. Hard times, indeed.

Fold, gather, staple, fluff. Fold, gather, staple, fluff. Palmetto's Homecoming Parade used countless rolls of tissue to decorate the club and class floats. Besides adding some fuel to the paper flower fad, the parade featured a life-size airplane and a Brobdingnag beer mug.

Looking hopefully ahead, Senior Class' first-prize entry was a blue and white mortarboard*. Flowers, natch.

Hey, that kid with the bassoon's out of step. Panther Band displayed color and originality in productions during halftime at football games. A regular class period allotted time to learn a medley of songs. Rehearsals three days a week were held to practice the formations. (Yes, they're all there).

Eat your Wheaties this morning? Panther Band also marked time in Bowls. (Super Bowl.) (Orange Bowl.) Heads up. Stomachs in. Eyes front. "Let us entertain you. Let us make you smile—"

Off we go into the wild, blue yonder. In order to participate in Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C., band members sold pennants, candy, school supplies . . . oh, well, just about everything. "You. Ya, you. Wanta friend?"

Look at that kid with the ridiculous hat. Featured music wasn't the band's only specialty. Try making costumes. Hip . . . hip . . . hurrah. Three cheers for the band. Band members have barrel of pzazz.

The Marching Band helps lift Palmetto's spirit at the all important Coral Gables game played at Central Stadium.

"Hey watch that hanky panky in the tuba section". Drum major Rod Parrish keeps good control of the band throughout Palmetto's games.

In Mr. Joe Bragg's spare moments, does he give landing signals to jet planes?

Hup-two-three-four. Here comes the band. My, don't we look neat in straw hats and panchos? Hup-two-three-four.

Chatonettes

"One more word and you're out," threatened Felicia Romeo, Chatonette captain. Oh, yes. Second only to the U. S. mail, the Chatonettes practiced in rain, mud, etc., to perform at football half-time shows with the good old' marching band.

One, two, three—kick, turn—run around and make sure you do it with everyone else. Stage fright ever? Why? You only have to remember about three routines a game to perform in front of a vicious, screaming crowd. And then there's the Orange Bowl Parade and the trip to Washington, D. C. for the Apple Blossom Festival. Oh, well. Another year in the life of a Chatonette. . . .

Grimacing as the slushy mud oozes through her toes, majorette Ricki Shaw awaits signal to begin.

Majorettes

Being a majorette was:

- (check one) ☐ fun
☐ mind-expanding
☐ tragic

Eight girls led by Ricki Shaw performed at football games. They were literally traffic-blocking (while practicing for Orange Bowl Parade). Get it? Ha, ha.

Hup . . . two . . . three . . . four . . . "We've Got Rhythm"—an appropriate theme song for majorettes as they rehearsed routines.

Patience, patience. Glowing faces. Flashing batons. Embarrassment—"Try not to drop it again, okay?" If at first you don't succeed . . .

Junior majorette Valerie Compton stands rigid as the band plays our Alma Mater.

Pausing before the half-time crowd, Lewis Williams portrays the popular conception of exuberant majorette.

"Is it a home game? I'll say it is. Here comes the school flag corps." Enthusiasm personified—blue and white (gloves and muddy boots) gracing the field of battle during half-time.

"The Ballad of the Flag Corps"

It seems as if they've just commenced,
when the music dies away;
The leaping legs and hurling arms slow down to just a sway.
They've made it through another show,
their hearts about to burst;
Let's hear it for our Flag Corps,
another Palmetto "First."

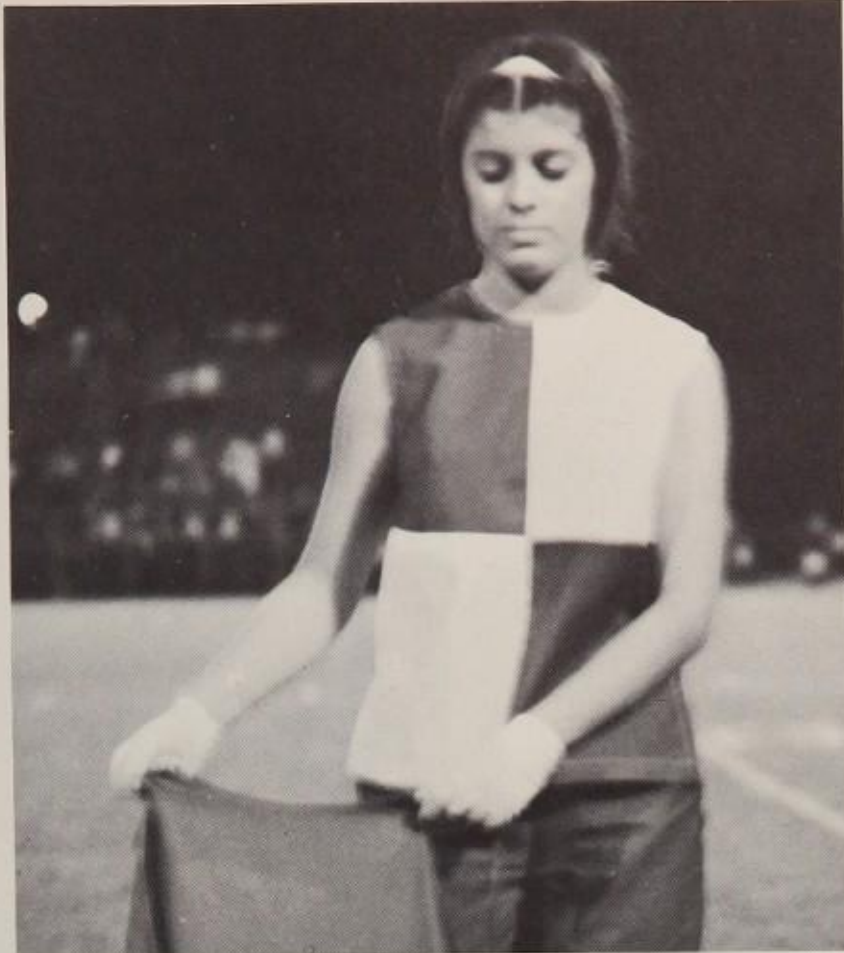

anonymous

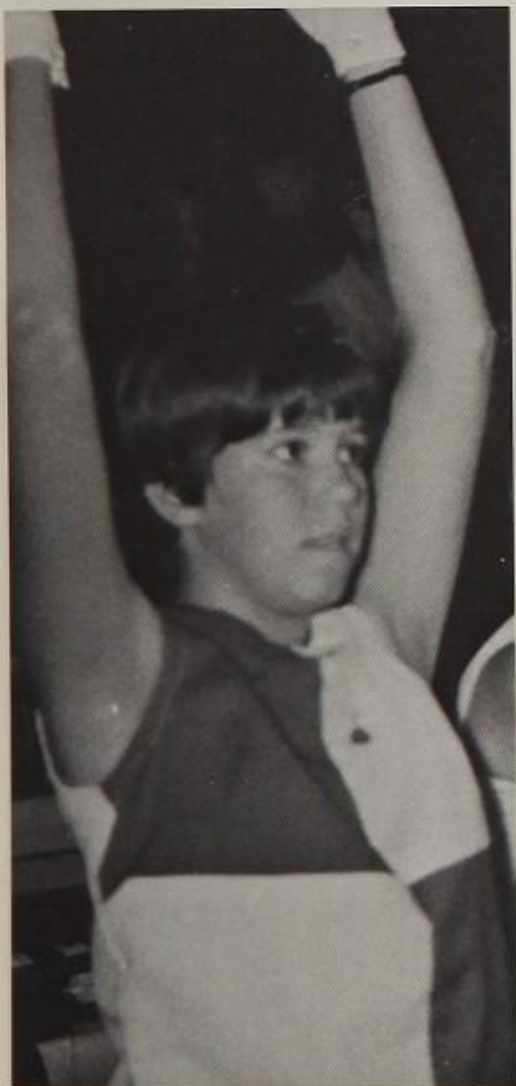

Which team will make it to the locker room first? Wendy Lester and Shelly Bloomfield place bets.

"Will Palmetto win? I say YES! I say YYY-ES!" Sue Huffman take break.

Is Debbie Mathews practicing to be a matador? SWISH. SWISH. Flag Corps' colorful routines delight the crowds at home games.

"Yeaaa . . ." Enjoying the excitement of a touchdown is soph. Nancy Kyle.

Have flag—will travel. Martha Fowler, Gloria Ferguson and Jan Coohshank step high.

Varsity Cheerleaders

"Palmetto's got the team that's got the spirit-YEAH." Twelve varsity cheerleaders: ubiquitous*—behind the scene, on the spot. Full-time cheerleaders, part-time seamstresses; they designed and made new corduroy jumpers for uniforms.

Unanimously elected captain, Karen Bosco was in there all the way yelling and screaming for spirit galore. Marcee Sherrill, second-in-command, upheld her duties by assisting Karen with skits for Panther Prowl and Senior Stunt Night. BONUS: cheerleaders could be heard (joy, joy) in WFUN's "Cheer of the Year" contest held in September.

*Existing or being everywhere at the same time; omnipresent.

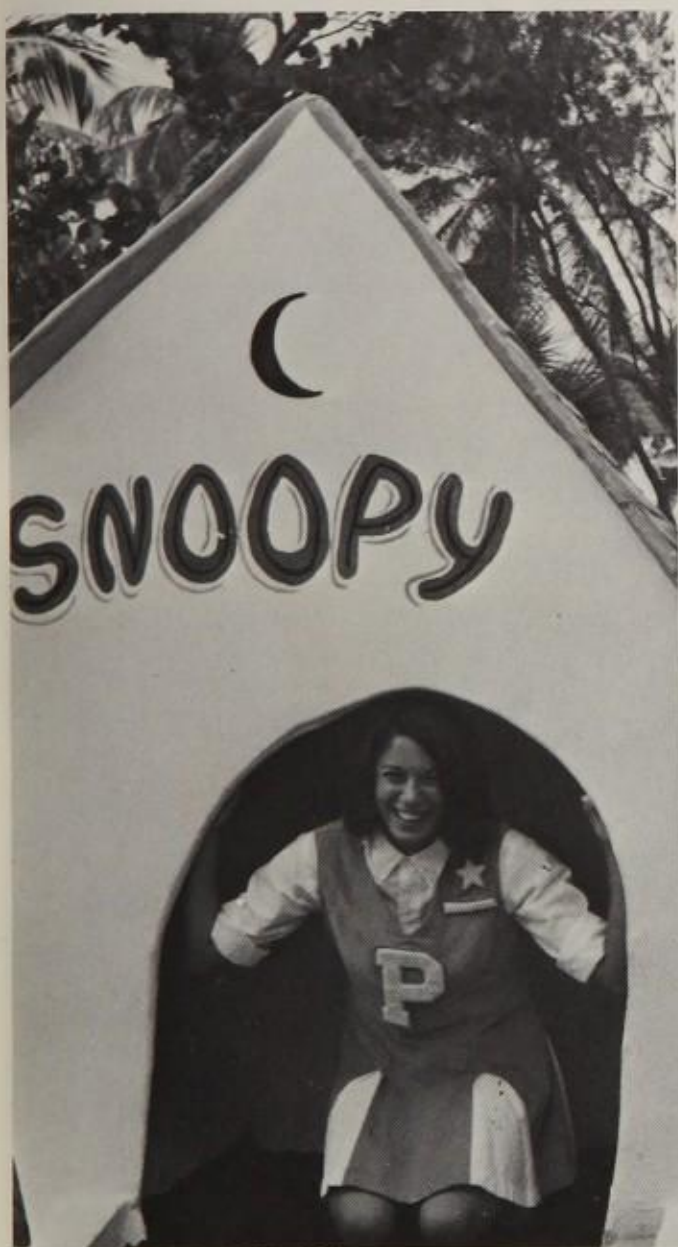

Exhausted, but still tin-tin-nabulating with spirit, newcomer Gail Sosby matches vivacity of the squad and shares their enthusiasm at the homecoming game.

"Yipee-Yipee, our side had fifty percent fewer cavities." Always smiling, Karen Hallstrand picks up the Panther spirit.

J. V. Cheerleaders

100% increase. (Back to General Math . . . let's see . . . $10 + 10 = 20$.) And so, ladies and gentlemen: according to the latest statistics—there were twenty cheerleaders. Twenty girls on one squad? No, no. Two squads of ten, the J's and the V's. The J squad was led by Captain Colleen O'Connor, while Susan Watson was captain of the V squad. Girls cheered at the JV football and basketball games.

Panther Staff

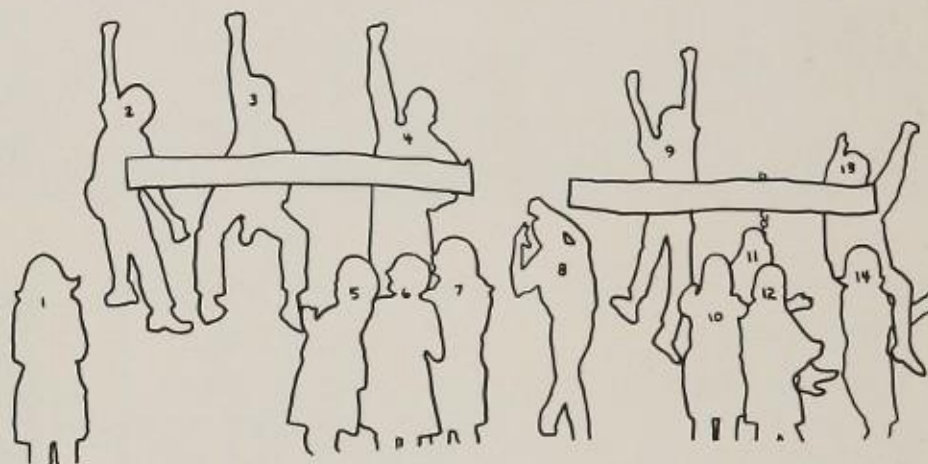

And now a tale to tell your grandchildren . . .

The Legend of Famond Forest

Once upon a time in the "never, never land just inside reality,"¹ there lived a fearsome tribe known as The Panther Staff. They were the feared "Papermen" —a legend in their time. Their rivals (here come the black hats) managed to secure them in a cage by sheer force of numbers, but Miami Palmetto's students rose to the challenge and fought their way to the heart of the grimy Famond Forest. They made the pilgrimage, telling some tales on the way, eight times a year so the staffers could be released to produce the paper (to read or wrap fish in), happily ever after. . . .

Where, oh where, has my paper gone? Where, oh where, can it be?
Palm Echo sponsor Mrs. Peeples hunts through yearbook proofs.

Palm Echo Staff

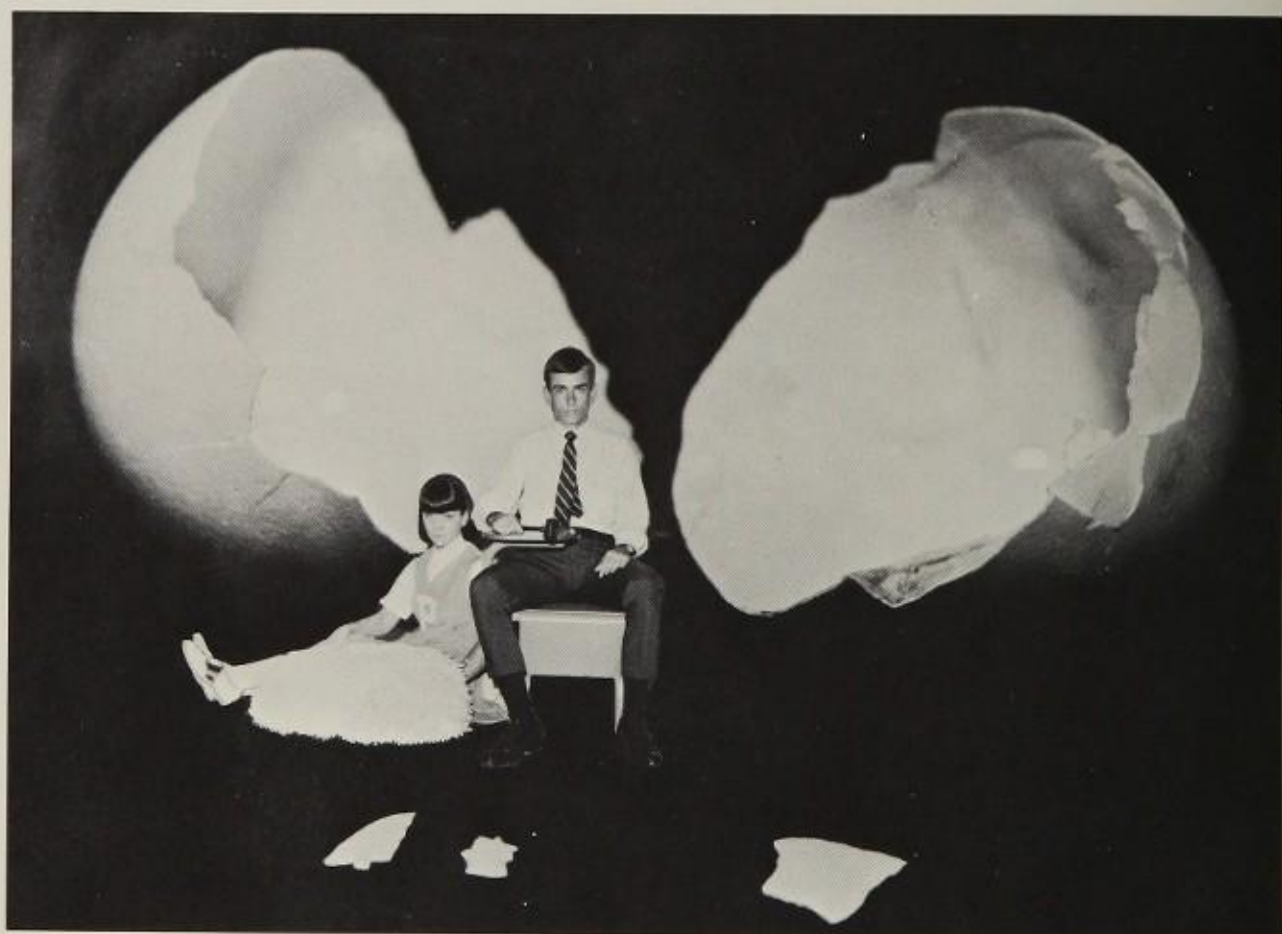

Fifty staffers spent a year assembling the 1969 Palm Echo. Hey, you, stop laughing; that's not the right attitude.

Everyone participated in the homeroom sales campaign early in the fall. Typical query: "Will you take (700) pennies?"

Having re-discovered journalism (as opposed to salesmanship), the staffers began to make a yearbook. "Running" to Burdines (official photographer) became a lunchtime habit.

Nineteen hundred and sixty-eight . . . scheduling and re-scheduling of group shots (where were you, Wally?). Excedrin headache #305—having a caption that doesn't fit. Always meeting a new deadline, or at least trying. Doing current events for economics and using the phone. Basically, chaos.

And yet, hopefully you are reading this book. Miraculous?—perhaps? After all, they only had three typewriters.

Student Council

Decisions. Decisions.

Student Council started off with the publishing of the Student Directory. (Number, please.) To earn additional funds, SC sold used paperbacks. "But the binding isn't supposed to come unglued. Rats."

Ever busy, Student Council gathered canned goods for needy families in December. (Stack it over there.) To help keep up Panther spirit, SC sold beat tags during football season.

Hungry for a steaming roast beef sandwich? Uh? SC made it possible when they launched a drive to allow the student body to leave school grounds during the lunch period. Just don't forget your permission slip.

"This is a hall. This is a locker. This is a water fountain." Girls' Council's Big-Little Sister Picnic welcomed incoming sophomores.

The Council, designed to represent all girls, installed six members per grade level in the fall (Can't I keep my candle for souvenir?). They also sponsored a sophomore dress making project for Head Start.

Members modeled holiday fashions at their December fashion show. A new twist: home made merchandise. The Council sponsored the annual girl-and-boy Christmas Dance, this year at the Dupont Plaza. Sigh. Maybe next year I'll have the nerve.

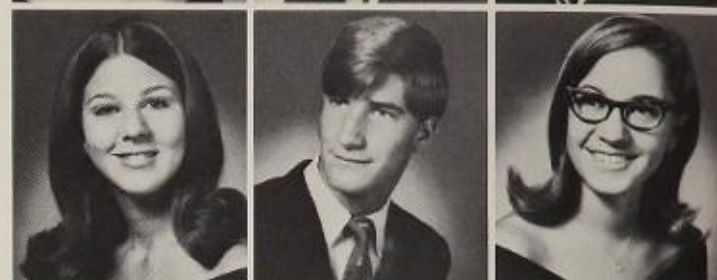

Cheering for leap year? Nah. Things couldn't be better as Dot DeGross plays a "hick" from So. Dade.

Say, it's not what you did, but what you're gonna do. Pin on the blue ribbon. National Honor Society members made the grade—at least a 3.4.

Just another stop. Then where? A world whizzing by. Tee hee. College just around the _J_. Good grief. But, hey, I'm better prepared. NHS's tutoring services helped develop the digging for info's skill.

Candles, flowers, organ music, and a dignified atmosphere. No, not a funeral, but the January induction of NHS members. A doctor from Homestead Air Force Base provided the keynote address.

Monthly meetings featured guest speakers, including representatives from the FBI and the draft board. In the spring, junior members installed new officers at the annual end-of-the-year banquet. One hamburger medium well—hold the mustard.

*These pages brought to you courtesy of the NHS car wash. Soap, water, and lots of elbow grease helped to get the chrome shining. Two satisfied customers: Mrs. Olga Wejebe and Mrs. Lois Wells.

QUESTION: What is $(S_{a1}^{b1}drS_{a2}^{b2}(gof)|Jf|ds)$?
Toyed around with the problem and can't find a solution? Try this one.

QUESTION: If you have five apples and you take away two apples, how many apples do you have left? Actually, in case of math emergency, just call MAΘ's tutoring service.

Mu Alpha Theta recognized the outstanding math students. After applying and being accepted, the members submitted a required research paper—at least three pages, typewritten. (And I bet you thought it was just a social club.)

Math honor society prepared students for stiff competition in the National Mathematics Exam in the spring. Blacken in the correct circle.

Thespians

Once upon a time, in a fairyland of learning,
Dwelted a prosperous group of students,
their young minds ever churning.
Seemingly dedicated to acting new and old,
Thespians marched through the year
their goals marked high and bold.
Under strong leadership of good King Daniels
the little group made their way
Sometimes fumbling, ever dropping,
Always stumbling, yet never stopping,
they set about their plays.
Our mighty corps defended themselves against the primary schools they rocked.
And showed hobbits their power,
like a pistol about to be cocked.
Ever struggling throughout the bad,
and floating through the good,
Our Thespians displayed great talent,
as all fine Thespians should.
You must speak these words trippingly on the tongue . . .

In the climax of Harvey, Bob Oransky persuades Howie Michaelson to submit to an injection which will drive away invisible rabbit.

The German Honor Society, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Linda Byer, was more active than ever this year.

The club's activities included collecting dues, collecting dues again, and, to end the year according to tradition, collecting dues once more.

Les Jeunes Filles

Lay joon fee. Repeat: lay joon fee. Got it now?

Les Jeunes Filles service club "beautified" the library with the temporary addition of a (rented) welded tulip and the donation of several paintings. What a cultured, relaxed atmosphere (see page 69).

The continuing project of helping at the South Miami Thrift and Gift Shop continued. LJF members also donated time and energy to such services as marching for Muscular Dystrophy, distributing Halloween candy to orphans, and answering phones at the Channel 2 Auction. "No, this not the city dump . . . If I get another wrong number . . ."

To the memorable cry of "Pork chops, pork chops/ greasy, greasy/ we're gonna beat y'all/ easy, easy," LJF dramatists (believe it or not) won second prize at the Panther Prowl.

"Know a better way to make a buck? Huh?"

Interact

Some people have no problem finding a seat with elbow room—especially when the seat's in the middle of the student parking lot on Saturday morning. Yawn. The Interact members turned from homework to sweeping. Swissssh.

Now you see it—now you don't. Homecoming float (Where'd you get the wood, boys?). Donations (attractive trash cans.) Been out to the airport lately? Senior Stunt Night ("We came. We saw. We worked.")

Constant barrages of "Buy your balloon" brought hard-earned quarters in during Homecoming fundraising project. Doing their part for the community, the Interact boys helped at annual Channel 2 auction. Sticky hands. Full tummies. "You're a swell guy." Working with cystic fibrosis children at Christmas topped Interact's projects.

What a year. Through the help of Rotary and Mr. Walter DiMarko, advisor, service club members spent a total of 2520 hours helping others. Oops. I forgot. Friday nights at Elliott Key. Everyone realized what "busy" really was.

Key Club

Big brothers to the rescue. Key Club boys sponsored a baseball team for fatherless boys in Perrine. Three strikes—you're out. Every Saturday members guided the boys in sports and money-raising projects. Ho, ho, ho, and jingle, jingle. The club donated and decorated Christmas trees for the orphanage.

Members (alias White Tornadoes) spent afternoons cleansing school desks of pencil marks and other filth. Broken bottles and crushed paper cups were no match for Key's parking-lot sweepers.

Key (Kiwanis-sponsored) entered a skit in Senior Stunt Night. They also erected a booth at the Mardi Gras. Step right up, folks . . .

ICC

A good year for ICC in the Activities Office—home away from home. "Quick, get the napkin before Mr. G. spills the cake I baked." Philosophical discussions and stray dogs . . . Inter-Club Council's helpful hints (ICC bulletin).

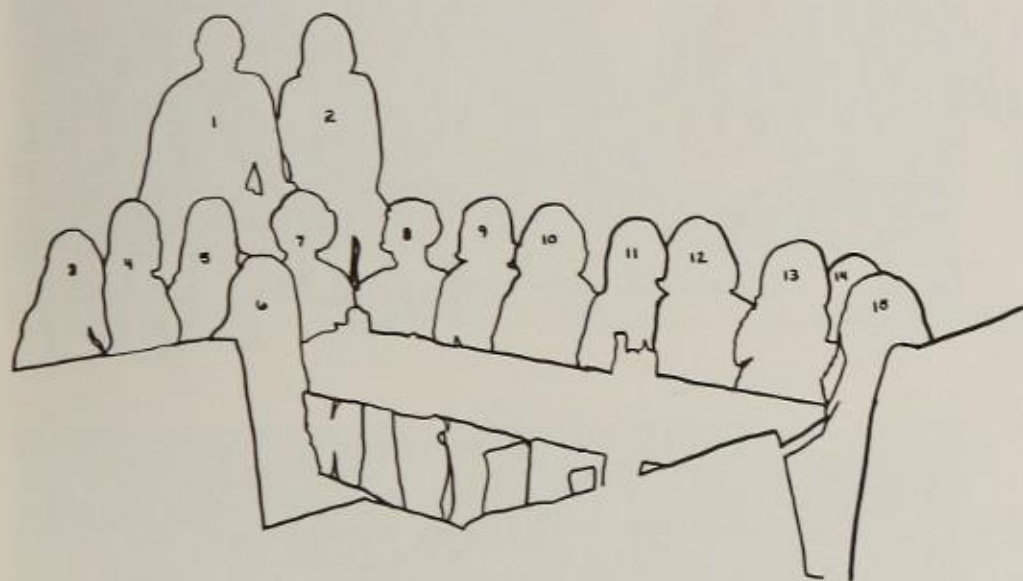

Coordinating the varied activities of Palmetto's clubs and organizations was a big job. But WOW—Little things add up, too. "Who's going to take the table down to the cafeteria???" . . . "I do NOT have the money box."

Close up of Sally Stripling—Vice-President of Les Jeune Filles and member of the Council.

ICC members: Angela Miller, Jackie Bielek, Candice Calender, Pat Battle, Edward Hayes, Georgeann Venis, Bill Pinkston, Bill Furr, Richard Snead, Marcee Sherrill, Kit Flannery, and Mike Friedman "dip" their feet in the empty Senior Fountain. The Council was composed of vice-presidents of the clubs.

"Okay, we're still $24.78 short. Who has a good idea for a fund-raising project? Doughnuts . . . a bake sale . . . a car wash . . . thanks, gang." With a doughnut sale, a bake sale, and a car wash, it was a typically busy year.

Besides providing for transportation to the annual Florida Congrès, hard-earned funds paid for a banquet at a French restaurant during the spring. Pass the butter; oops, I mean, donne-moi du buerre.

Under the direction of Mrs. Gloria Gonzalez and Mrs. Nora Barli, club members sold sno-cones and baked goods. Pepto Bismol, 10¢ extra.

Tacos—Tamales—and vino. Once again, Spanish Club climaxed the year with a fun banquet. Ole?

German Club

Beer and ale? Sure—root beer and ginger ale at the German Club's annual Oktoberfest.

Under the direction of new sponsor Mrs. Linda Byer, Die Deutsche Brunderschaft's Homecoming float and skit reflected the color and variety of German life. Thousands of tissue flowers. Chicken wire. Cardboard, string, and scissors. Glue. Ho hum. Dark circles tomorrow.

Caroling at the homes of German families (pid-pid-doddle-dap), forming a German band (tata-tata) and working at the Mardi Gras booth (thump, thump) were activities of the club.

A bus filled with kids, cookies, candy, a tuba, a saxophone, an accordion, a trumpet, a German teacher, and a bus driver. Where was it going? Girls' Sports Club

Throngs of thirsty people hanging around the gym. A gooey green bench. Bags of crushed ice. Bottles of flavored syrup. Athletic sprites wearing white masterpieces of design. Another prosperous year for Girls' Sports Club's snow cone sale.

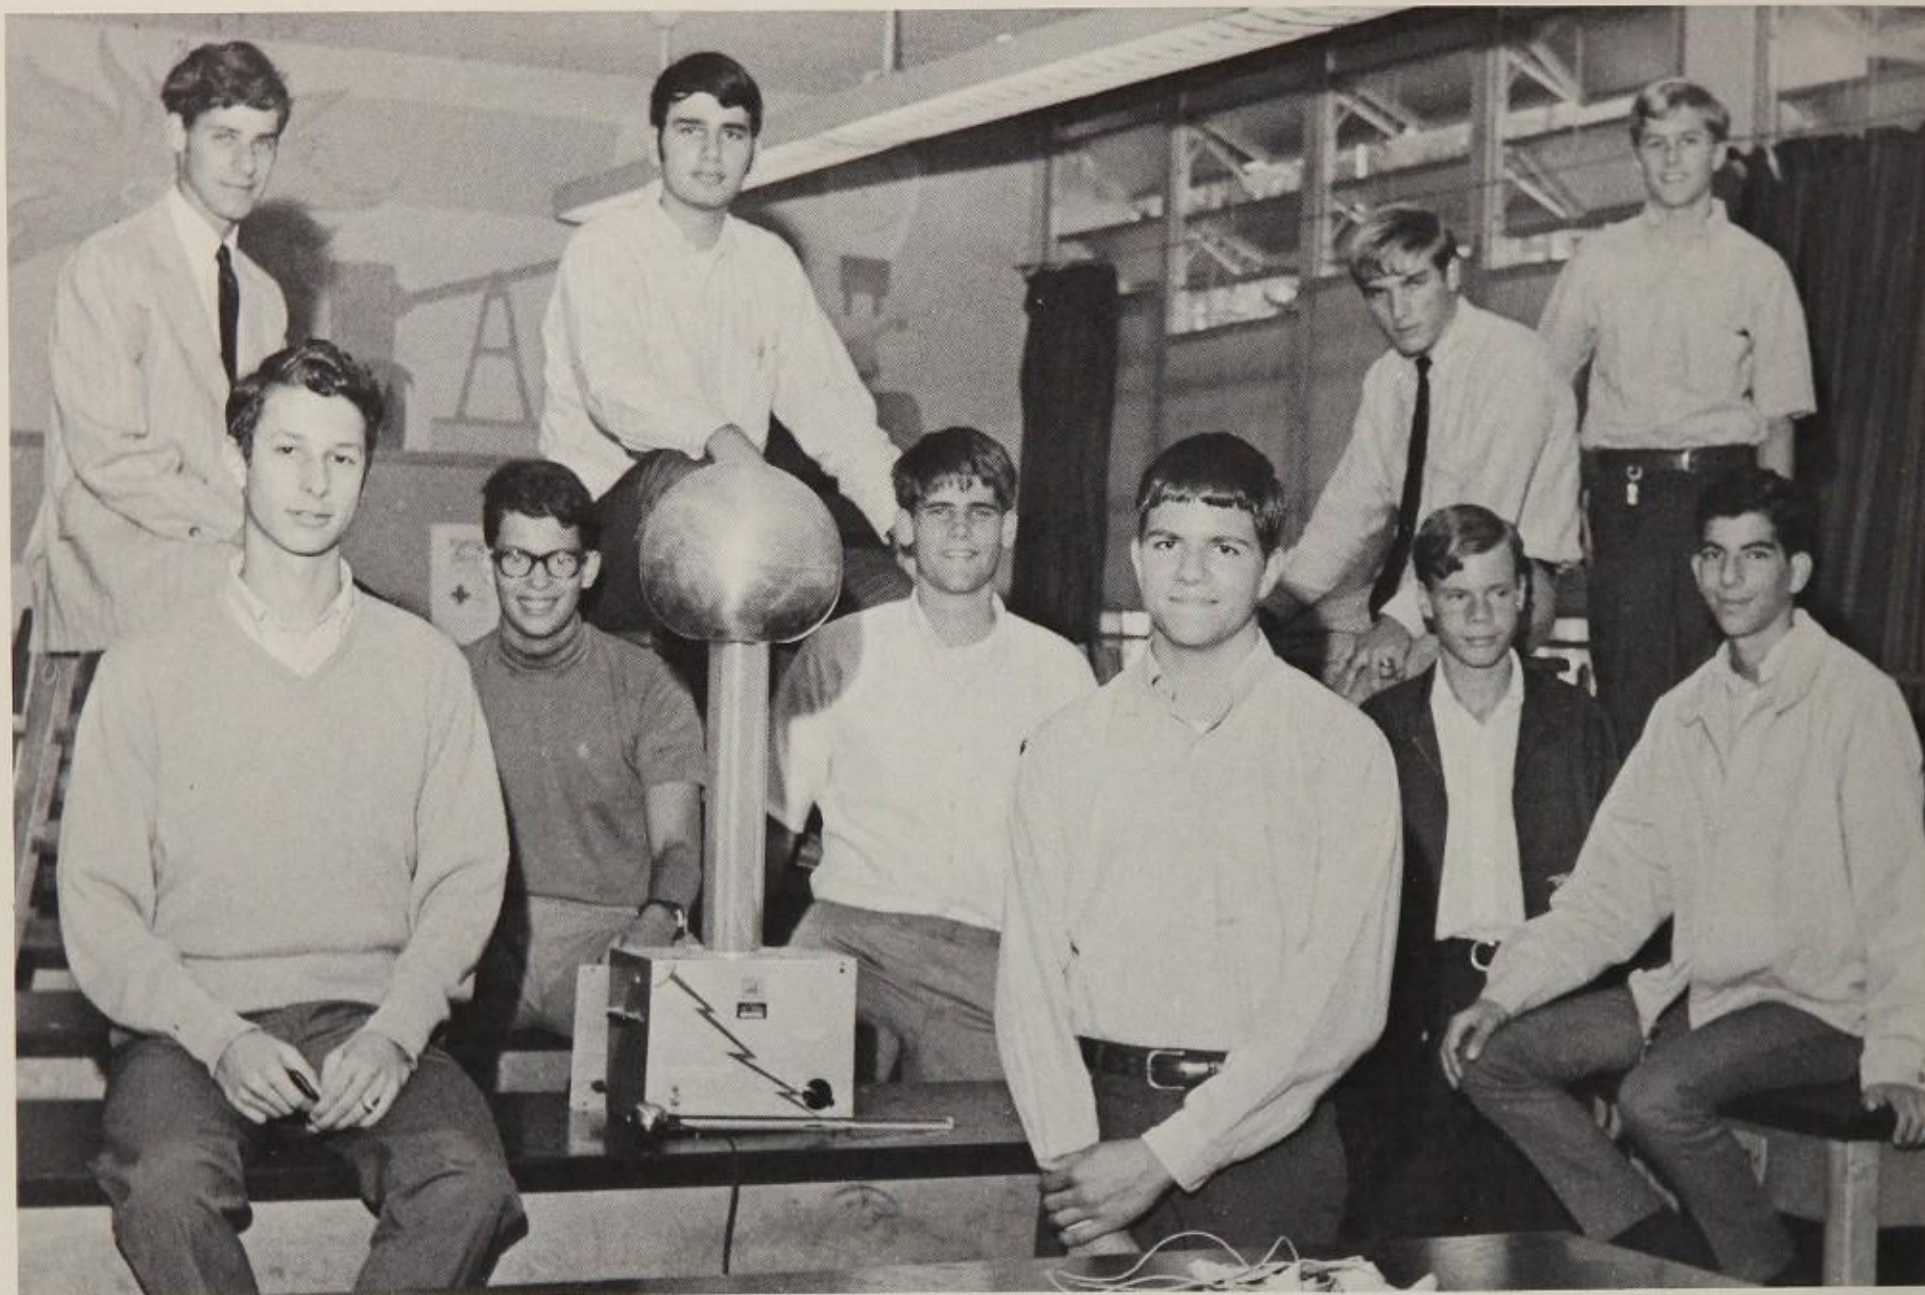

GSC's got the coach (advisor Miss Betty Wilkie), team (clap, stomp), pep (clap, stomp), steam. . . . In conjunction with PE classes, GSC sponsored soccer, volleyball, basketball, softball and tennis intramurals. The things people go through for letter sweaters.

JETS

Five, four, three, two, one . . . Blast off. Under the direction of Mrs. Priscilla Everett, the Junior Engineering Technical Society rocketed off on its third attempt at installing a sprinkler system. Hard work, lots of time (a crew clad in khakis).

A candy bar, a cup of coffee, a friendly conversation, a rush of activity . . . Combining brain work and muscle, JETS speeded up construction of a 100-cubit yacht scheduled for christening during the fall floods. (Hey, Bill, bite your tongue.)

"Someday we've got to get organized." Lab paraphernalia. Dust cloths. "I can't believe it . . . me wash that." JETS—a cauldron of energetic workers who kept busy on Saturday field trips.

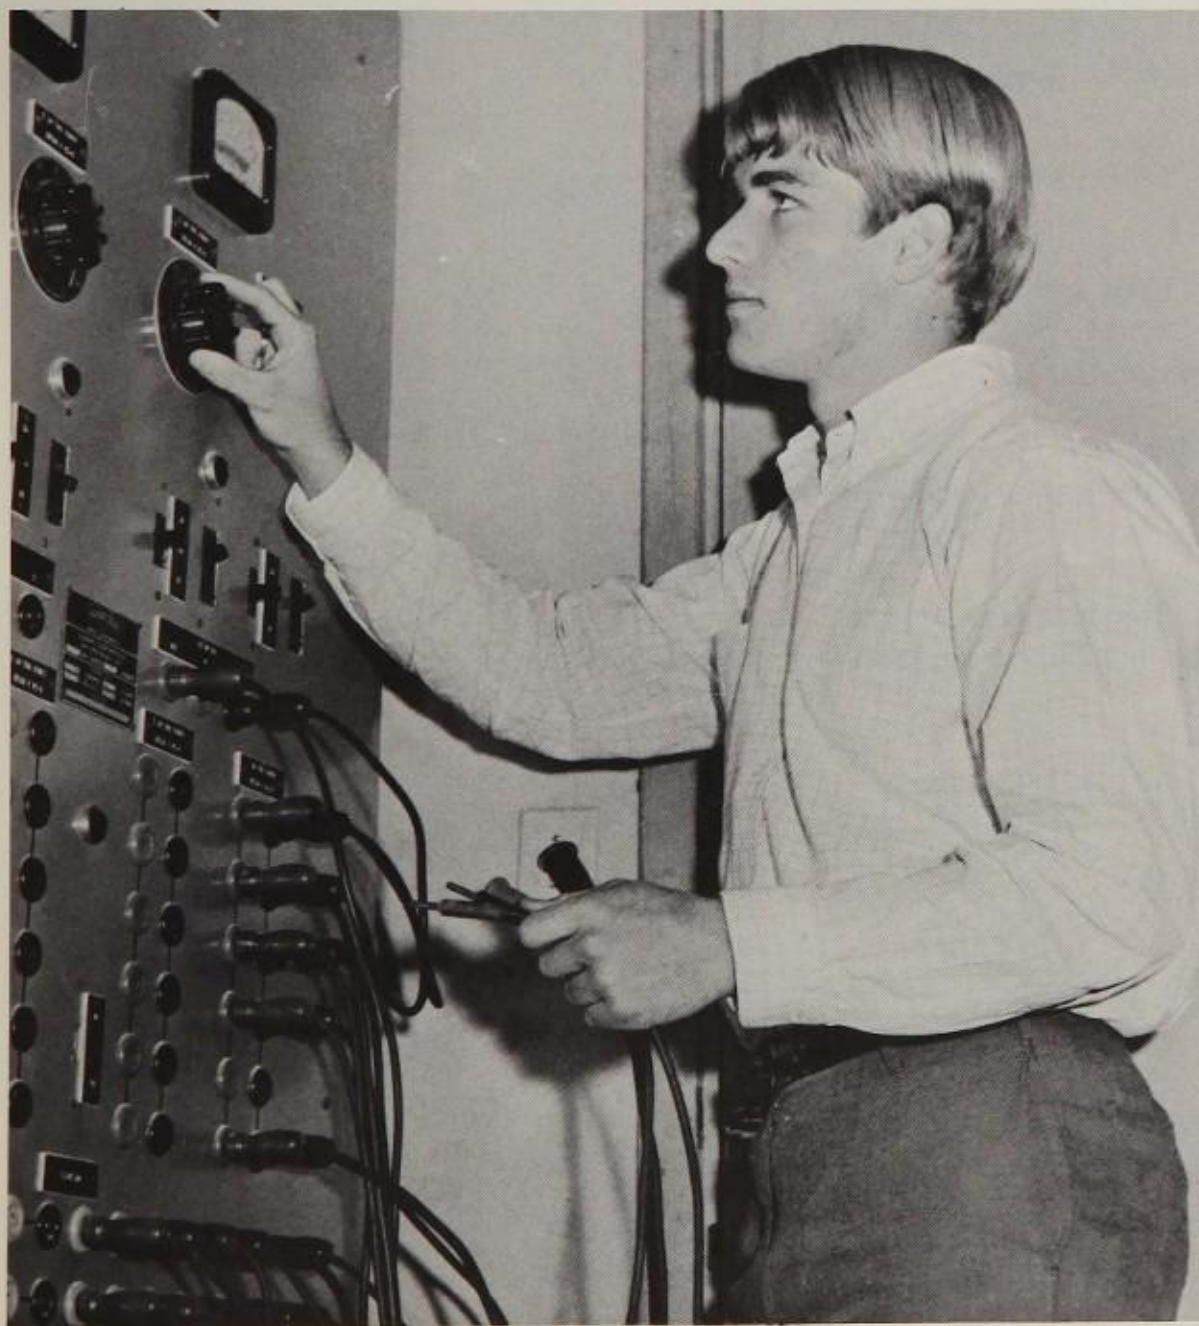

Once again JETS rounded out the year with a mass migration of harried students off on a scientific expedition to Cape Kennedy (alias The Old Increase-the-Membership Trick). But all's well that ends well.

L'Avant Garde

Will the real art clubber please stand up? Folks who fancied themselves as individuals had the time of their lives in L'Avant Garde this year.

Advisors Mrs. Norma Roitstein and Mrs. Carole Roberts urged the art group on to bigger and better ventures. "Vegetables on parade" and a Christmas card sale led the way for the club's eventful year. Field trips and bike-hikes were frequent occurrence, and rutabaga lovers of the area united for an Art Club Gorge.

Quoth leaders of the club after winning third prize in the Pantha Prowl skits: "ru' ta-ba' ga (rōō' tá bā' ga), n. [SW. dial. rotabagge.] A kind of turnip (Brassica napobrassica) commonly with a very large elongated yellow root."* Is that so?

Concert Chorus

Do re mi fa so la te . . . a little less noise in the tenor section, please.

Under the direction of Mr. Richard Bullman, the ninety-one Concert Chorus members became the first choral group ever to attend Washington, D.C.'s Cherry Blossom Festival. (Was that anything like Miami's Pop Festival?) Tsk-tsk.

From Handel to Lerner & Loewe, the Concert Chorus group sang its way thru the year. South Miami Methodist Church once again was the scene of the annual presentation of "The Messiah." Proceeds from "Brigadoon" helped to pay traveling expenses.

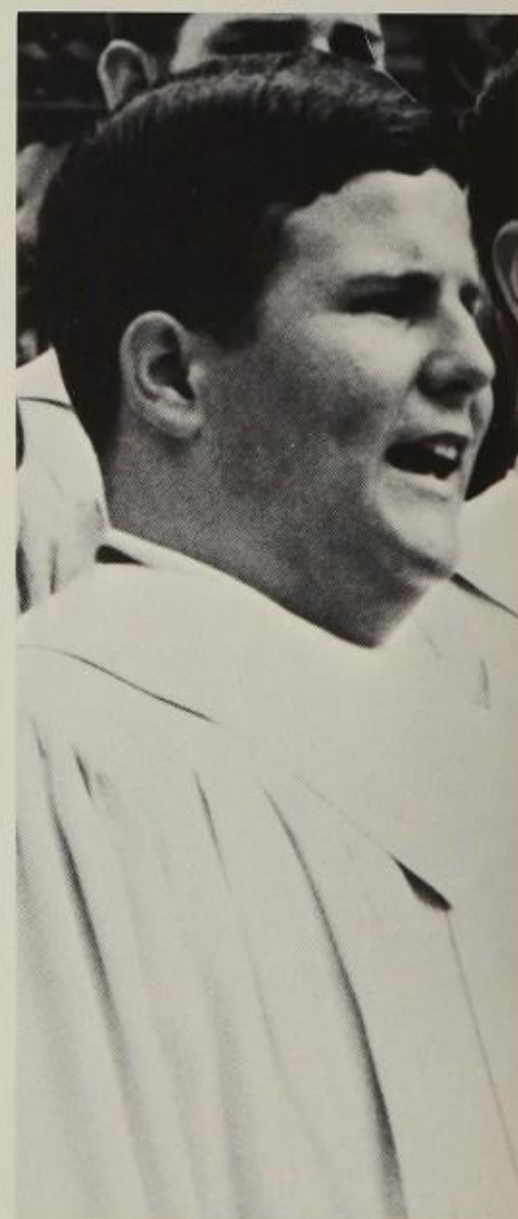

Do te la so fa mi re . . .

Forget something? Sing out with gusto, anyway. Gary Chanley and Concert Chorus members joined in the singing of Handel's Messiah.

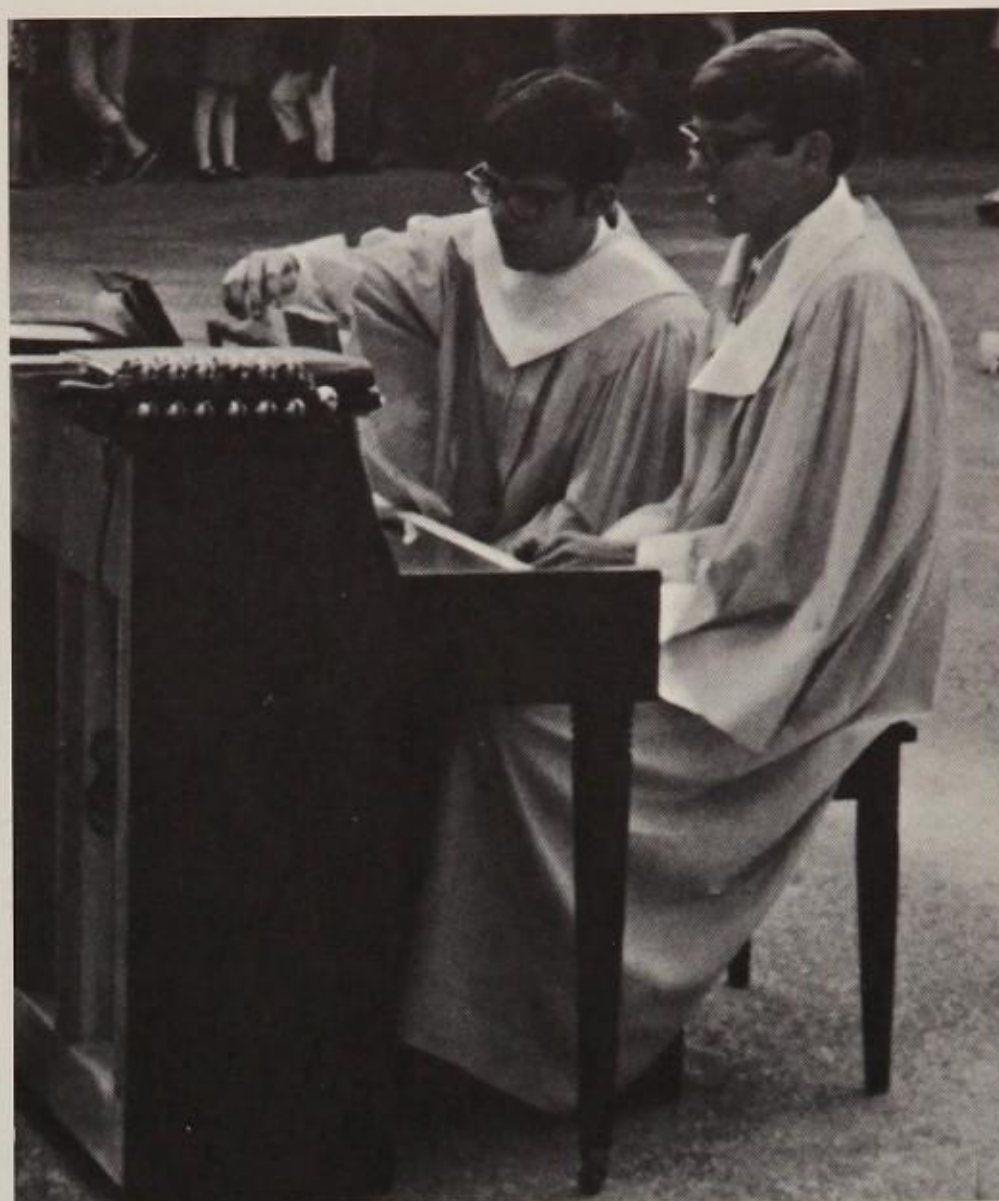

Feel like an angel? Nancy Shoar and Peggy Moore are goodwill ambassadors at contest.

Mixed Chorus

Confucius say: A journey of a thousand miles must begin with a single step. Members of Mixed Chorus took the proverbial step toward more advanced choral groups. (A thousand miles to Concert Chorus?)

As beginners, students of Mixed Chorus concentrated on learning the basics. "Yes, indeed, you sing through your mouth." Their agenda included performances at numerous (at least three) concerts, under the direction of Guess Who. (For the answer see pages 157, 158, 159.)

Mixed chorus once again sings their old time favorite "Ding-dong! Merrily." They sang at the Christmas Choral Fantasia in December.

Mixed Chorus members: Front row: M. Sena, T. Lampkin, D. Mathews, R. Feinstein, P. Osteen, D. Tompkins, M. Holms, G. Flowers, M. McMullen, D. Sturrip, G. LeBrun, S. Jones, M. "Stop fidgeting or else we'll never have you ready in time for Brigadoon!" exclaims Dale Cashion and Peggy Zeeman. Both performed in the March musical.

Girls' Chorus

Girls' Chorus 'tis of thee,
Fraternity, equality, and liberty.
Of thee we sing.
School where our sisters cried,
School where our spirit tried.
Their talent was not denied,
And so we sighed.

Girls' Chorus 'tis of thee,
Ballet by Avery—
Nutcracker Suite.
Their concerts, filled with song,
All fifty voices strong.
Their music yet goes on and on
And on and on.*

Look. Look.
See the apple.
The apple is red.

Where did teacher get the apple? From the apple tree? No, from an FTA member on Valentine's Day.

Primarily a girls' club, FTA was sponsored by Mr. William Boddington and Mrs. Caroline Alley.

Remember those extra-special announcements during American Education Week? Courtesy of FTA. And what about the faculty tea held in November? Yum. Yum.

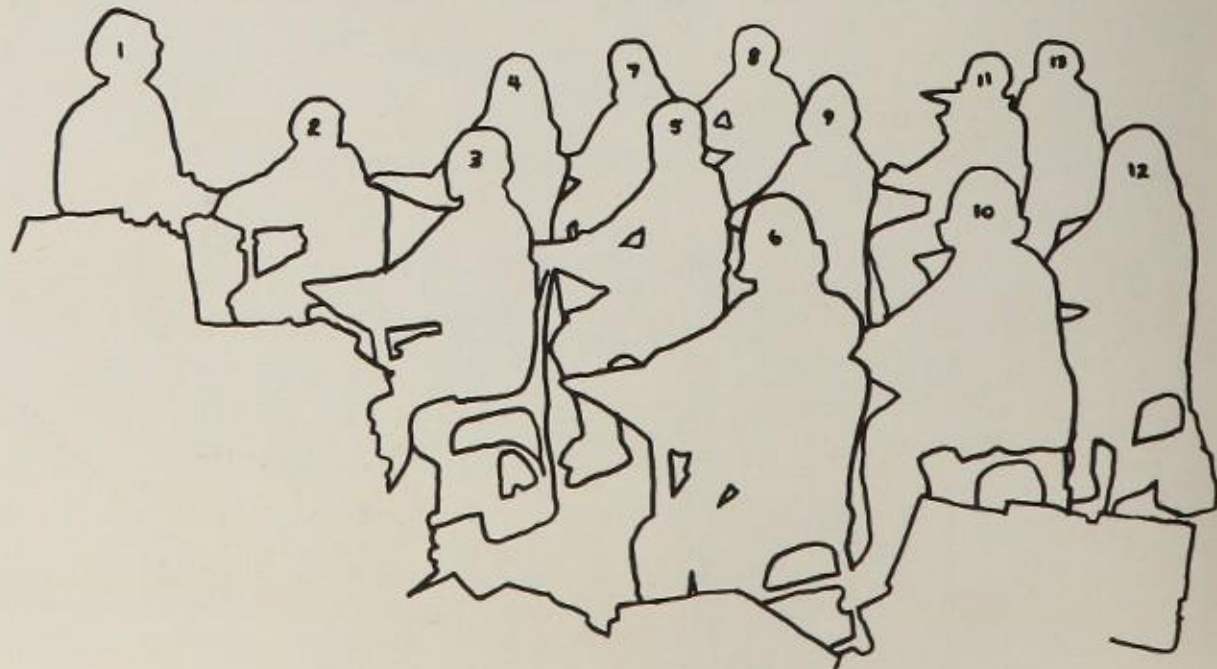

If grading papers, (occasionally) teaching class, compiling honor rolls, and tutoring underprivileged children didn't discourage them—the members of FTA club will be the future teachers of America.

"Psst . . . I'll give you a doughnut if you vote for Humphrey." Election day in November—long lines, sore feet, and refreshments, courtesy of CECF girls.

Corporation Education pupils left school at 12:30 for on-the-job training with dictaphones, electric typewriters, adding machines, and computers. Boing-click, clack—whoops. Oh, well, getting to leave early was worth it, right?

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Katherine George, CECF students participated in fund-raising projects (other than jobs—ho ho). Money went for a foster child, a spring beach party (whoop-dee-dee) and a breakfast. Six-thirty: you've got to be kidding.

Objective: to become wise in the ways of the business world. Smile. Shake hands. Be polite. (Now what was his name?)

Distributive Education Club of America (wow—impressive, impressive). Students came to school on the early shift (yawn) and left for their jobs at lunchtime. Members labored in advertising, merchandising, shipping, and receiving. A fantastic opportunity for invaluable skill, experience, and money.

"Please, please, only fifty cents. Of course they're real chocolate. Okay, so split the cost with a friend. Plee-ee-ze . . ."

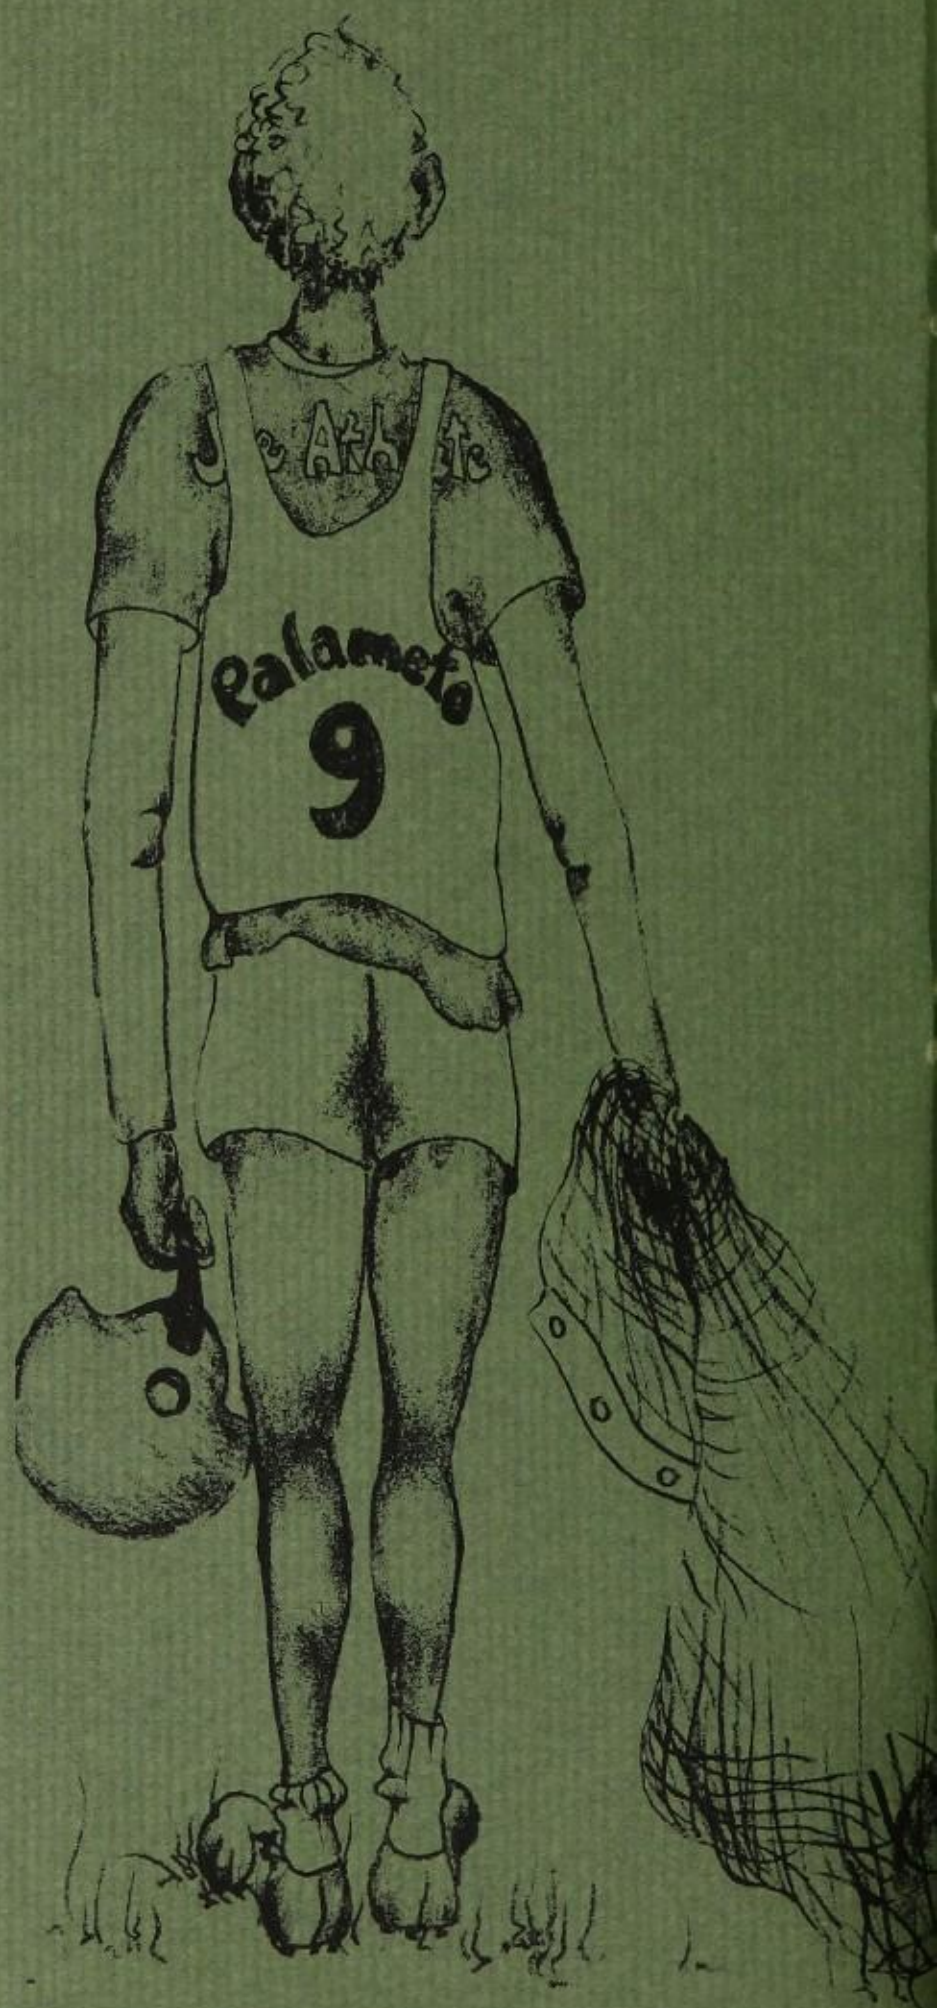

Practicing all the persuasion of budding salesmen, members peddled their wares through the halls. (So that's what a "DECA Bar" is.) What will it be today—carrots and a Sloppy Joe or a candy bar?

Hard Practice Reaps Few Rewards as Team Has Disappointing Year

Tim Pluto, on the ground, and Bob Pace combine to stop a Columbus Explorer trying to turn corner to run.

Led by John Tucker, Jon Gleman, Gregory Beenken and assisted by Jim Martin, Palmetto's defensive line stops a Miami High School ball carrier for a negligible gain.

Tom Waldeck pushes through Miami Springs' defense with help of Ron Sanders' double block and Bob Malagon's block to try to break thru Springs' weakening line.

Robert Malagon races around right end for substantial gain enroute to 6-0 victory over the strong Miami High Stingarees.

Blasting through Miami High's defensive line, Tom Waldeck moves for yardage. Perfect blocking opens hole enabling Tom momentarily to break into the clear.

Defensive tackles swarm over Columbus runner as he tries for a first down. Gang tackling, demonstrated above, was used effectively to stop opponents.

Varsity Football

This sixty eight varsity football season for the Palmetto Panthers was one of many disappointments. Hard work and long practices after school did not produce a winning season as the team won 3, lost 7. Victories included decisive wins over Miami High, Mays, and Columbus.

To beat Miami High 6-0, senior quarterback Randy Adair connected with Mark Ghezzi, who was in the end zone. The score came late in the second quarter after neither team could muster a profitable drive.

Southwest squeezed by the Panthers by one point, but the next week the team registered its second win of the season by beating Columbus 31-6. During the game, all five touchdowns were scored by Randy Adair. For this outstanding performance, he received the Miami Herald's Player of the Week award. Getting another award was offensive guard John Tucker, who was placed on the All-County First Team. Mays High this year was admitted to Class Double A. Palmetto defeated Mays 28-14 to compile the team's third win and the last victory of the school year.

Senior halfback Ken Adams, after receiving a handoff, streaks down the sidelines for a possible long gainer.

Pulling from his offensive guard position, John Tucker opens up a hole in the Mays game. At one point during the season, he was named Defensive Player of the Week.

With thirty seconds left in the first half, Palmetto's bruising defense caps a goal. Gridder teammates stop South Dade's All-City fullback on Palmetto's two-yard line.

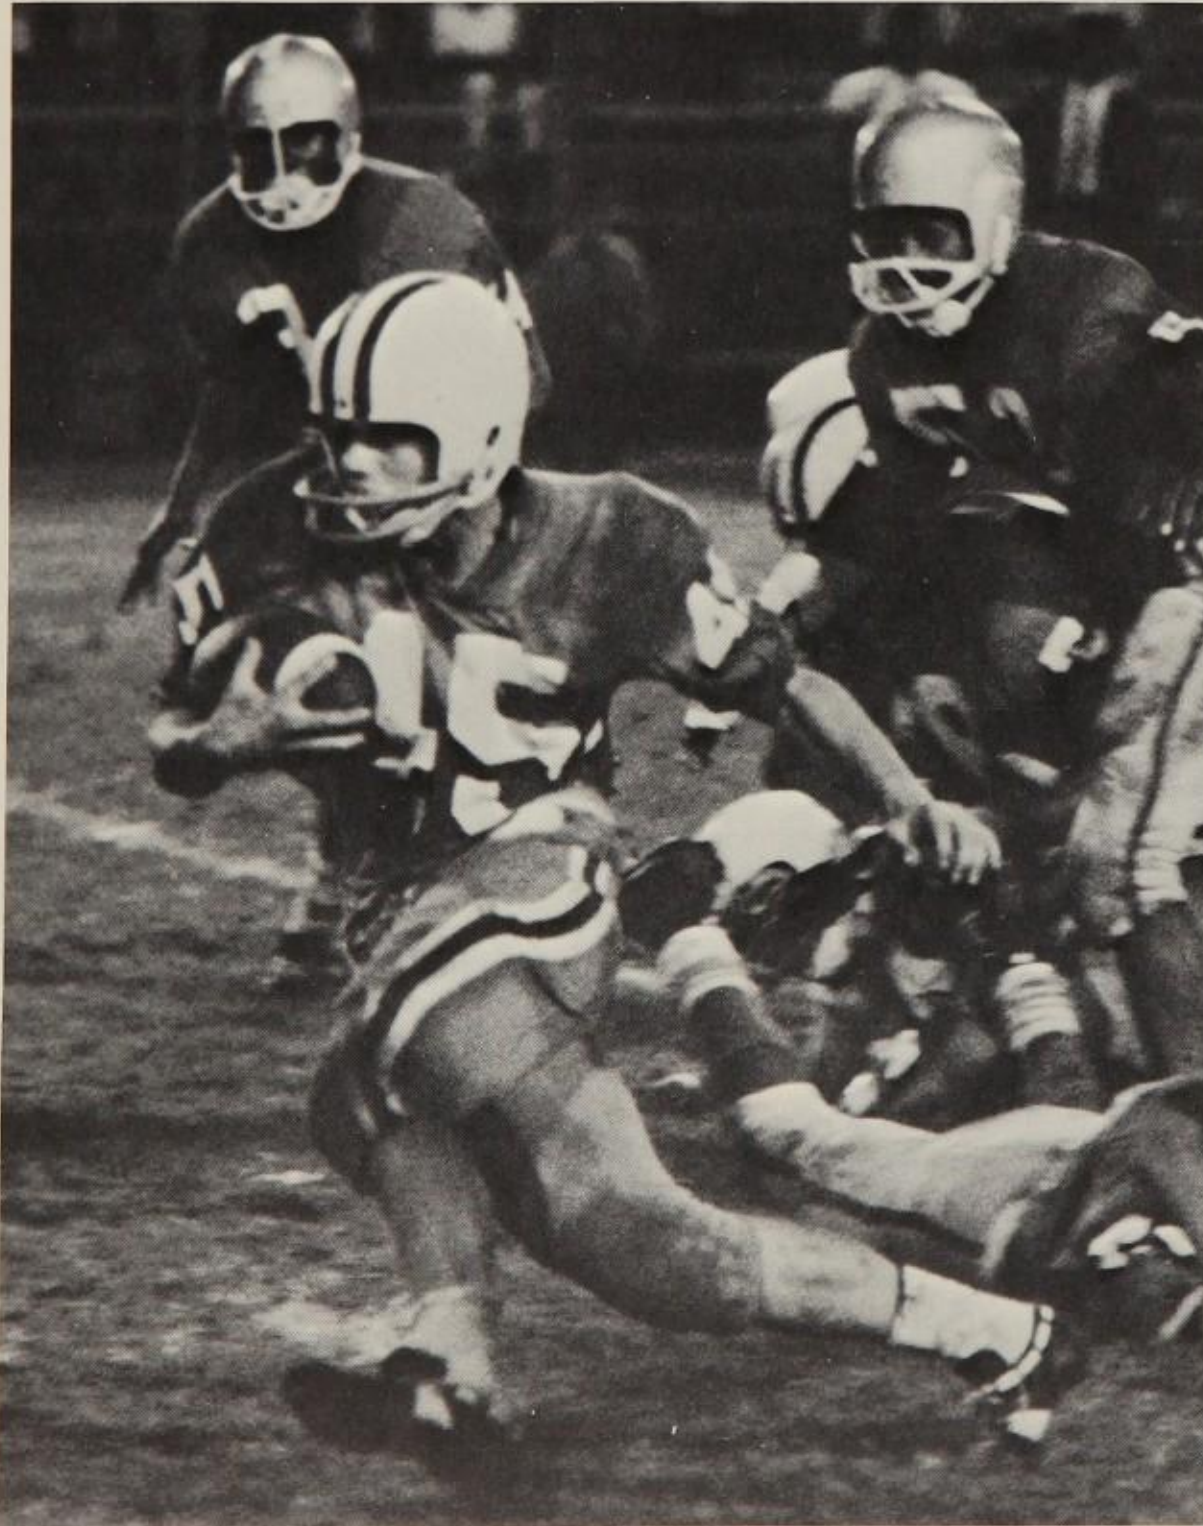

Bursting through the opposite side of the offensive line, defensive end Frank Brice hauls down Coral Park runner from behind.

Mark Ghezzi breaks a tackle and charges for a substantial gain in game against Mays High. Ghezzi played a key role in Palmetto's win over Mays as the Panthers clawed Rams 28-14.

In the battle against Mays, player Randy Adair captures Miami Herald Player of Week Award.

Combining team effort, agility, and persistence, Calvin Cannon and George Hester drag Gables' quarterback down. The Cavaliers go on to win 14-0 at Suniland Park.

JV Football

Yes, felines can be vicious even when young.

Mr. Dale Collins, coach of the "Baby Panthers," engineered two shutouts against four losses. First victory came when the team blanked Mays High 25-0. Second victory was against long-time rival South Dade, ending the successful season by skunking the Rebels with a score of 39-0.

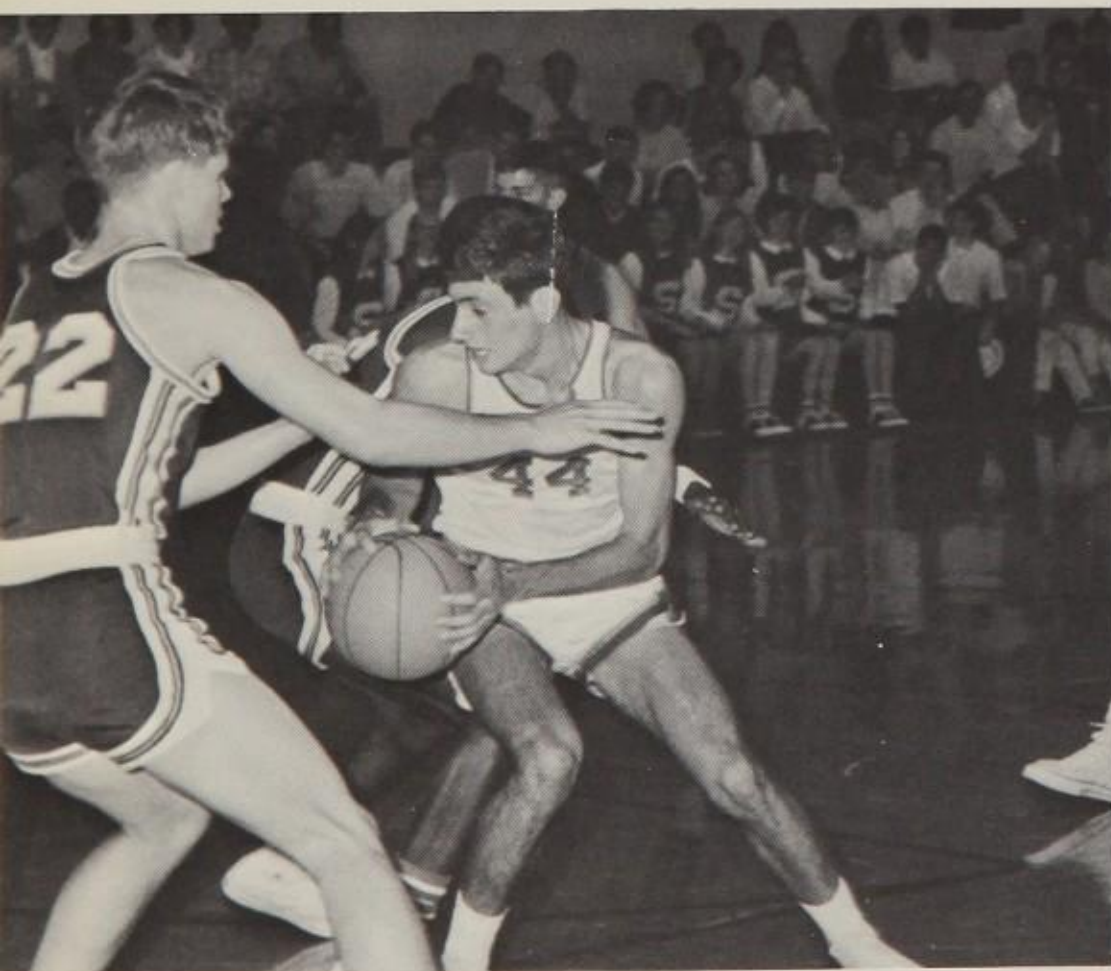

Varsity of the future? Don't we hope. Outstanding players for the JV team were: John Cooper, Dan Collins, Art Tomperlin, Jeff Meyers, Vic Marlar, Pat Deegan, and Jeff Hamilton.

JV football team includes (bottom) Coach Collins, Coach Wells, B. Gerlaugh, T. Brown, M. Taylor, J. Wolfstead, D. Guitar, B. Staton, J. Solomon, T. Watson, P. Deegan, B. Brewer, J. Outstanding JV players are: John Cooper, Dan Collins, Art Tomperlin, Jeff Myers, Pat Deegan, and Jeff Hamilton.

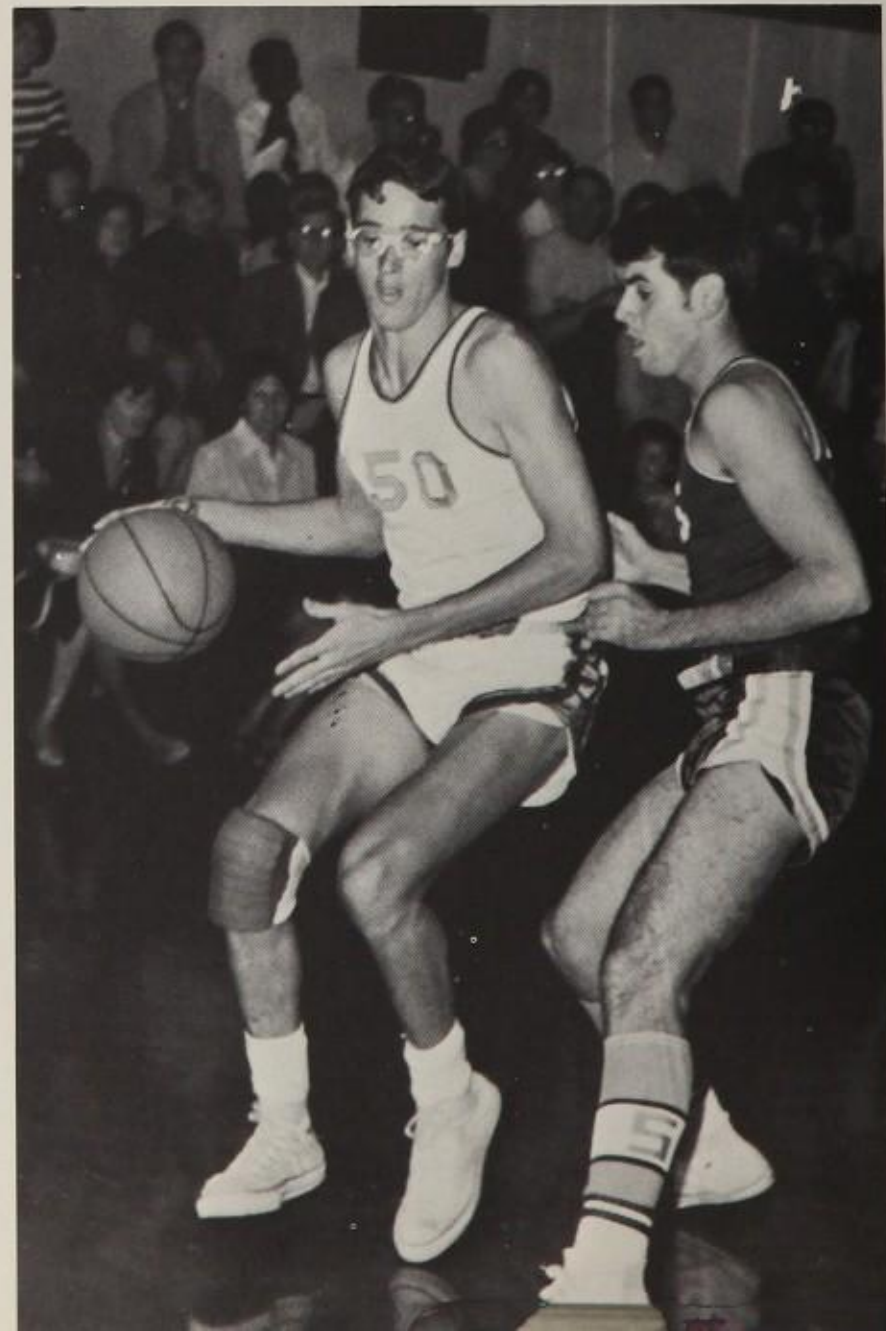

The varsity basketball team includes: F. Briggs, R. Gilmore, M. Kelly, C. Ball, J. Giaritelli, J. Evans, S. Ahern, R. Adair, E. Ferguson, M. Simpson, T. Lopez, D. McElmoyle, L. Bruton, B. Courtright. Cagers participate in countywide tournaments.

Junior Joe Geritelli exhibits excellent basketball skills in a varsity game as he swings to his right to avoid charging into one of his opponents.

"If I make a fast left, then a quick right, spin on my left foot, I might be able to fake him out," says Dave Conn as he attempts a basket.

Senior Fred Briggs drives the ball down court. The Panthers went on to beat the Southwest Eagles.

"Hey, man, there's a roach up there on the basket rim and I'm not about to go any further than I have to," says varsity basketball player Randy Adair.

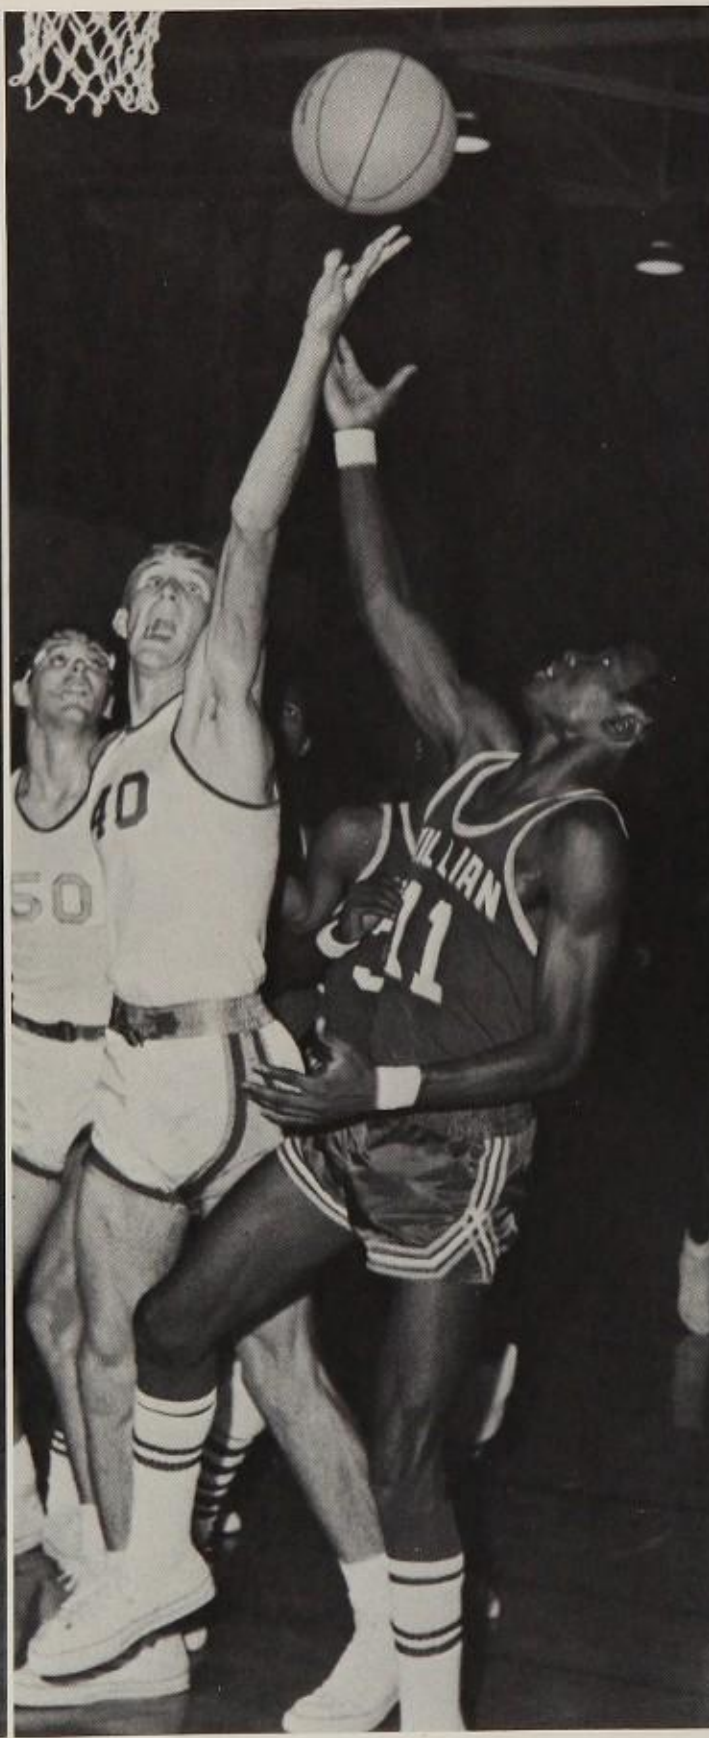

Varsity Basketball

The Panther basketball team had a disappointing season. Victories included wins over such Dade schools as Miami Springs, Coral Park, Southwest, and South Dade. Losses were to highly rated teams as: Coral Gables, Key West, Jackson, and Killian.

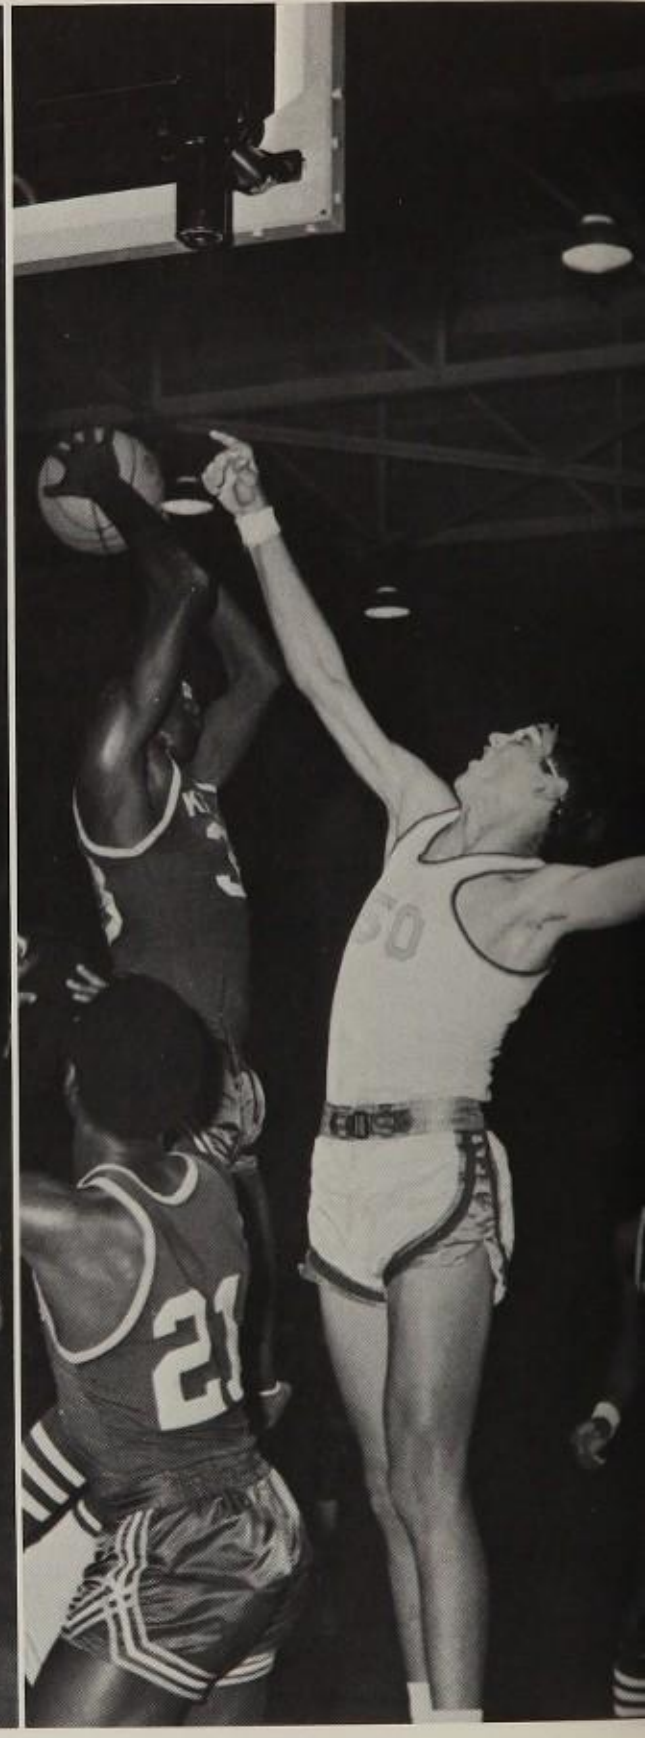

Outstanding players included: Seniors Fred Briggs and Steve Ahern and senior guards Randy Adair and Edward Ferguson. Joe Geritelli was an outstanding junior on the varsity squad and will bring back valuable experience to next year's team. Playing Columbus and Jackson for their last two games, the roundballers ended the season by winning 7 and losing 15.

"But I called first dibs." Larry Bruton tries to recover loose ball from Killian.

Aaughh! Fred Briggs screams in agony as a Cougar opponent stomps a sore toe during rebound.

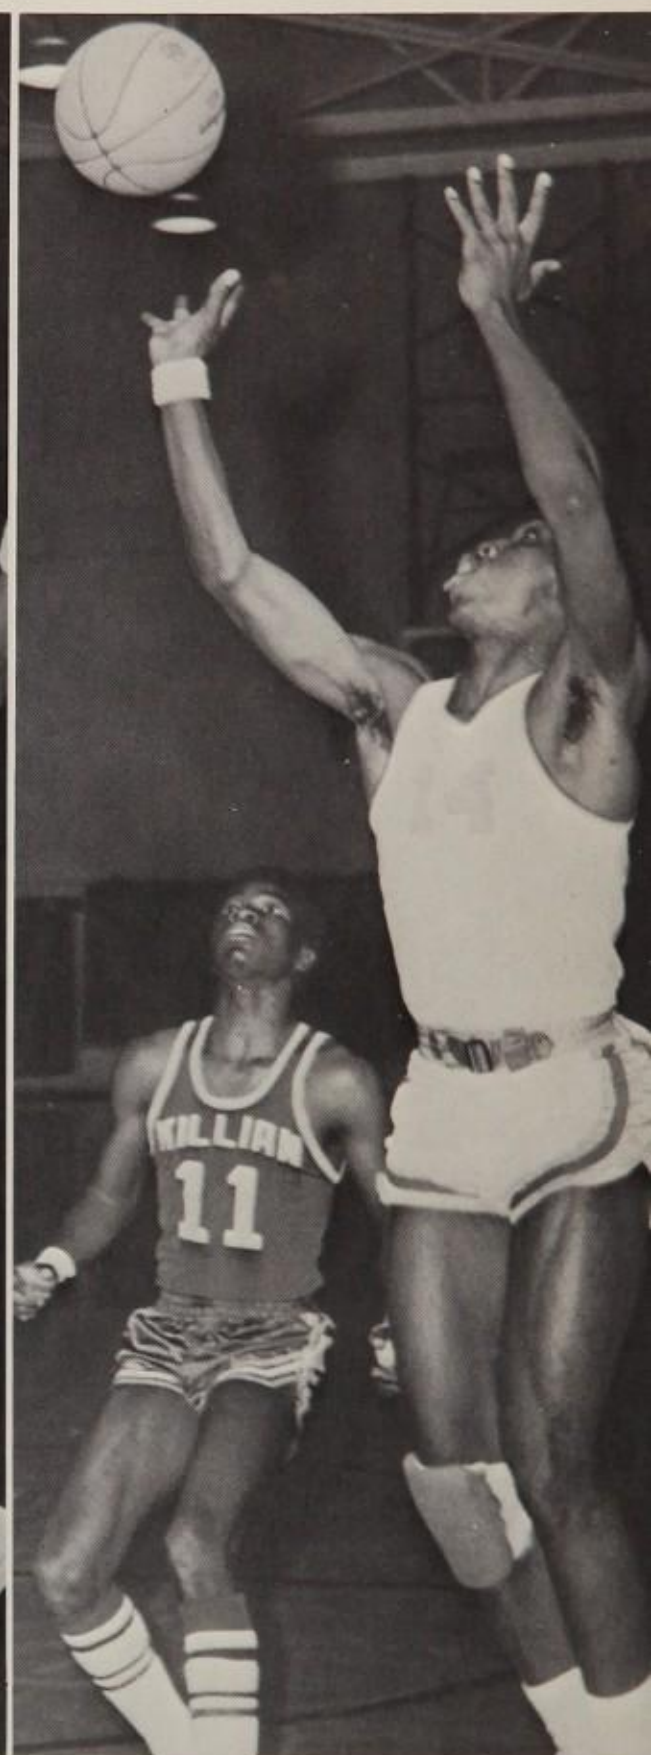

Doubled teamed under basket, David raises his arms in an attempt to block Killian.

Attempting to make field goal, Joe Giratelli shoots ball as Bob Gilmore waits for tap-in.

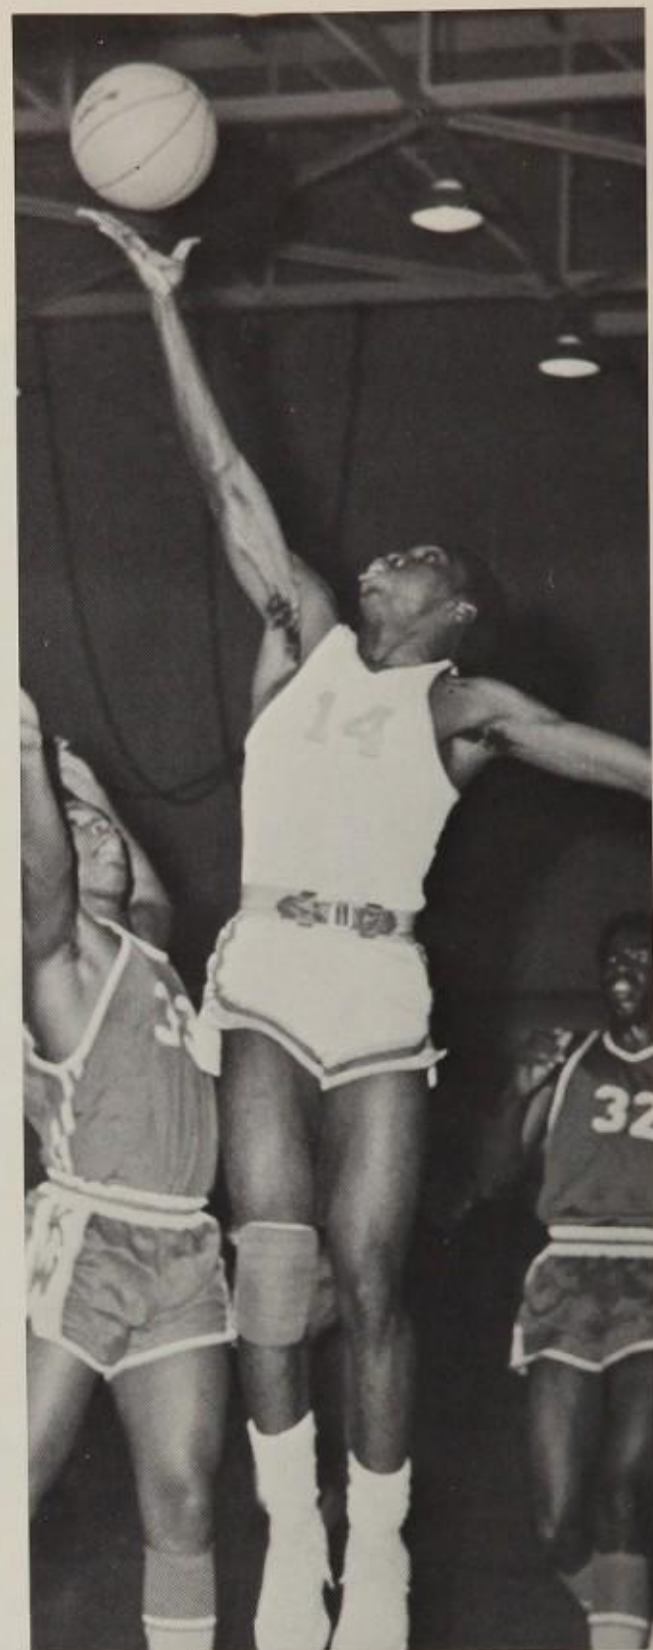

"This is suppose to be basketball not wrestling." Fred Briggs struggles to retain Killian rebound.

Ed Ferguson attempts a jump shot from 8-feet out, amazing a Killian defender.

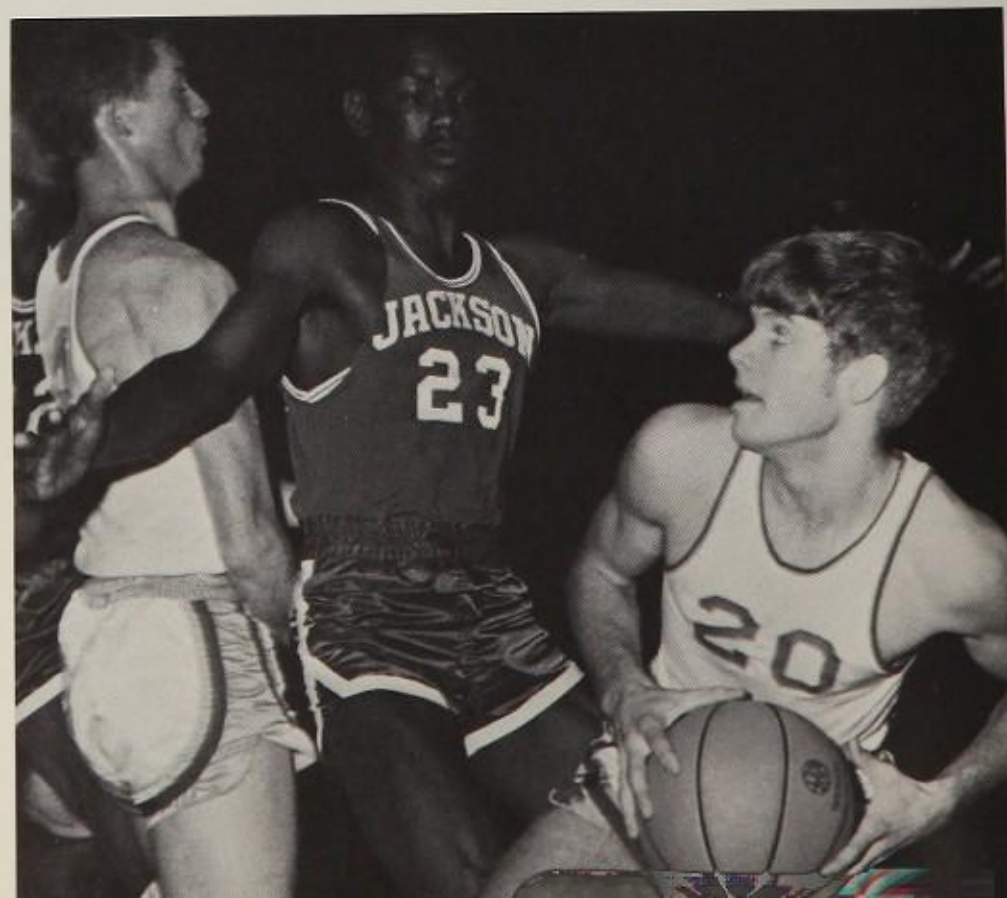

Senior Ed Ferguson uses his height as an advantage over Key West as he leaps into the air for a rebound.

"London Bridge's falling down . . ." Joe Giantelli waits for an opening to get a clear shot.

Junior Steve Ahern tries hard to make a score. Palmetto lost by nine points.

J. V. Basketball

Desire, hustle, and determination best described the junior varsity basketball team as they had a successful season by winning 13 and Losing 7. Led by Coach Jack Wells, they defeated such opponents as Miami Killian (56-49), Miami Beach twice (56-53 & 65-53), Miami Jackson (62-61), Miami Central (90-48), and Coral Park (59-27).

Outstanding players that show promise for next year's varsity squad are: Lewis Brown, Leroy Mullens, Peter Echhoff, John Lingren, and Howard Murray.

Swimming

Consisting of members of the All-American team, the Palmetto swim team had a successful year. The Panthers attended the Woodson Invitational in Ft. Lauderdale and the South Eastern Regional in Atlanta, Georgia, besides competing in local meets. They swam against Miami Springs High School for the dual championship. The Girls' Water Polo Team took third place in the nation and the boys' team took first place in the state.

Candy Calendar, Dale Atkinson, and Marcia Pope were All Americans and Robert Buck broke the school record in both the 200 yard Free Style and 200 yard Butterfly. Outstanding polo players were Robin Maltby and Marcia Pope. Coach Seegers in his 5th year in coaching the swim team added an additional coach, Tom Wheeler, who held the national record in the Butterfly.

Diane Irwin and Robin Maltby prepare to board the Atlanta plane for national water polo competition.

J V Wrestling

Under the direction of Coach Dennis Bennet, the newly formed junior varsity wrestlers (consisting of sophomores and juniors) had a successful season, winning seven and losing three.

Some outstanding grapplers that will aid the varsity squad next year include: Ron Gunby (95 lb.) and Charles Brookfield in the Heavyweight Division. Stuart Harris (138 lb.) had a record of five wins and one loss while Mike Taylor (175 lb.) had a record of six wins and zero losses.

Wins were over such schools as Coral City (34-18), Coral Park (31-14), and Norland (35-13). To end the season, JV squad shut-out Edison 34 to 0.

Mini-wrestler Doug Bull and maxi-wrestler Charlie Brookfield show off muscles as well as might for the wrestling team.

Junior Andy Burge grabs hold of Coral Park defender to try to turn him over. Palmetto won 21-15.

Varsity Wrestling

Defeating Miami Edison by the score of 37 to 10, the Palmetto Grapplers ended their most successful season with 14 wins against one loss. Their only loss was to the defending state champs Norland High.

During the Greater Miami Athletic Conference, the undefeated Andy Burge finished first in the 115 pound division. Bobby Roberts (95 lb.) and Mike Anderson (154 lb.) finished third in the same conference. Other outstanding wrestlers included: Eddie Becker (103 lb.), Steve Ellis (149 lb.), Jack Harbaugh (168 lb.), and Frank Crawford (178 lb.).

Coach Barry Zimbler and team captain, Frank Crawford, entered the team in the Greater Miami Athletic Conference and placed fourth. They also attended the Gold Coast State Meet which ended the season.

Jeff Meyer tastes a moment of victory as he pins.

"Just a little more oomph and I'll make it . . . I hope," mumbles Calvin Ballard as he does his thing as a pole vaulter.

Senior track member Tommy Andrews displays his hurdling skill in a race against Coral Gables. Tommy took first place.

Track Team Members are: first row, R. Jacobs, J. Currie, J. Howell, R. Helms, R. Giles, C. Ballard, A. Levin, K. McGirath; 2nd row, W. Banks, C. Boynton, S. Stewart, S. Hecht, J. Gill, J. The race is on—Steve Hecht and Joe Hice exhibit skill and ability in the 440 relay race.

Track

Made up mainly of underclassmen, the track team had a season of hard competition and a mediocre year in the win column. Top-notch cindermen on the team were: Tom Andrews, who ran both the high and low hurdles; Clay Boynton, pole vaulter; and Scott Stewart, who ran in the relays and running broad jump. Underclassmen who showed great promise as they gained experience include: sophomore John Hice, and juniors Steve Hecht and Donald Fife.

Besides regular dual track meets against neighboring high schools, the Panthers competed in the Miami High Relays, Ft. Lauderdale Relays, and the state meet held in northern Florida.

Baseball

Team spirit was the feature that kept the Panthers winning, and every win was a squad effort. The majority of the team were sophomores, and they added to the over-all hustle and desire of the baseball team.

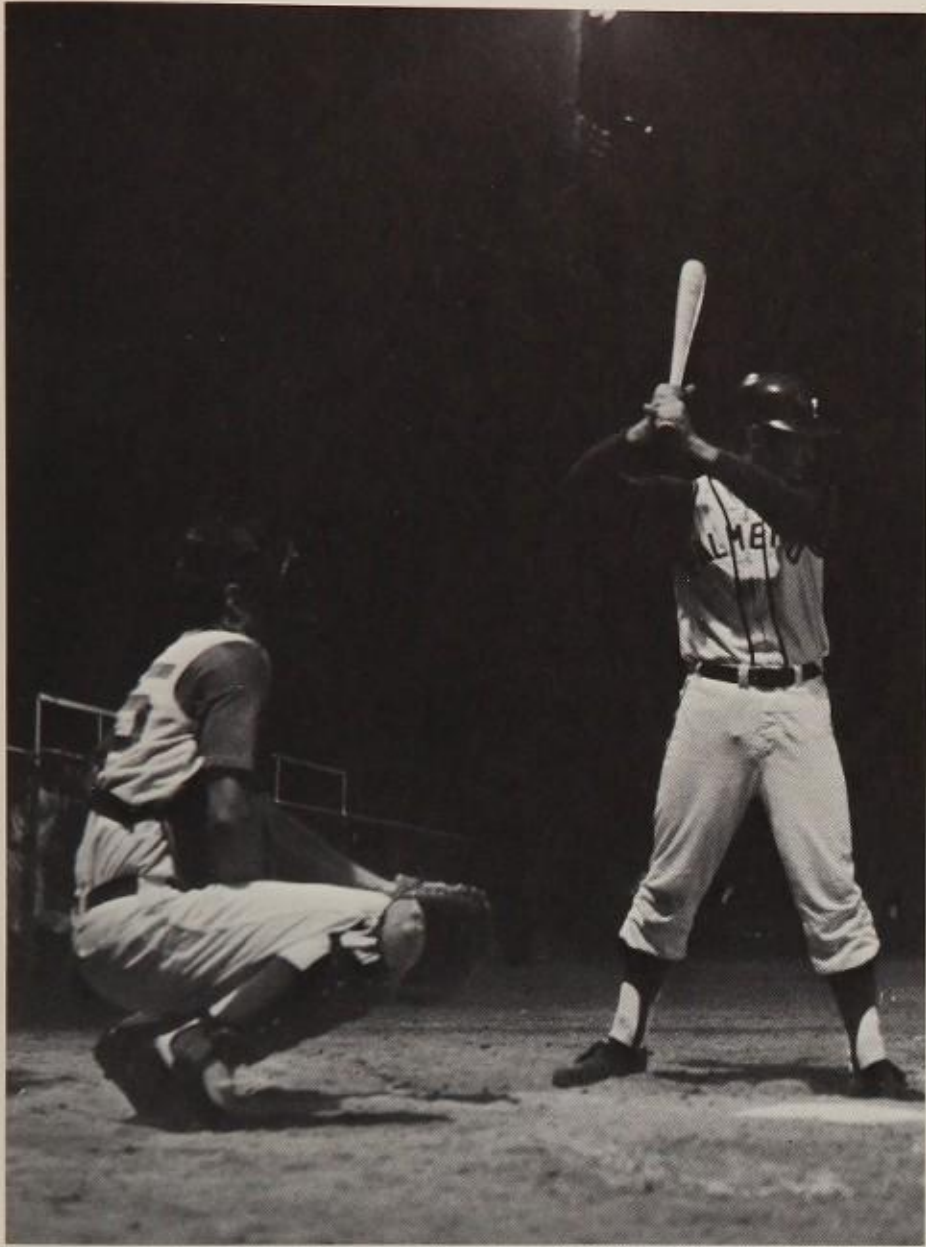

Coach Robert Lewis lost only a handful of players from last year to make the 1969 Panther baseball team rich in returning lettermen. Heading the list of returnees were the seven seniors on the team. Richard Curtis, Dan Smiley and Mark Ghezzi, outstanding outfielders, backed up basemen Scott Haskins and Larry Brutton.

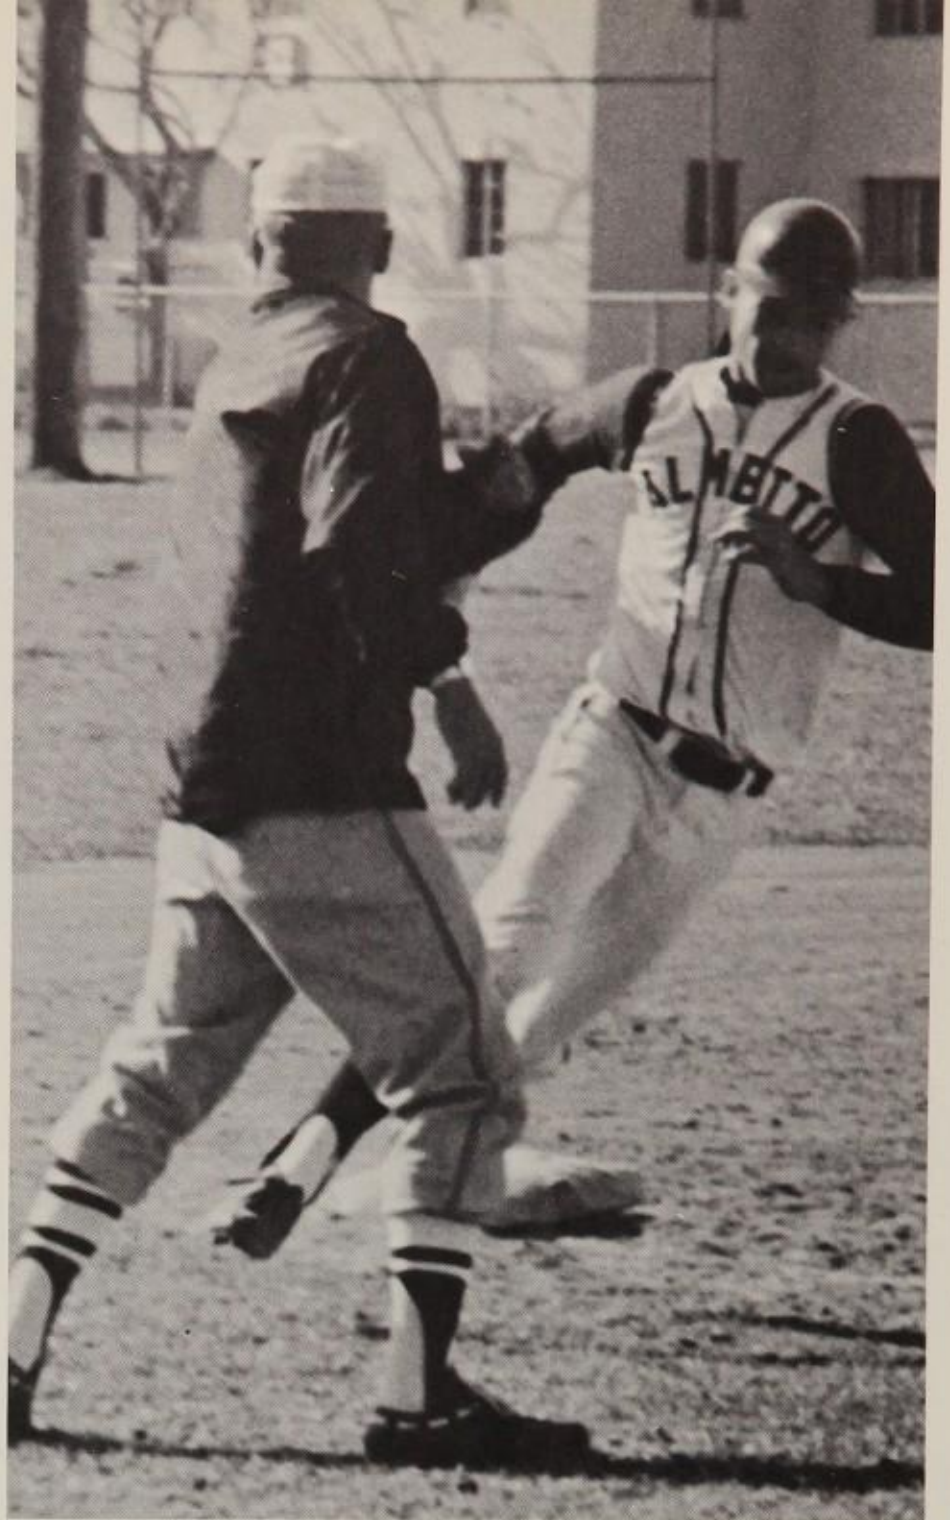

Junior Alan Polofsky pitches a fast curve ball against Coral Park, striking the batter out. This led to a 3-1 victory. This fine pitcher will be back next season.

Feet apart, head up, bat high, and for pete's sake, don't hit the catcher. . . . Harold Ruffer is up to bat against Curley and trying.

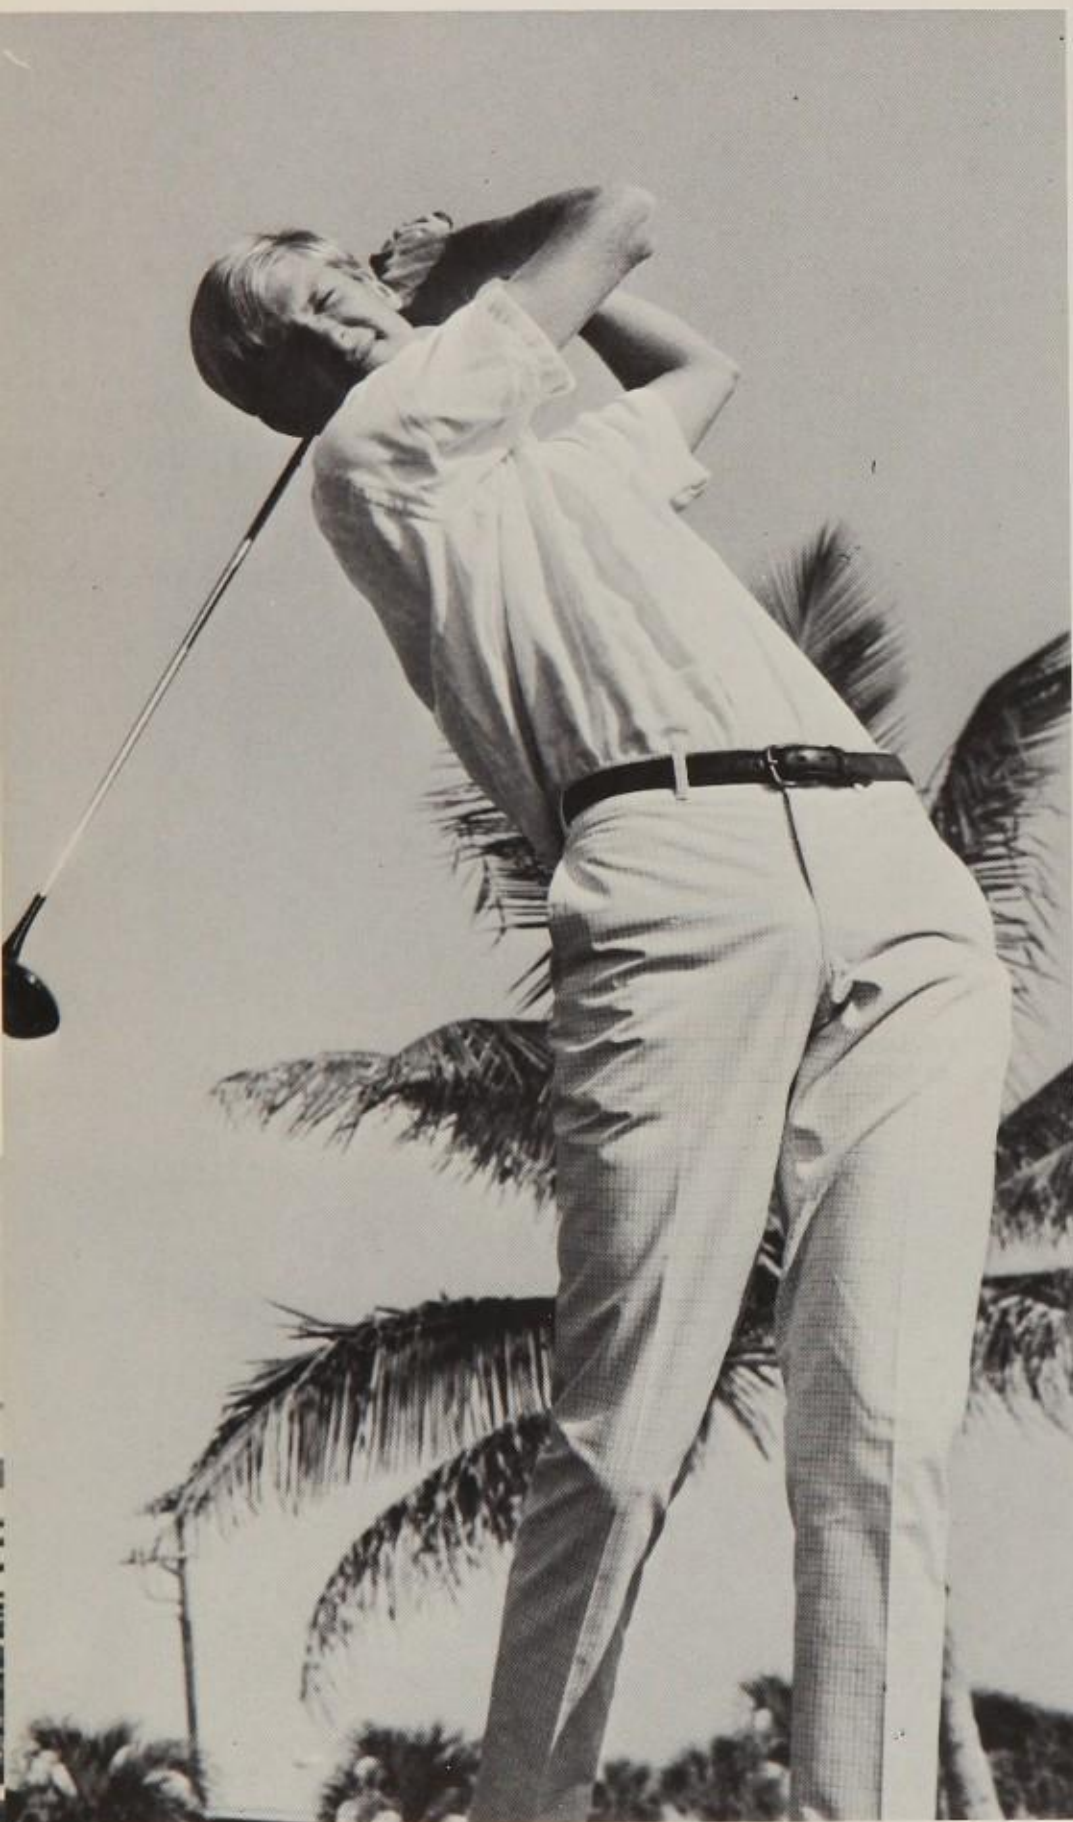

Coach Robert Lewis signals outfielder Richard Curtis not to look back. "Hurry on in to home plate." Richard's run helped defeat Curley 2-1.

"That's exceedingly hard on the old pants." Senior Scott Haskins demonstrates his athletic agility, as he quickly tags a Key West player sliding into first base. We won 4 to 3.

Golf

Lead by senior Don Dickey and junior Steve Mullins, the Panther golf team, under the direction of Coach Sam Scheltzer, defeated such opponents as Coral Gables, Norland, South Dade, and Killian to stay tops in the Southern Division.

Consistency was the greatest factor the team had in its quest for the State Title for the season of 1969. Although the number three man on the team was not a particular person, the team had enough depth to help them win continuously. Next year looks very promising as six of the top seven men on this year's team will be returning.

Regular practice sessions at Royal Palm contributed to team success. Junior letterman Mike Burnside played in singles and doubles matches.

Rick Turetsky readies his backhand to try for victory over his opponent in a match against Coral Gables High School.

Tennis

Depth, teamwork, and unity helped the tennis team finish the season successfully. Only losing to the top three state tennis teams (Coral Gables, Miami Beach and Norland), the boys won six matches by shut-outs. Girls' team won five matches, losing only to the top three state teams.

Panther netmen spent long practice hours at Royal Palm courts, under the direction of Coach John Turner.

Angela Miller and Rick Turetsky each were ranked in the state tournament as members of girls' and boys' doubles teams. Next year nine of the twelve starters will be returning lettermen.

Like the Greek god Mercury, Pat Winton shows swift-ness and skill as a member of the championship team.

Members of the boys bowling team are: Augie Mericola, Manny Laca, Craig Bennett, Jack McAfee, Carl Dorman, Dennis Orban, and at the end of line, Coach W. Clarke.

Girls bowling team: Linda Popp, Peggy Dupler, Pat Winton, Susan Borries, Carol Worrall, Jamie Walden, Linda Wellman, Sharon Pedersen.

Bowling

Sparked by team captain Jack McAfee and David Tannen, returning lettermen from last year, the Palmetto boys finished with an outstanding record by winning the Southern Division Title for the fourth consecutive year. Under the coaching of Winston Clarke, the many practices held at Bowl-O-Mat Lanes proved beneficial. Hold your applause until the end, please.

Throughout the season, the female bowlers attained perfection as they showed superior ability. Eat your hearts out, guys. Team captains Linda Popp and Peggy Dupler led the girls against such opponents as South Dade, Southwest, and Coral Gables to keep the number one ranking in their division. Now clap.

While looking at the ball, Senior Jack McAfee, captain of the boys' bowling squad, exclaims, "Son of a Gun, it rolls."

Horses, ropes and rings brought together this new edition to the Palmetto Sports teams which met on Monday night.

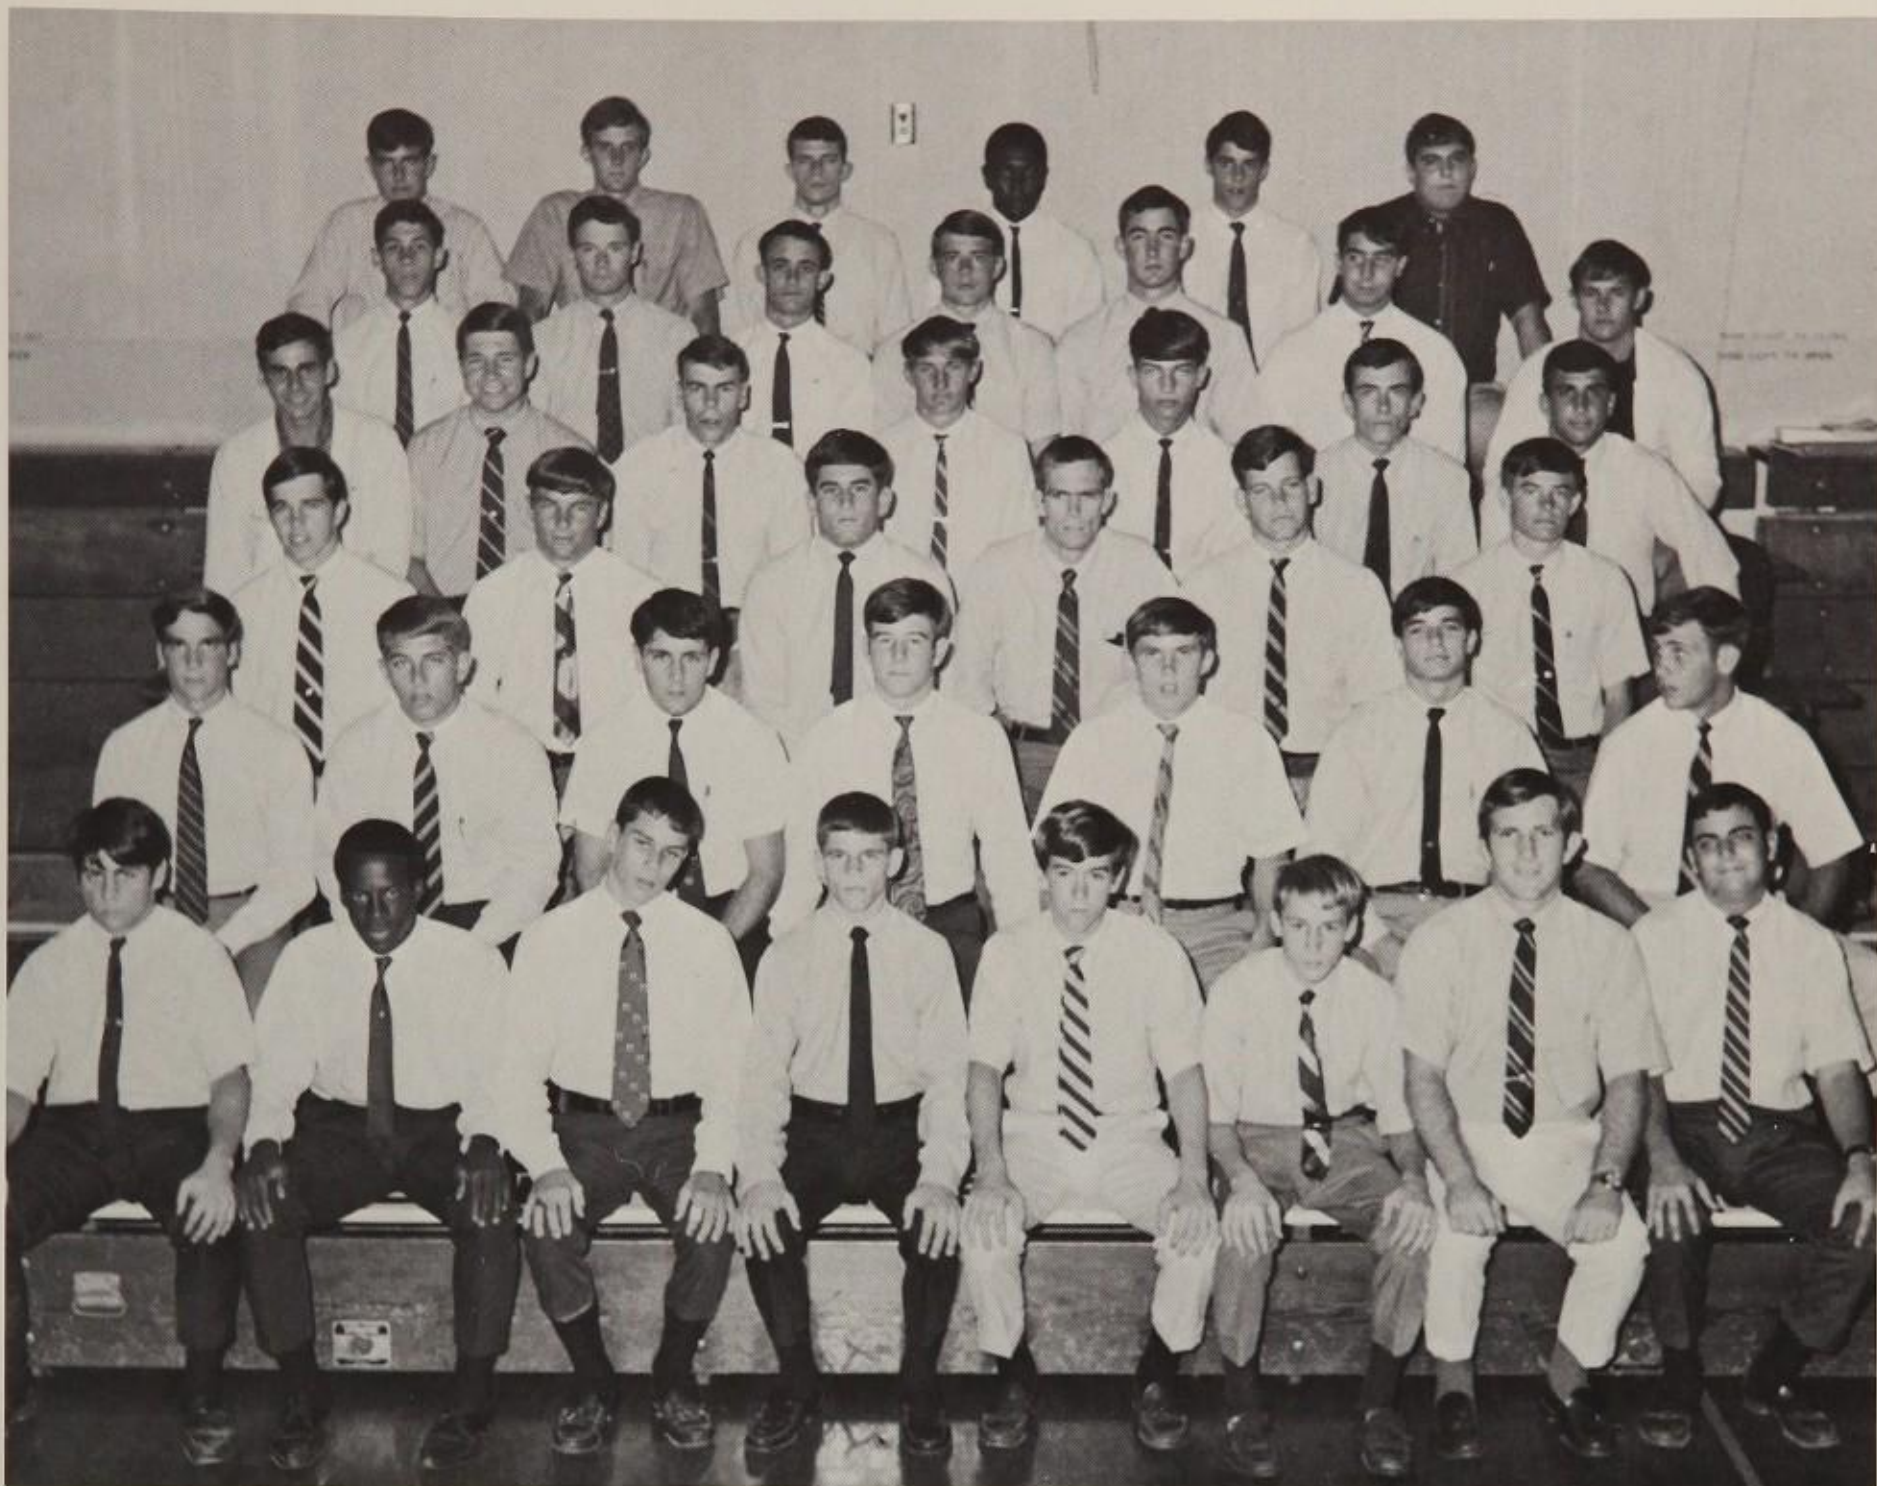

Gymnastics

Opened to any interested students, the gymnastics squad met every Monday night. Under Coach Bob Lewis and Mrs. Barbara Elias, team members learned free exercises, parallel bar routines, trampoline skills, rope exercises and ring stunts.

Mike Swain, Dan Ocatz, Charlie Wilson, and Mike and Richard Pearlson worked hard to become outstanding members of the gymnastics team. Strong effort on the part of the underclass gymnasts points to the permanent formation of a team that can compete in county meets next winter.

"He flies through the air with the greatest of ease . . ."

After four years of inactivity, the Lettermen's Club was organized to give recognition to the outstanding athletes of school. Sponsored by Coach Barry Zimble and Coach John Turner, forty boys qualified for the club (obtaining a letter in any sport was the only qualification). Besides giving service to the school, the club sponsored a basketball game. With proceeds from the game, the lettermen donated the money they raised to Variety Children's Hospital.

Officers of the club were: President Dan Wright, Vice-President Richard Pearlson, Treasurer Randy Adair, Secretary Fred Briggs, and Sergeant-at-Arms Tim Murray.

Hall of Fame

(Drum roll and fanfare, please.)

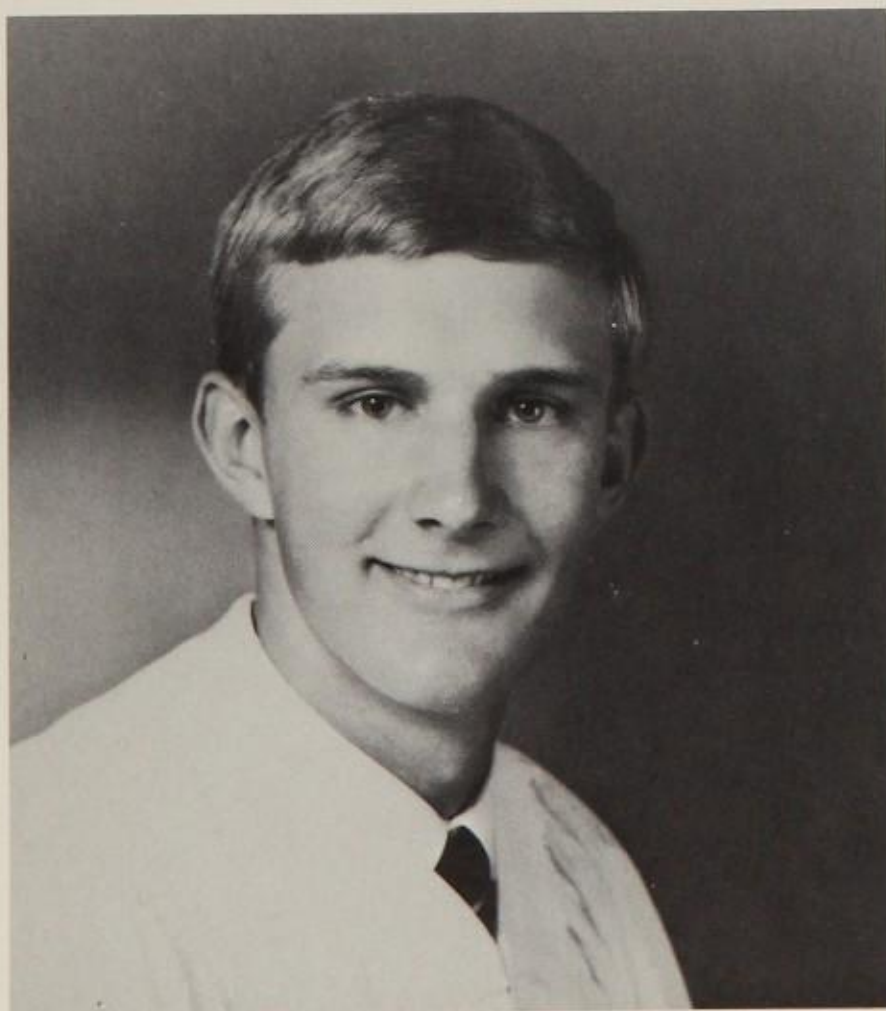

Introducing—the 1969 Hall of Fame students . . .
I said, the 1969 Hall of Fame students! . . . Oh, well, here they are, folks.

Now, now, don't be sore about that senior privilege card—that same teacher might get you into Hall of Fame. Fifteen out of eight hundred—how can you lose? Just keep smiling.

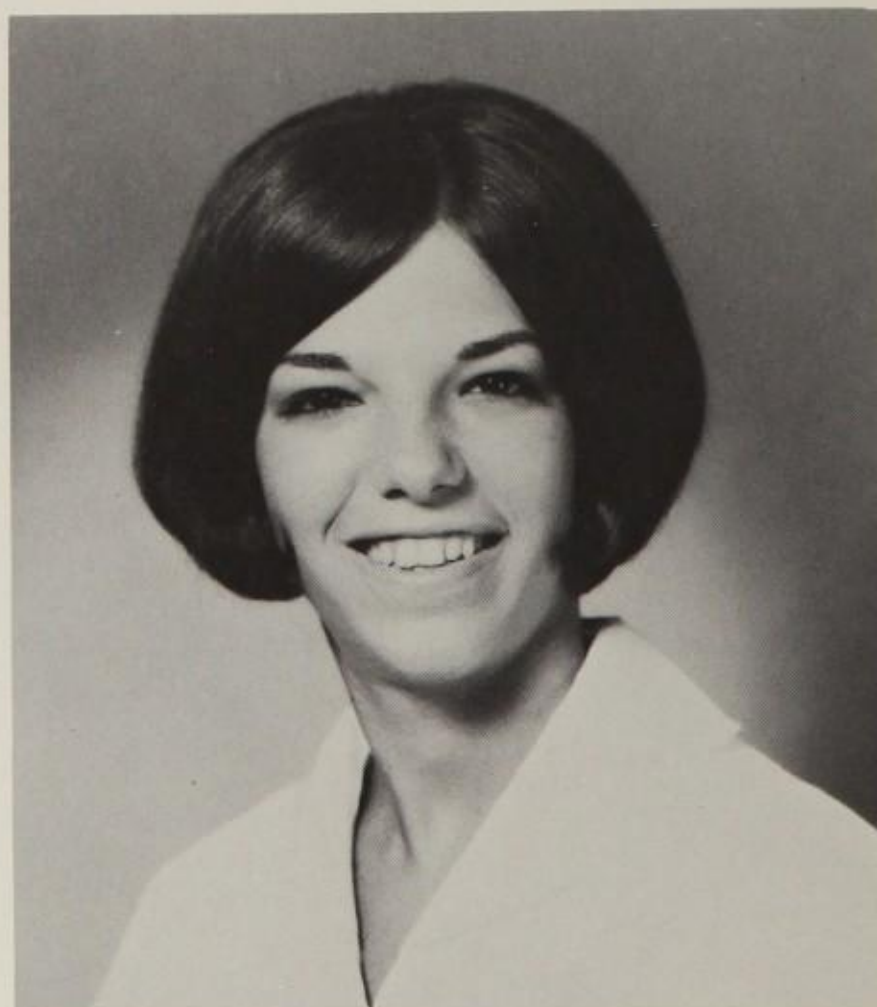

Selected by the usual criteria (i.e.—leadership, character, citizenship, etc.), the Famous Fifteen received “one of the highest honors to be conferred on a student.” Congratulations.

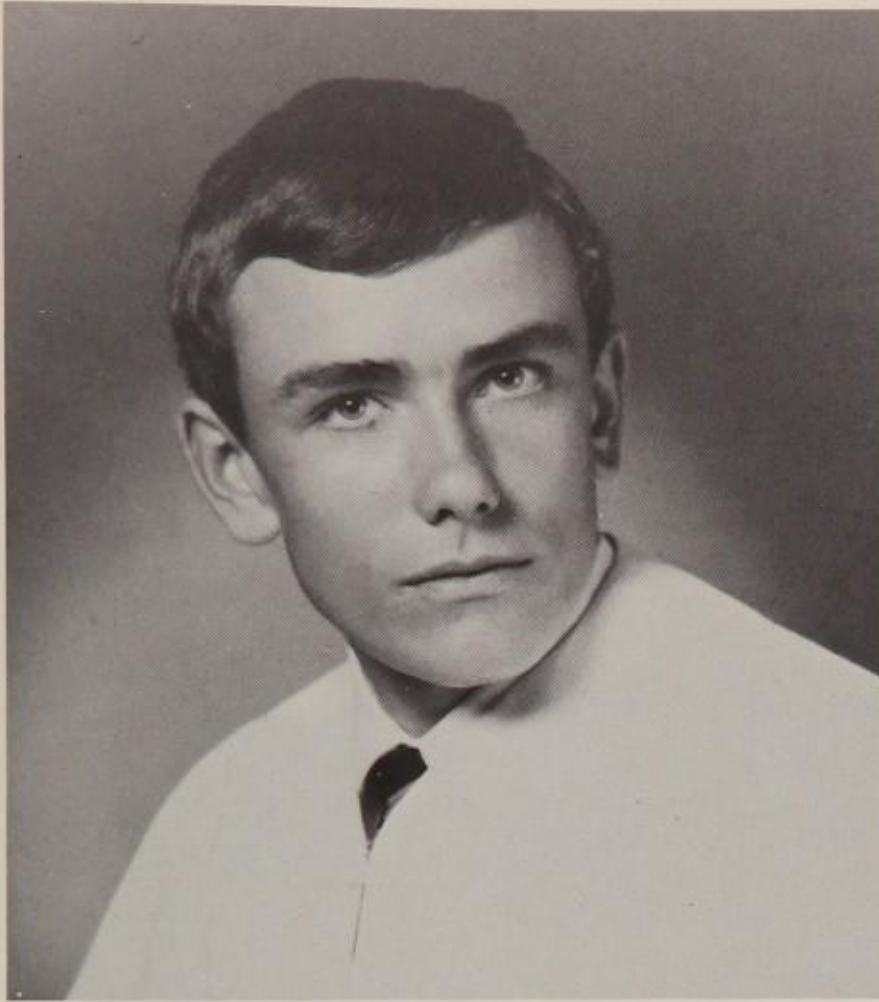

Randy Adair

Fred Briggs

Karen Casper

Michael Bell

Randy Adair distinguished himself in the field of athletics. He participated in basketball and track all through high school and won the Miami Herald Player of the Week Award for football. He was also a member of Interact service club.

Michael Bell achieved scholastic recognition by qualifying as a National Merit semi-finalist. He was also a member of Delta Epsilon Phi, Mu Alpha Theta and the National Honor Society. He was a Student Council representative, as well as Interact president and a delegate to Boys' State. He was also a member of Palmetto's successful wrestling team.

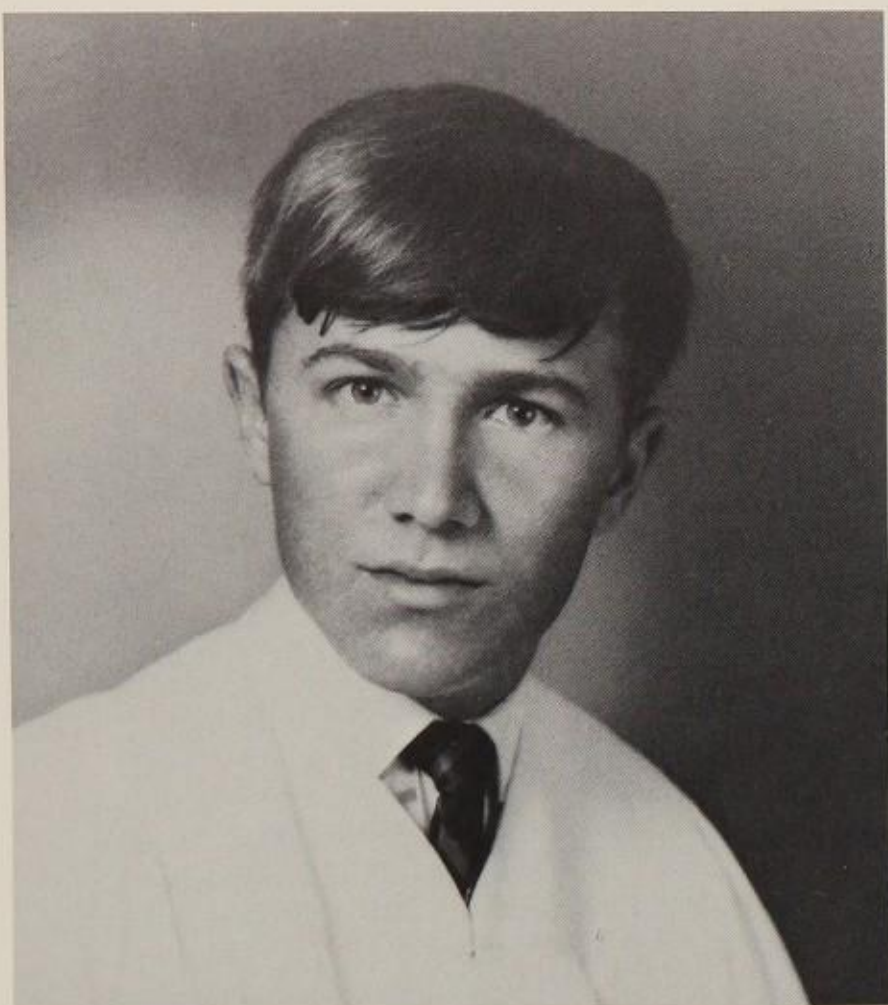

Fred Briggs was a member of Interact service club in his junior and senior years. As an athlete, he participated in junior varsity football and baseball all through high school. In basketball, Fred achieved recognition on the junior varsity and varsity teams; he won the Miami Herald Player of the Week award in his junior year.

Karen Casper's achievements have centered around academics. She was a member of Mu Alpha Theta, Spanish National Honor Society and the National Honor Society. She was also commended for her fine performance on the National Merit Exam. She was a Student Council representative and a member of Elit  service club.

Kathleen Deegan

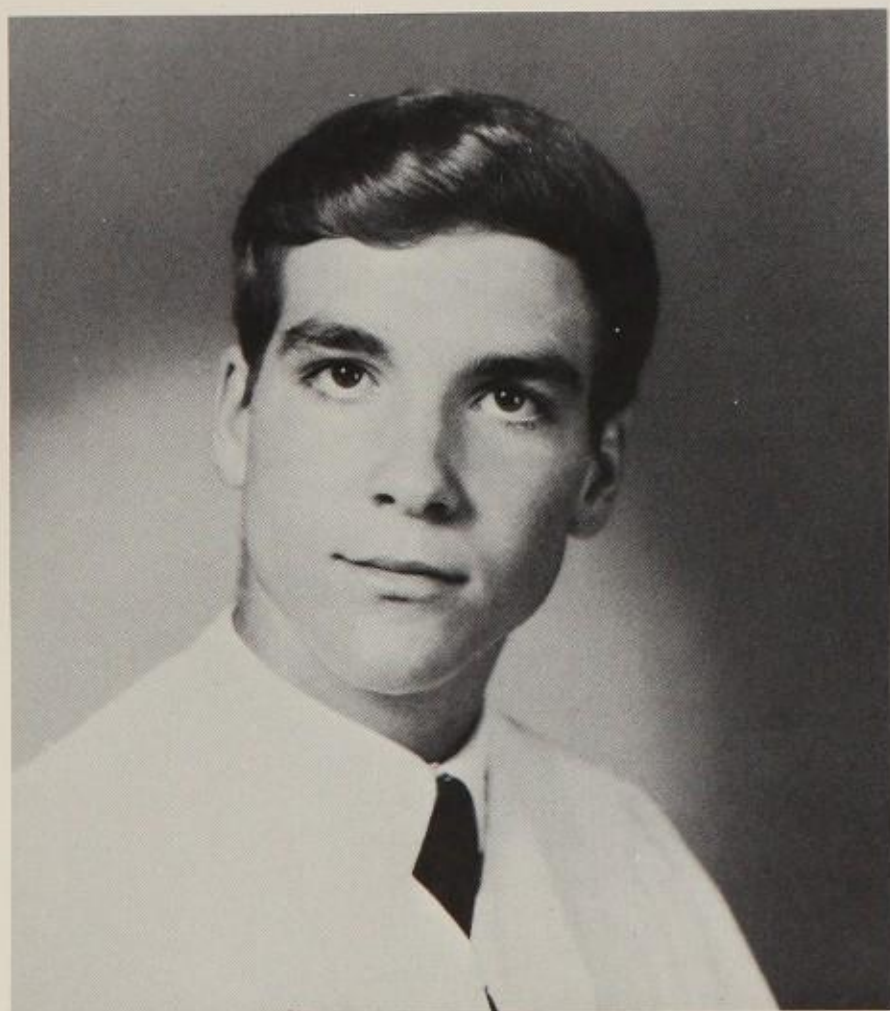

Kathleen Deegan's main interest was in dramatics. She was a member of the Drama Club and Thespians, drama honor society, all through high school. As a senior, she was president of Thespians and participated in the drama department's two productions. She was a member of Mu Alpha Theta, Spanish Honor Society and National Honor Society, as well as a member of Echo service club.

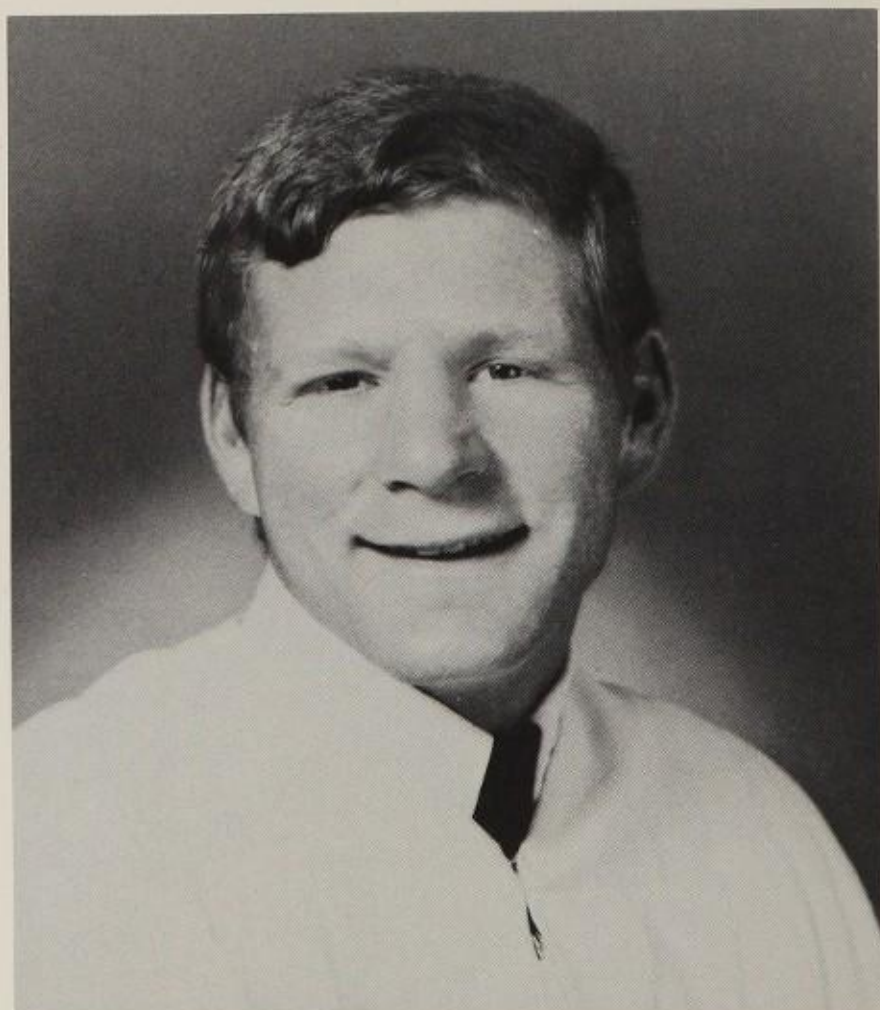

Charles Ehrlich

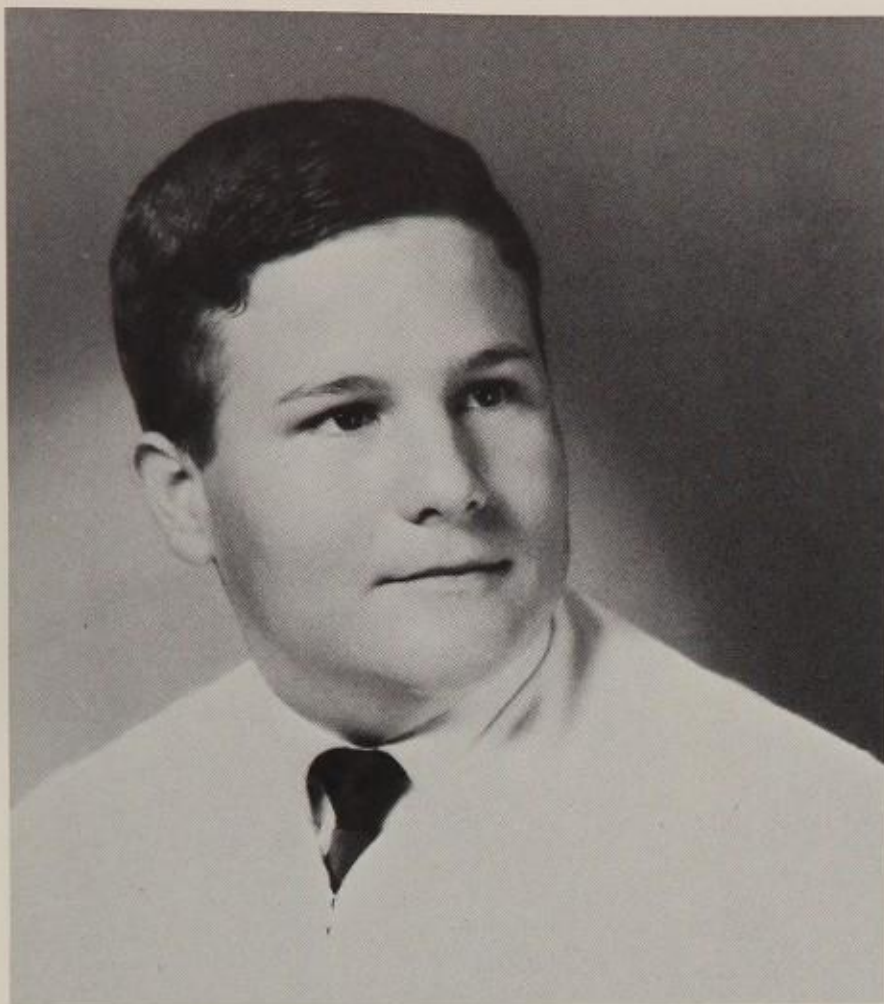

Barbara Greer

Robert Krieger

Alan Levin

Lawrence Kellogg

Charles Ehrlich's interests centered around service and scholarship. He was a member of the National Honor Society and the French National Honor Society. He was an active member of Key Club and served as its treasurer in his senior year. He was also statistician for the football team.

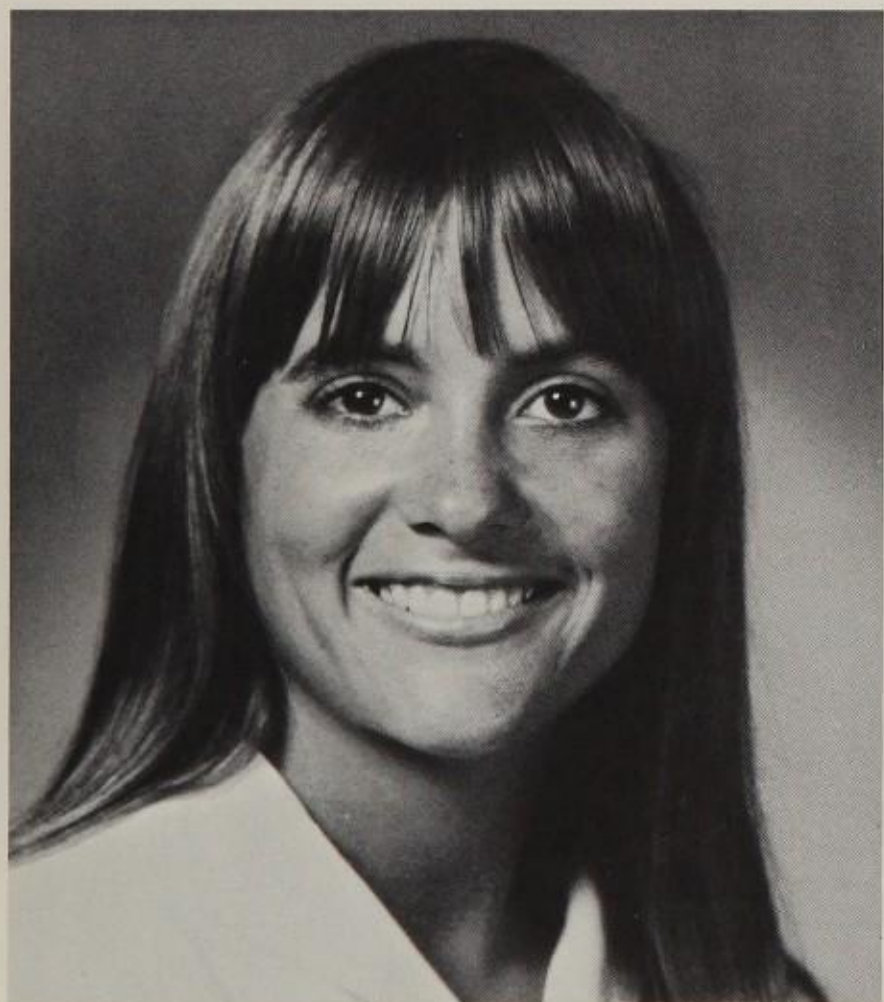

Barbara Greer distinguished herself in the areas of journalism and service to the school. She was editor of the Palm Echo and a member of Quill and Scroll, journalism honor society. She was a member of Elité service club and served as vice-president as a senior. She was also in the National Honor Society and Delta Epsilon Phi. She was a Student Council representative and a delegate to the Dade County Youth Council.

Lawrence Kellogg achieved recognition through chorus activities. He was president of the Concert Chorus, and a member of Double Quintet. He was treasurer of Interact service club and a Student Council representative. He was also on the golf team and a football training assistant.

Robert Krieger was senior class president and a member of Key service club. He also participated in athletics as a member of the swimming team, water polo team, and Letterman's club. He was recognized for scholastic achievement by being inducted into the National Honor Society, Latin National Honor Society, and Mu Alpha Theta.

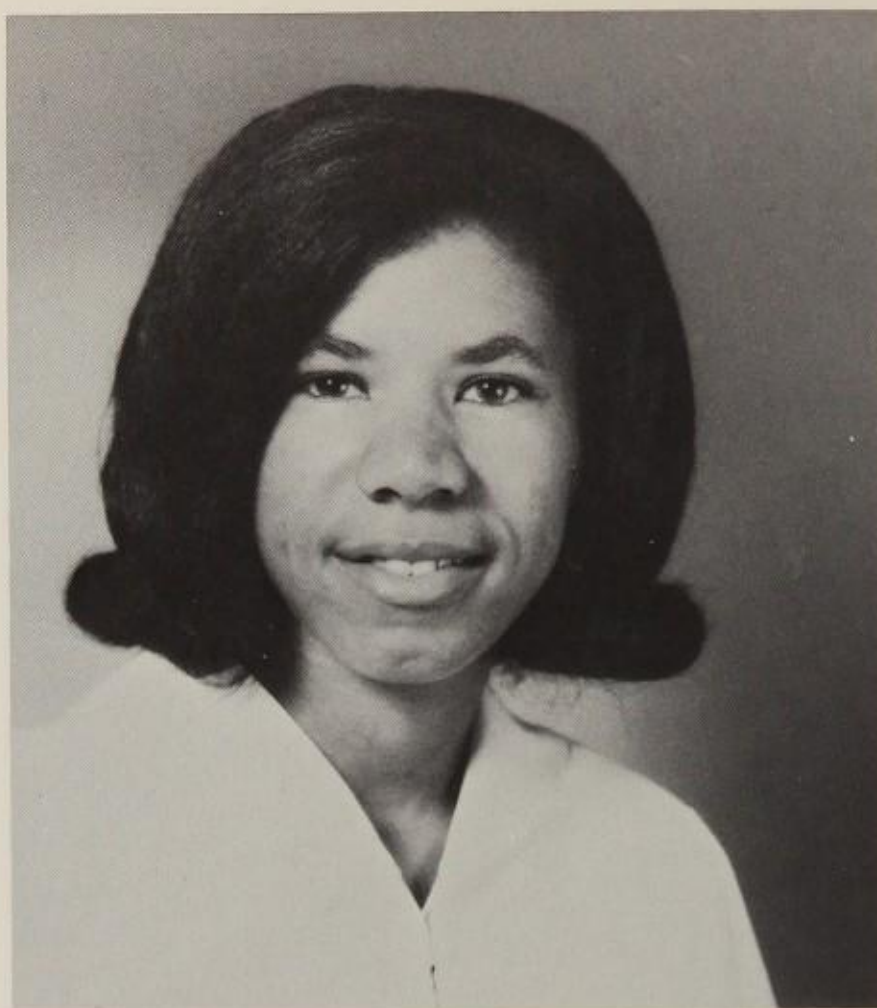

Alan Levin served as class treasurer in both his sophomore and junior years and as Student Council president as a senior. He was a member of Key service club and participated in j.v. and varsity football. He was also on the Bi-Racial committee.

Angela Miller distinguished herself in School and community service by acting as Student Council vice-president and president of Twenty Little Working Girls' Club. She was a member of the girls' varsity tennis team and the drama club. She was also a member of Mu Alpha Theta, Spanish National Honor Society, and the National Honor Society.

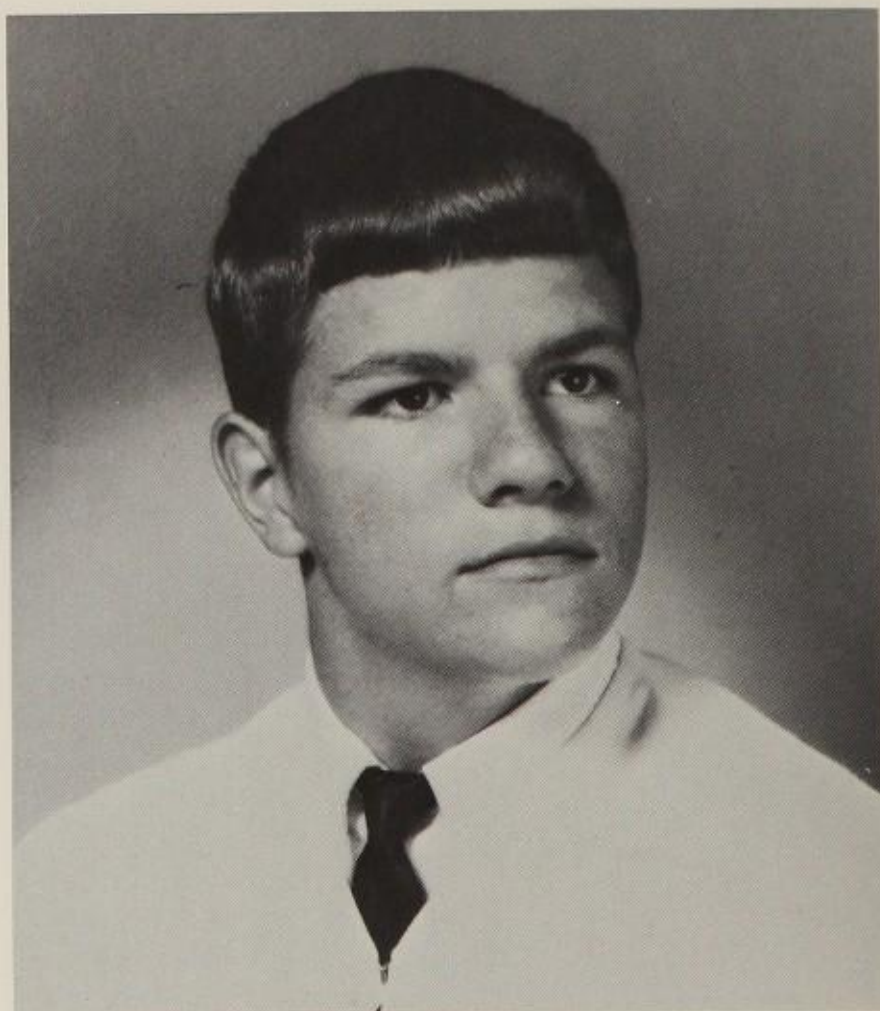

Angela Miller

Yvonne Morris's activities centered around publications. She was a Palm Echo staff member for two years and a member of Quill and Scroll, the journalism honor society. She was a member of the Mixed Chorus as a junior and a representative at the Bi-Racial Committee meetings as a senior.

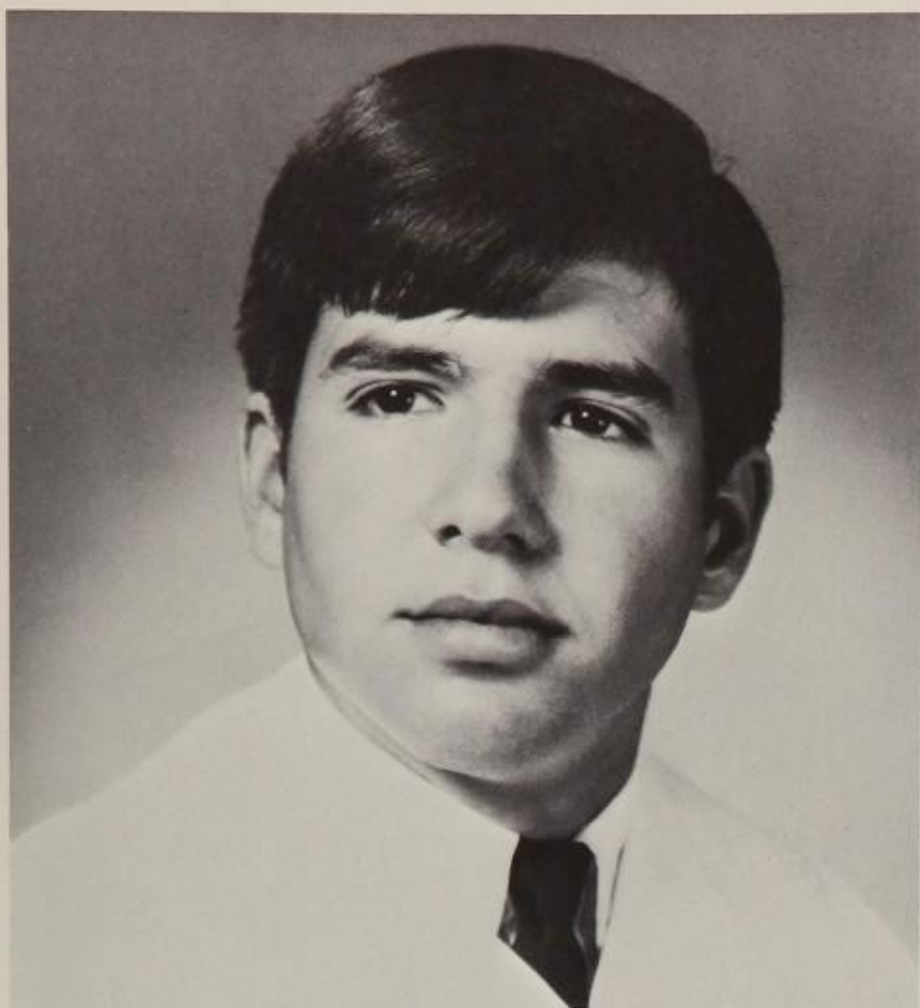

Yvonne Morris

Bill Pinkston gained recognition through his academic achievements. He was a member of Mu Alpha Theta and National Honor Society and treasurer of Phi Beta Chi. He was also vice-president of the Junior Engineering and Technical Society, as well as a National Merit semi-finalist.

Bill Pinkston

Brian Nordwall

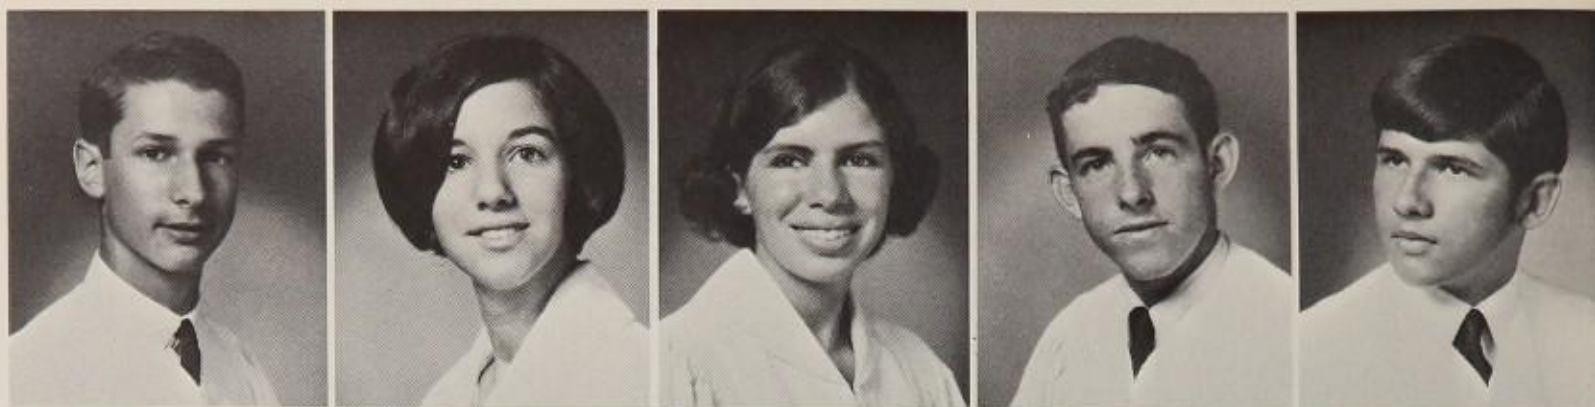

Brian Nordwall focused his interests in the areas of academics and journalism. He was editor of the Panther in both his junior and senior years and a member of Quill and Scroll, the journalism honor society. His academic achievement ranged from being a National Merit semi-finalist to membership in the National Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta and Phi Beta Chi. He was also a member of Interact service club.

Candy Walters

Candy Walters won awards for her artistic ability from the Scholastic Art Competition. She was a member of the Student Council and second vice-president of Girls' Council. She was a cheerleader and a member of the Art Club. She was a princess in both her sophomore and junior years and, as a senior, was elected Homecoming Queen.

Bang! The seniors are off! The year opened with Senior Spirit Week. Ingredients: crepe paper, aching feet, and laryngitis.

Spirit and cut classes soared high during Homecoming. Chaos and confusion. Panther Prowl . . . a hubub of excitement . . . "Panthers are dynamite!" . . . take it away, Big Al.

Lights, camera, action. Here comes Senior Stunt Night, in March for a change. Fun and laughs. Then—hang onto your curls for the grand finale . . . the Prom. Swishing taffeta and silk . . . squashed corsages . . . smile (click). Graduation time has finally come. Best in spirit, best in time; Senior Class of '69.

The Lost Class—halfway between Nowhere and Everywhere. The 7-11 soda pop-for-lunch bunch. You're only young once, after all.

Keep trying, kids The magazine drive in the spring (only one more subscription and I win a toy). The parking-lot clean-up brigade (come on you guys, let's show some spirit). It isn't whether you win or lose, but how you play the game (second place for the Homecoming float). Typing term papers and beginning to worry about colleges and coming down with premature "senioritis" (Who, me?).

Sophomore Board

You've come a long way, baby—and you've got a long way to go. Look around. "Hey, I'm next." A sophomore's world—muddled by hurly-burly hubbab.

Officers to choose (Who'd you vote for?). JV athletics (Whew . . . running, always running). And, why only yesterday . . . yearbook photos . . . kids, kids, kids (wrong size jacket, synthetic hair). Groovy. Homecoming (surprise, surprise, surprise). Mardi Gras. Shrieks of laughter. (Hang on for life.) A whirlwind of activity kept sophs happy. "Get your candy right here."

Topsy turvydom. Bamboozlement. A sea of nameless faces turned into "The class that's next to none, Senior Class of '71."

Dear Barbara:

Sorry for the delay—I have the original folded picture of Nixon and Agnew but as it is with.

I have the retouched one on my wall which is the same size as this one, so use this one for scaling and make a note on your layout that I have the good one.

Mr. Snell is getting the cover materials, etc. organized and will be sending it soon.

A CAREER WITH WINN-DIXIE

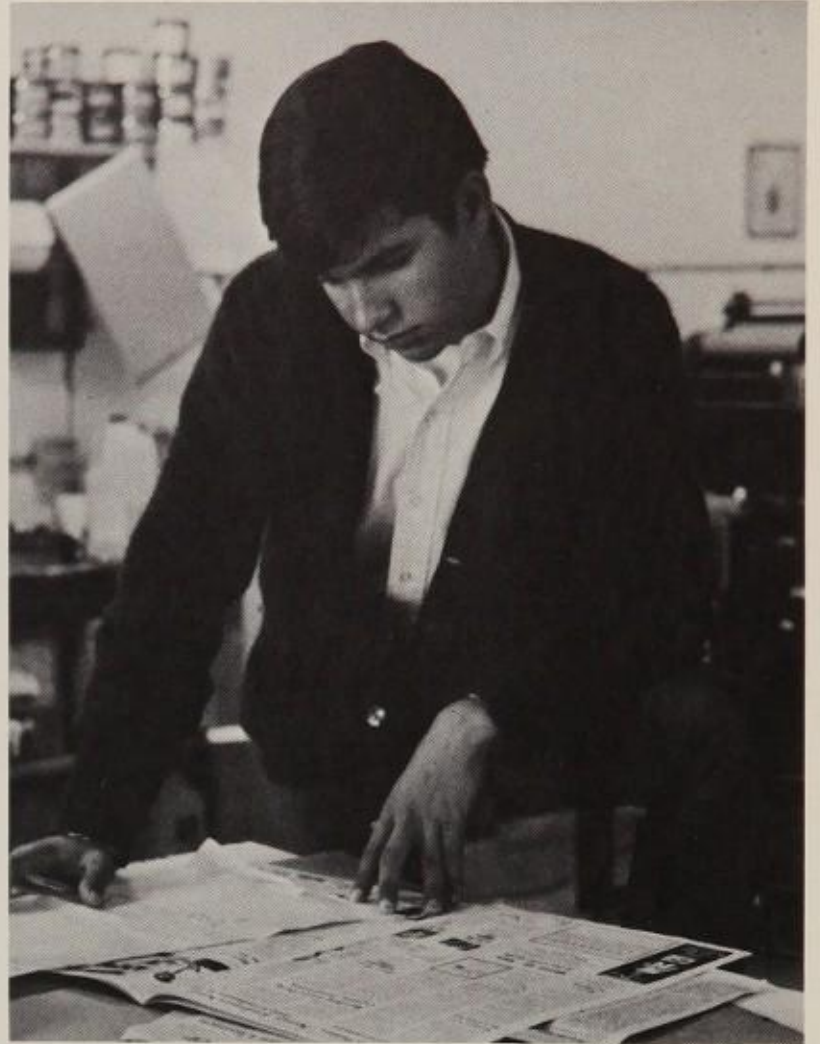

Winn Dixie Stores, Inc. is the seventh largest food chain in the country with over 700 stores in eleven states. We are looking for young men with high school and college educations for management training. The more education you have the better . . . so, if at all possible, you should go to college. When you are ready to look into the opportunities offered at Winn Dixie, contact W. S. Cail, 1051 S.E. 8th St., Hialeah, Florida. There is a bright future for you with Winn Dixie.

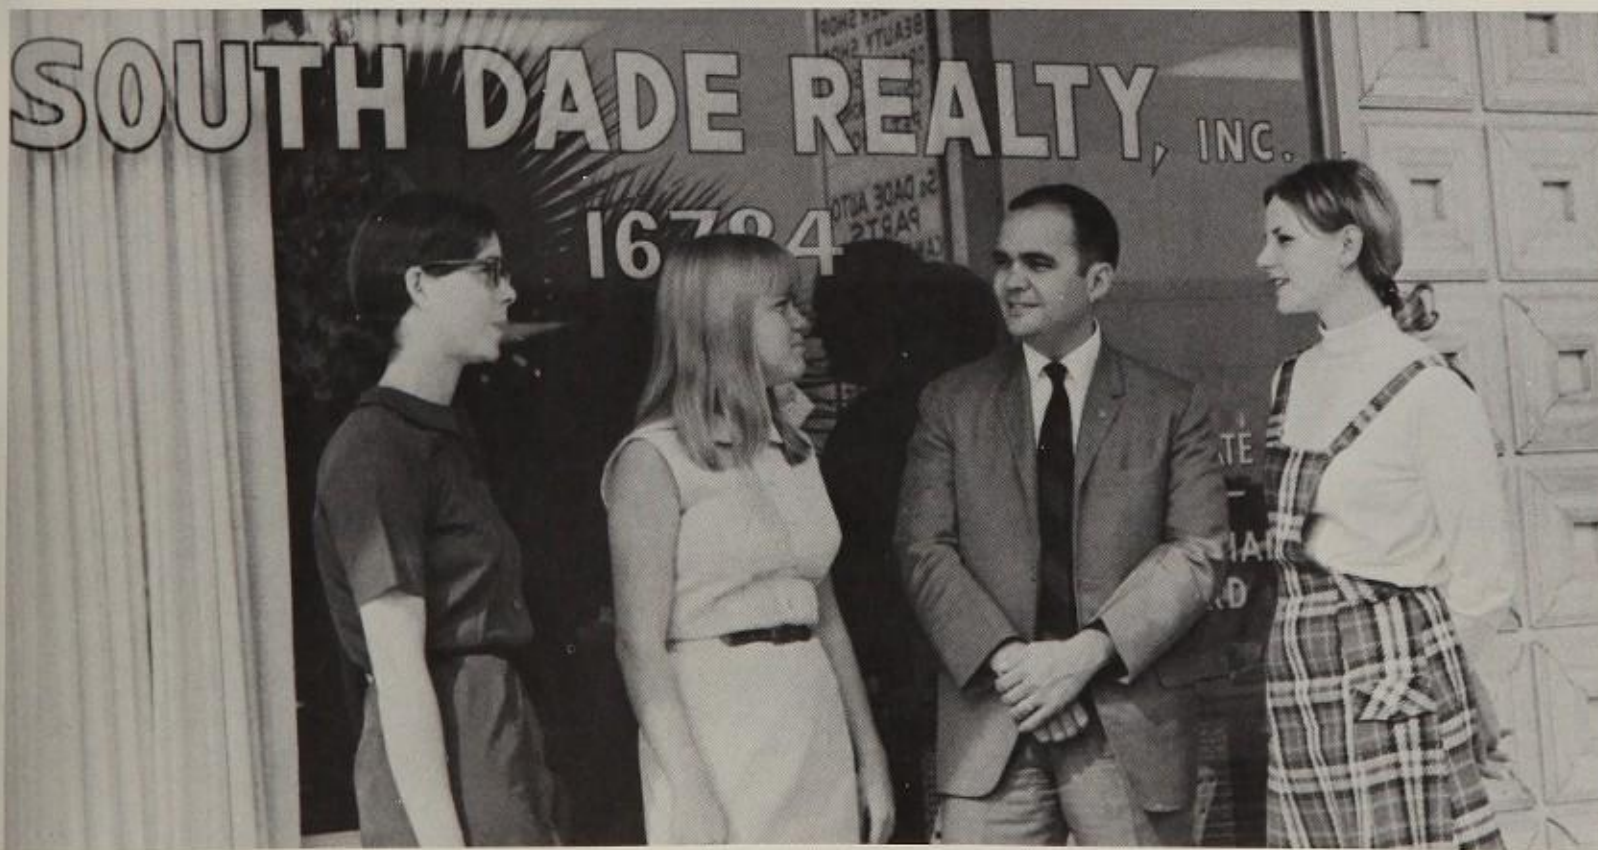

Class of 1969 shows their appreciation for quality by having chosen BALFOUR as their official Jeweler, P.O. Box 23641, Ft. Lauderdale.

Key Club member, Bill Hutchins, coaches a participant in the first E.O.P.I. sponsored little league baseball team.

Members of Key Club gather twice a month to discuss and plan activities including parking lot cleanup campaigns and E.O.P.I. volunteer work.

Mr. William E. Henderson, senior class government teacher and sponsor of Key Club, participates in all of Key's activities and oversees meetings.

Alan Levin and some children from E.O.P.I. watch the animals at the zoo on outing in Crandon Park.

Jeff Lee is enthralled watching the monkeys as he helps out by devoting his time during one of the successful Key Club E.O.P.I. programs at the fun-filled Crandon Park Zoo.

Randy Crete, Key Vice-President, participates in the service clubs' activities and functions during the Saturday parking lot clean-up.

Mr. Curtis Ferry, one of Key Clubs' sponsors, sits in on another meeting planning and discussing activities to benefit our school.

Key Club member Dan Eastwood serves potato salad on picnic outing for underprivileged children at the Crandon Park picnic area.

ELITE SERVICE CLUB

As one of their many service projects, Elité members cleaned the school parking lot one Saturday morning. Dottie helped.

Candy Calender earns service hours that are required every six-weeks by helping clean the parking lot located across from school. We love Dandy Candy.

Mary Danford and Fran Niles eat their way into sheer ecstasy at a dinner meeting.

Betty Salisbury joined the members for dinner at Shorty's before a Monday meeting.

Kitty Brinckerhoff becomes hysterical upon completing her 999 sign of the year.

Carefully examining each pair of shoes, Michelle Lawrence makes her choice. "Think they'll fit?"

President Steinbring

Les Jeunes Filles

"Of corpse, of corpse, have I ever let you down?" puns Janet Law, the Frontier Mortician, to her pals—played by Sally Doerner, Linda Popp, and Holly Hawkins.

"Ahem pardon me!" says Steve Arnold, as he comes between Janet Law and Tom Kincaid to get some refreshments.

Marty Miller and Sally Stripling join with the rest of the LFJ gang to enjoy themselves at a Valentine's party.

"Ve vill bury!" predict Les Jeune Filles members Janet Law and Mary Jean Moore. Forest lawn it ain't.

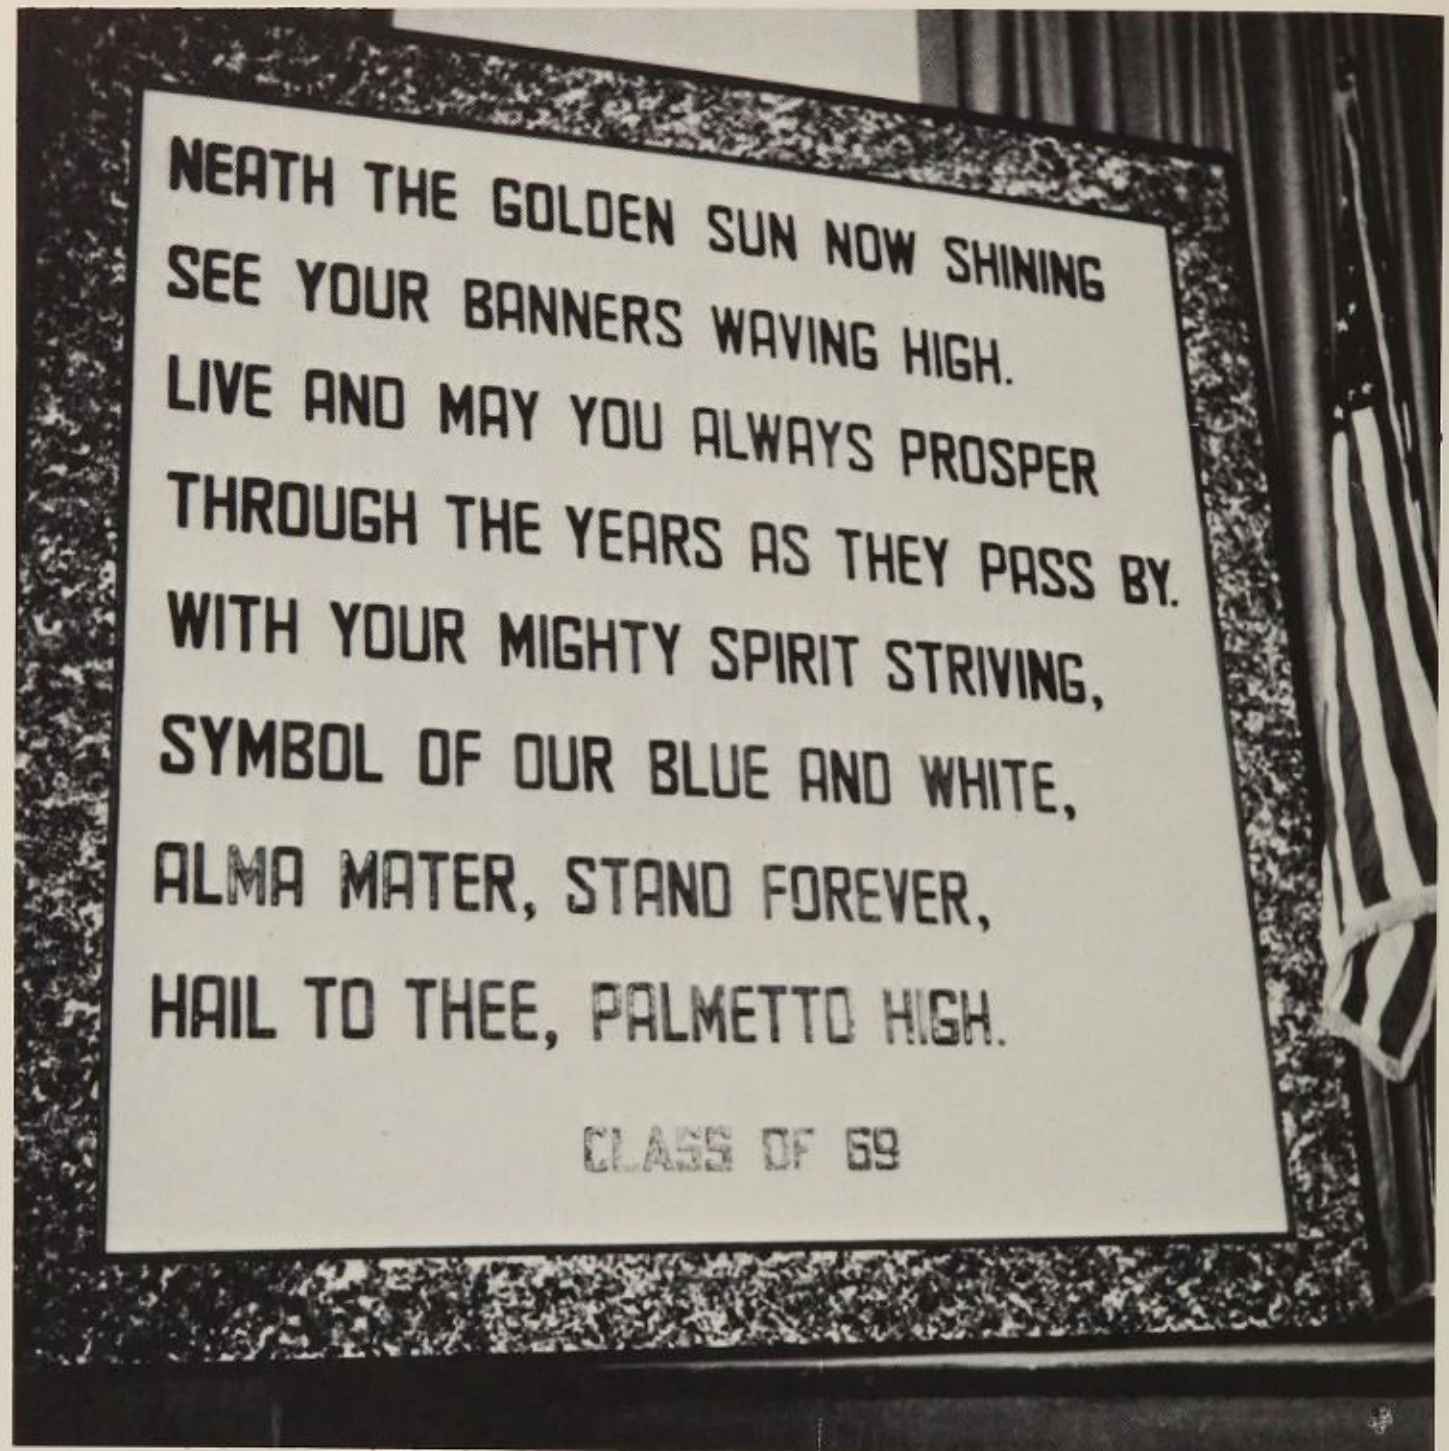

"Here's the church; here's the steeple. . .?" Laura Bowers discusses candy-striping at a Les Jeune Filles meeting.

Two members of LJF, Laura Bowers and Holly Hawkins, show the spirit of their club by putting beat signs up around the school.

This space for doodling

Green, green—green like the grass or whatever. Traditional Blue with just a touch more yellow. Our book, so here we are—lost somewhere between these pages. Filled with a theme of love and brotherhood— — ideas taken partially from The Art of Loving by Erich Fromm. Telling the story of a different year—in a different way. All this the staff offers up to the demanding masses. Just let it be said, that here is the effort of some who created the experimental difference that is a reflection of our time—more symbol than just blue and white. As this is my letter—my page—I would like to express my personal thanks and love to brother Sir Lancelot for literally standing by me. I would like, also, to unofficially dedicate this volume to S.G., who should have been here to see this and everything else. Meanwhile, I remain

Sincerely yours,
Barbara Greer
Editor-in-chief
